BOUDREAU CONTINUES SHORTSTOP MASTERY

In pacing American League shortstops in fielding with a record .982 percentage in 1947, Manager Lou Boudreau of Cleveland topped the circuit's performers at that position for the eighth consecutive season.

Boudreau came up to the Indians in August, 1939, from Buffalo of the International League and finished the season with a .953 fielding record in 53 American League games. Cleveland's regular shortstop ever since, Boudreau, who also became manager in 1942, led all players at his position in fielding starting in 1940 with percentages of .968, .966, .965, .970, .978, .983 and .970 before establishing a new league record with .982 in 1947.

A broken right ankle, suffered August 14, 1945, limited him to 97 games that season, and while his .983 fielding mark made him the nominal pacesetter, he lacked three games of qualifying for official recognition.

TWO NO-HITTERS BY A. L. FLINGERS

Two American League pitchers entered the hurlers' mythical hall of fame in 1947 by registering no-hit, no-run efforts. Don Black, righthander with the Indians, turned the trick in a twilight game against the Athletics at Cleveland, July 10, and Bill McCahan of the A's performed the feat at Washington's expense in Philadelphia, September 3.

Black, staging a comeback in 1947 after winning only one game and losing seven the previous season with Cleveland and Milwaukee, authored his masterpiece before a two-night double-header crowd of 47,871, largest ever to witness a no-hitter. The Tribe hurler issued six bases on balls and fanned five in the 3 to 0 victory over his one-time teammates, who sent 32 batters to the plate. Ironically, the victim of Black's stellar chucking was Bill McCahan.

Only an error prevented McCahan from chalking up a perfect game in his 3 to 0 no-hitter against the Senators. The A's young righthander faced 28 batters—just one over the minimum—and the Nats' lone base-runner was Stan Spence in the second inning. Spence reached base when First Baseman Ferris Fain, after fielding Stan's roller, threw wildly to McCahan covering first base. McCahan, who walked none, struck out two. Only 2,816 fans were on hand for the performance, which ended a seven-game losing streak for the Mackmen.

BLACKWELL'S 16 IN ROW INCLUDES NO-HITTER

Ewell Blackwell, rangy Cincinnati righthander, compiled a string of 16 consecutive victories while leading the majors with 22 triumphs in 1947 in his sophomore year with the Reds. The skein was the longest in the Big Time since Carl Hubbell finished the 1936 season with an unbroken run of 16 in a row for the New York Giants. One of Blackwell's wins was a no-hitter, and in his next start he came within two outs of a second straight hitless effort.

Beginning the streak against the Cubs, May 10, Blackwell defeated the Braves, Dodgers and Phils three times each, the Cubs, Giants and Pirates twice apiece and the Cardinals once. Five of the wins were shutouts. In only one start during the stretch did he fail to go the route, being removed for a pinch-hitter against the Giants, June 1, with the score tied. His successor, Harry Gumbert, received credit for the victory.

The Braves were victims of Blackwell's no-hit performance in a night game at Cincinnati, June 18. Only 30 batters faced the Redleg ace, who walked four and struck out three in the 6 to 0 victory, witnessed by 18,137.

In his next start, against Brooklyn, June 22, Blackwell was only two outs away from duplicating Johnny Vander Meer's feat of successive no-hitters when Eddie Stanky blasted a single through the box. Jackie Robinson followed a moment later with another for Brooklyn's only safeties.

The Giants ended Blackwell's streak, July 30, leaving him three short of Rube Marquard's record of 19 straight wins for the 1912 Giants. A homer by Willard Marshall with one out in the ninth and another run in the tenth spelled defeat for Blackwell, 5 to 4.

N. L. TIGHTENS UP ON PLAYING CODE

By order of President Ford Frick, more strict enforcement of the playing code in the National League was assured during the 1948 season. Both pitchers and hitters are required to toe the line and umpires were charged with instructing the players during spring training on points that had been glossed over in previous seasons.

Anything resembling the spitter is barred and no pitcher may go to his mouth, wet his fingers, blow on his hands or use beads of perspiration or sweat on clothing to assist him in an illegal delivery. The hurler is required to bring the ball to a full stop before delivery—a mere pause, or a stop halfway and then a full stop, being prohibited—otherwise a balk will be called. In throwing to first base, a full step must be made toward the bag; a three-quarter turn will not be allowed. A hurler lingering in the bullpen after being summoned is allowed only three or four warmup pitches on the mound.

Every batter must be inside the batters' box and none may scratch out the line defining the box. Coaches also are required to remain inside their lines and not erase them. One warning will be issued; if not heeded, ejection from the game will follow.

Although the American League has held that a triple may be awarded the batter when a fielder strikes a foul ball with his thrown glove before the ball passes first or third base, the National does not inflict the penalty unless the batted ball hit by a thrown glove or cap is fair.

The rules committee has been asked to amend the obstruction rule, but until it is changed, National League umpires will wave the runner to the next base when a fielder without possession of the ball blocks the runner off a base. Even if the offense occurs on a potential home run inside the park and limits the runner to second or third base, there will be no deviation from the rule.

The Year 1947 in Review

By CLIFFORD KACHLINE

UNPARALLELED in the history of the game, the season of 1947 added many epic chapters to the annals of Organized Ball, including establishment of an all-time attendance high of 60,810,635 paid customers. Sharing with the two majors in making the campaign a banner one were a record number of 52 minor leagues and 388 clubs operating under the jurisdiction of the National Association. Every circuit completed the season, and only a few franchise shifts were made.

Top headline honors of the year, aside from the attendance figures, revolved about the two former stormy petrels and guiding geniuses of Brooklyn's 1941 National League champions—Larry MacPhail, seven years ago president of the Dodgers and in 1947 chief executive of the world's champion New York Yankees, and Leo Durocher, manager of the '41 Bums, who was forced to sit out the '47 campaign while Brooklyn marched to another flag.

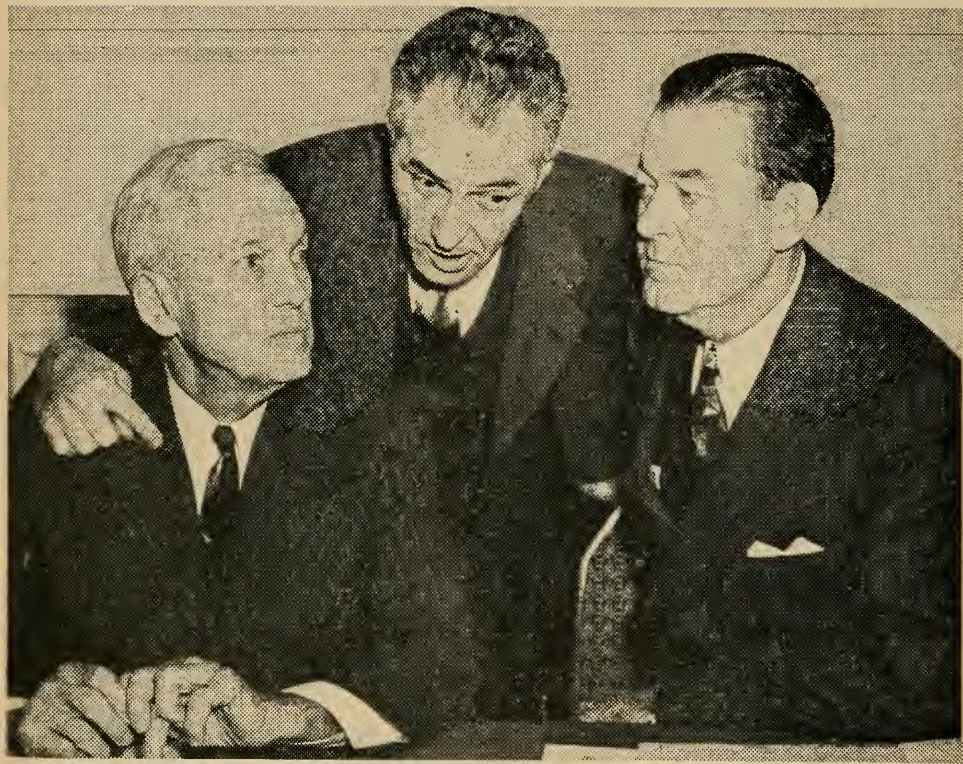

A feud involving the pair, President Branch Rickey of Brooklyn and other Dodger officials rocked the majors' 1947 spring training campaign. MacPhail's signing the previous winter of Charley Dressen and John Corriden, previously Dodger coaches, as aides to Bucky Harris; charges that the Yankee president had two alleged gamblers as his guests at a Bomber-Dodger exhibition game in Havana; charges and counter-charges that Durocher had sought, or had been offered, the Yankee managerial post before Harris was appointed—these were among the factors that added fuel to a blaze which was brought to a head when Commissioner A. B. Chandler called an official hearing at Sarasota, Fla., March 24, on filing of a formal complaint by MacPhail.

All principals involved were summoned by Chandler, but Rickey was prevented from attending by the death of a brother-in-law. The hearing was closed March 28 at St. Petersburg, Fla., when Chandler held a special session devoted to MacPhail and Rickey. All were enjoined not to discuss events transpiring at the meetings.

On April 9—just six days before opening of the major league season—the Commissioner announced his decision. Durocher was adjudged guilty of conduct detrimental to baseball and suspended for the entire 1947 playing season, MacPhail was fined $2,000 for his part in the squabble, the Brooklyn club drew a similar assessment, Traveling Secretary Harold Parrott of the Dodgers was fined $500 for ghosting several caustic articles appearing under Durocher's by-line in the Brooklyn Eagle, and Dressen was suspended for 30 days from the start of the pennant race.

Coach Clyde Sukeforth immediately took charge of the Dodger club, but three days after the season opened Burt Shotton, summoned from his Florida home by Rickey, was persuaded to assume the Brooklyn reins. Durocher, meantime, retired to comparative obscurity in California with his actress-wife, Laraine Day. The pair had been married in El Paso, Tex., January 21, after she had obtained a Mexican divorce following awarding of an interlocutory divorce decree in California.

MacPhail subsequently was summoned to Cincinnati twice during the season by Commissioner Chandler to explain his actions in commenting on the Durocher suspension, contrary to orders not to discuss the subject. The Colonel, whose Yankees rocketed to the American League flag and then beat the Dodgers in the World's Series, again stole the headlines on the day of the Series finale by announcing his retirement as president-general manager of the club a few moments after the last game. Co-owners Dan Topping and Del Webb then bought out MacPhail's one-third interest in the club for $2,000,000. Topping became president and George M. Weiss, former farm supervisor, was installed as general manager.

For the first time since 1942, no managerial changes were made during the season. Billy Herman, however, resigned as Pittsburgh manager, September 25, although his two-year contract had another season to run. Coach Bill Burwell directed the Bucs in their lone remaining game as the Pirates tied Philadelphia for last place.

Finishing in the basement in 1947 also proved disastrous for a freshman American League pilot. Herold (Muddy) Ruel, who had resigned as assistant to Commissioner Chandler to accept a two-year pact as pilot of the St. Louis Browns, was relieved shortly after the season closed. Two other managerial shifts were necessitated when Ossie Bluege was relieved of the Washington helm to become head of the club's farm system and Joe Cronin moved up to the Boston Red Sox front office as general manager. Bluege had piloted the Nats five years and Cronin led the Millionaires 13 seasons.

Durocher, his suspension completed, was rehired, December 6, as Dodger pilot for 1948, with Shotton taking over a supervisory position in the farm organization. Another manager signed for 1948 after a season out of the game was Joe McCarthy, former Yankee skipper, who was induced to come out of retirement by the Red Sox. Washington brought back Joe Kuhel, former Senator first sacker who made his managerial debut at Hot Springs in the Cotton States League in 1947, as pilot, while Pittsburgh signed Bill Meyer, who led Kansas City to the American Association flag and long was associated with the Yankee system. The Browns filled their pilot vacancy by calling back James (Zack) Taylor, who served as a Pittsburgh coach in 1947. Zack previously coached for the Browns and had finished 1946 as the club's manager following dismissal of Luke Sewell.

Highlighting the 1947 pennant races were the home run hitting achievements of Johnny Mize and Ralph Kiner, who collected 51 four-baggers each, and the New York Giants, who set a team record with 221 home runs; the 16-game winning streak of Cincinnati's Ewell Blackwell, who also came within two outs of two successive no-hitters, and the 19-game victory skein of the Yankees, equalling the American League record.

Another significant event was the introduction of the Negro player for the first time in the modern history of the majors. Jackie Robinson, batting champion of the International League in 1946 as a second baseman for Montreal, earned the distinction of being the first Negro regular in the majors when Brooklyn brought him up a few days before the season opened and stationed him at first base. His sensational play earned him the award of Rookie of the Year.

Four other Negroes were signed by major clubs—Infielder Larry Doby by Cleveland, July 5; Infielder Henry Thompson and Outfielder Willard Brown by the Browns, July 17, and Pitcher Dan Bankhead by the Dodgers, August 25. Bankhead made history in his debut the next day by hitting a home run his first time at bat in the majors. Thompson and Brown were released by the St. Louis club after several weeks' trial.

The Dodgers, thriving under Shotton's inspirational leadership, won the National League pennant in another close race with the Cardinals, clinching the pennant September 22 and winning by a margin of five games. Handicapped by the illness of Stan Musial, who did not regain his batting form until late in the season, and the failure of Pitcher Howie Pollet to repeat his 1946 performance, the defending champion Cardinals started the season in the basement and did not quit the cellar until June 13. They gradually climbed into pennant contention, but could draw no closer than three games behind the Dodgers, who took the lead for keeps July 6.

Coming up with two 21-game winners in Warren Spahn and John Sain, the Braves challenged for part of the season, finishing in third place, eight games off the pace. The surprise club of the National League race was the Giants, who combined a 21-victory record of Larry Jansen, a freshman pitcher, with a devastating attack to take fourth position after a cellar finish in 1946.

The four other clubs trailed badly. The Reds maintained their 1946 position of fifth place largely through the pitching efforts of Blackwell. The Cubs, third the previous season, proved a disappointment in 1947 by falling to sixth, while the Phillies skidded from fifth to a tie for last place with Pittsburgh. The Pirates, seventh in 1946, failed to improve on their position despite a large cash outlay for talent, including the acquisition of Hank Greenberg from Detroit, and construction of an enclosed bullpen—commonly referred to as Greenberg Gardens and Kiner's Korner—in left field to benefit their home-run hitters.

Harry (The Hat) Walker produced one of the surprise individual achievements of the season by winning the National League batting championship. After batting only .237 in 1946 and .200 in ten games with the 1947 Cardinals, Walker was traded with Pitcher Fred Schmidt to the Phillies, May 3, for Outfielder Ron Northey and cash, and proceeded to capture the swat title with a .363 average.

In the American League, Stanley (Bucky) Harris signaled his return to the majors as a manager by leading the Yankees to the pennant and world's championship. Taking over the lead June 19, the Bombers racked up 19 wins in a row in July for a lead that enabled them to breeze to the flag. They finished 12 games ahead of Detroit and 14 in the van of the 1946 pennant-winning Red Sox.

Several of Boston's pitchers, notably Tex Hughson, Mickey Harris and Dave Ferriss, developed arm trouble and failed to show their form of 1946. Two Yankee aces also came up with flipper ailments, Spud Chandler making only one brief appearance after the All-Star Game and Rookie Frank Shea also being out several weeks during the second half of the race. However, the acquisition of Bobo Newsom from Washington in July and the recall of Vic Raschi from Portland of the Coast league filled the gaps.

With Bob Feller standing out as the circuit's lone 20-game winner, Cleveland pushed up from its 1946 sixth position to fourth. The Athletics pulled a surprise by moving up from the basement to fifth place. Washington fell from fourth to seventh, 33 games off the pace, and the Browns climaxed a dismal season in the cellar, 38 games in arrears.

While slugging performances were numerous, especially in the National League, and nine major league home run records were set and eight tied, there also were three no-hit games and both leagues established records for fewest errors in their history and new high fielding averages.

Blackwell, sophomore Cincinnati righthander who led the majors with 22 wins, pitched the first no-hit game of the season against the Braves, June 18. Don Black of Cleveland came through with a similar performance against his former Athletic teammates, July 10, and Bill McCahan of the A's produced the third hitless effort, September 3, against Washington.

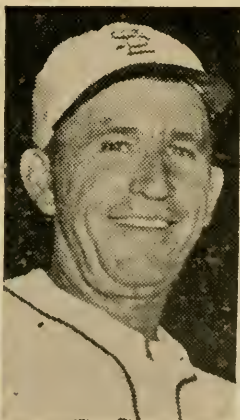

Ted Williams was the individual batting star of the year, leading the American League in percentage, with .343; in runs-batted-in, 114; home runs, 32; runs scored, 125; total bases, 335; slugging percentage, .634, and walks, 162.

Besides the change in ownership on the Yankees, one other club changed hands after the season closed. Bob Hannegan, resigning as Postmaster General, headed a syndicate that purchased the Cardinals and their farm system from Sam Breadon for approximately $4,000,000, the highest amount ever paid for a big league club. During the season there had been many rumors of the sale of either or both St. Louis clubs and reports of transferring one or the other to Los Angeles or Baltimore. The Browns, however, were not sold, but they disposed of most of their stars during the winter of 1947-48 for around $500,000 in cash and players.

for night games. Detroit completed plans to install lights for the 1948 season, leaving only Wrigley Field, home of the Cubs, without lights.

Commissioner Chandler was presented with his foremost challenge since taking office in 1945 a few weeks after the close of the '47 campaign. General Manager Leslie O'Connor of the White Sox, former aide to the late Commissioner K. M. Landis, challenged Chandler's right to make his own interpretation of the rule forbidding the signing of high school players following the Commissioner's voiding of a contract between the Chicago club and a schoolboy pitcher, George Zoeterman. O'Connor and the White Sox were suspended for his refusal to pay a $500 fine assessed, and O'Connor threatened legal action. However, O'Connor capitulated six days later, November 4, and the suspension was lifted on payment of the fine.

Another bid for recognition as a major league was made by the Pacific Coast loop. After being rebuffed at the majors' joint meeting in Chicago, July 5, the Coast sought a special status as a major-minor in the National Association convention and major league meetings in December. However, they failed to obtain the necessary three-fourths vote from the other minors and then were turned down again by the majors. The Pacific Coasters, in their bid for a special classification, sought to have the draft price placed at $25,000 for their players, with six seasons' experience—instead of the present four—required to make a player draft-eligible.

The pension plan for big league players, accepted at a meeting of the majors in New York, January 31-February 1, went into effect in 1947, as did the "bonus player" rule. World's Series radio rights were sold by Commissioner Chandler for 1949-50-51 for a total of $475,000, with the money ticketed for the player pension fund.

During sessions in Chicago preceding the All-Star Game, the National League re-elected Ford Frick as president for four more years, while the majors' joint meeting voted the 1948 Dream Game to the St. Louis Browns.

At the annual meetings in New York, December 9-10-11, William Harbridge was re-elected president of the American League with a new ten-year contract. A grant of $50,000 to the American Legion for its diamond activities in 1948 was voted, while the majors followed the minors in giving their approval to adoption of a ball of uniform resiliency to be used beginning with the 1949 season.

George M. Trautman, elected at Los Angeles the previous December, took over as National Association president in 1947, replacing the retiring head, W. G. Bramham. In July, Bramham died. The minors, at their annual convention in Miami, December 3-4-5, adopted a streamlined and recodified agreement and also tightened provisions for bonus players, increased player limits for Class B, C and D clubs and the number of options allowed clubs above Class D, and made it obligatory for players to affix affidavits to their contracts as to salary offered to stop cheating on salary limits and to end a growing practice of side agreements.

The Cuban Professional League, operating during the winter, affiliated itself with the National Association and, with the blessing of Organized Ball, opened the 1947-48 season with the use of some 20 players from United States minor leagues. At the minors' December meeting all limitations—except consent of the club owning the player's contract—were removed against participation of a minor leaguer in winter ball. The majors also authorized each club to grant permission for winter play in Cuba to two players with not more than 45 days' experience in the majors. These moves presaged wider propagation of the game in Cuba, Panama, Puerto Rico, Venezuela and Mexico and the ending of the threat of jumping contracts to join leagues in those Latin-American countries.

In recognition of outstanding performance during the year, THE SPORTING NEWS selected Branch Rickey, president of the Dodgers, as the No. 1 Executive in the majors, Ted Williams of the Red Sox as the No. 1 Player and Bob Elliott (right) and family listen to announcement of his selection as National League's most valuable player of 1947. Front, daughters Judy and Cheryl and Mrs. Elliott; back, Bob's father, I. S. Elliott.

Bucky Harris of the Yankees as the No. 1 Manager. Corresponding awards in the minors went to William Purnhage, business manager of Waterloo in the Three-I; Nick Cullop, who piloted Milwaukee to the American Association playoff and Junior World's Series titles, and Hank Sauer, outfielder of the Syracuse International League Chiefs.

The annual All-Star team of THE SPORTING NEWS, the consensus of 292 members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, placed Johnny Mize, Giants, at first base; Joe Gordon, Indians, second base; Lou Boudreau, Indians, shortstop; George Kell, Tigers, third base; Ted Williams of the Red Sox, Joe DiMaggio of the Yankees, and Ralph Kiner of the Pirates, outfield; Walker Cooper, Giants, catcher, and Ewell Blackwell, Reds, Bob Feller, Indians, and Ralph Branca, Dodgers, pitchers.

Bob Elliott, third baseman of the Braves, was named by the writers as the most valuable player in the National League, and Joe DiMaggio in the American. Elliott was the National League choice by a margin of 205 points to 175 for Ewell Blackwell of the Reds; but DiMaggio nosed out Ted Williams of the Red Sox by only one point, 202 to 201, in the American.

The vote for the most valuable in the National was: Elliott, 205; Blackwell, 175; John Mize, Giants, 144; Bruce Edwards, Dodgers, 140; Jackie Robinson, Dodgers, 106; Ralph Kiner, Pirates, 101; Larry Jansen, Giants, 91; Harold Reese, Dodgers, 80; George Kurowski, Cardinals, 45; Harry Walker, Phillies, 45; Ralph Branca, Dodgers, 40, and Hugh Casey, Dodgers, 37.

In the American, the most valuable player points were distributed among DiMaggio, 202; Williams, 201; Lou Boudreau, Indians, 168; Joe Page, Yankees, 167; George Kell, Tigers, 132; George McQuinn, Yankees, 77; Joe Gordon, Indians, 59; Bob Feller, Indians, 58; Phil Marchildon, Athletics, 47; Luke Appling, White Sox, 43; Eddie Joost, Athletics, 35, and Barney McCosky, Athletics, 35.

TELEVISION ENTERS THE FIELD

With play-by-play broadcasts of both home and road games becoming almost a universal practice in both the majors and minors, a new development of communication—television—entered the field on a considerable scale in 1947 and will be greatly extended during 1948. In some major league cities all of the home games will be televised; in others, arrangements have been made to show the majority of contests.

For the first time in the history of the majors, the fans back home had the opportunity of seeing nine of the clubs in Florida in action at their 1948 training bases. A series of nine telecasts was aired twice weekly, presented by the Philco Corporation in nine cities, including Philadelphia, St. Louis, New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, Detroit, Milwaukee, Albany and Los Angeles.

Unlike radio, the acceptance of television by the game has been rapid, the extension dependent only on the number of stations making the service available. Instead of merely hearing accounts of the games, fans in many cities now can see the action, as well, at home or in public places.

Television service has been made available in Albany, N. Y.; Camden, N. J.; Baltimore, Md.; Cleveland and Cincinnati, O.; Chicago, Ill.; Detroit, Mich.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Newark, N. J.; New York, N. Y.; Philadelphia, Pa.; St. Louis, Mo., and Washington, D. C. Installations were expected in time to cover the major portion of the 1948 season in Buffalo, N. Y.; Boston, Mass.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Kansas City, Mo., and Richmond, Ind.

Every major league club except Pittsburgh made arrangements for the sale of 1948 television rights to sponsors, ranging from $15,000 to $75,000, and the New York Giants sold their combined radio and television privileges and park advertising signs for $400,000 to Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Co., makers of Chesterfield cigarettes.

Majors, Minors Set Attendance Records

NEW PEAKS in attendance were reached in 1947 as a total of 60,810,635 customers paid their way through Organized Ball's turnstiles. This figure, which includes official post-season series and all-star games in both the majors and minors, exceeded by more than 9,000,000 the previous record of 51,523,736 reported in 1946.

For the first time in history, a league went over the 10,000,000 mark when the National attracted 10,388,470, with six clubs topping a million each. The American played to 9,486,069 as four clubs went over the million figure, led by the Yankees with 2,178,937. In all, eight clubs set new seasonal highs, while many game marks also were established.

A survey of minor league attendance by THE SPORTING NEWS disclosed the 52 circuits registered an all-time high of 40,505,210 payees, including regular-season and playoff games as well as all-star tilts and inter-league series. The season and playoff games as well as all-star tilts and inter-league series. Official paid attendance figures for the minors are shown with the respective league averages.

By DAN DANIEL

BORN IN high drama and climaxed with a spectrum of thrills, the World's Series of 1947 proved the medium of another triumph for the New York Yankees, their eleventh in classic competition over a period of a quarter century. The spectacular success of the Bombers over their Brooklyn neighbors, however, did not follow the old Yankee pattern. It used to be quite the thing for the socking stalwarts from the Stadium to run off the World's Series drama in four acts. This time the National League opposition carried the Yankees into a seventh contest, and in winning the Yankees gained for Stanley (Bucky) Harris the distinction of rising to a world's championship in his first season as their manager. Thus Harris duplicated a feat he had performed as a freshman pilot with Washington in 1924.

Too much credit cannot be given to the Dodgers, and Burt Shotton, their one-term manager filling in for the suspended Leo Durocher, for the spirited struggle they developed, the spectacular feats they recorded, the never-say-die determination they threw into an arena which sparkled with pulse-quickenings feats, and incredible rallies and counter rallies. For a team which failed to produce a single route-going pitcher in seven contests, Brooklyn put up the most remarkable fight in the history of the classic.

As the Series unfolded itself, records having to do with money and turnstile counts crowded upon each other. The total attendance for the inter-league competition—389,763—and the gate receipts—$1,781,348.92—set new marks. With broadcasting and television revenues coming to $240,000, the gross take for the classic achieved the amazing figure of $2,021,348.92.

The greatest turnout in the history of the classic saw the Stadium opener. The count was 73,365, as against the previous mark of 69,990, set in the 1943 competition between the Yankees and the Cardinals. The gate of $325,828.70 for the 1947 inaugural also created a new record. However, neither the turnstile nor the money mark was destined to stand for long. In the sixth battle 74,065 persons paid $327,659.70.

The last contest of the 1947 classic, of course, was a super-production. Brooklyn took a two-run lead in the second, New York picked up one in its half, and then gained the edge with two in the fourth. The Dodgers never got back in the running. Joe Page, who was called on to stop the Brooklyn attack in the last five rounds, allowed only one hit.

That grand finale was a thriller. But the big drama of the Series was staged in the fourth contest, which the Dodgers won by 3 to 2 with two runs with two out in the ninth inning. This was the battle in which Floyd Bevens, the New York righthander, who had gone into the Series with prospects none too bright, sprang one of the most spectacular surprises of World's Series history by holding the Dodgers hitless with 26 batters retired, and the only feat of its kind in classic annals right in his grasp.

It was Pinch-Hitter Cookie Lavagetto who ruined the day for Bevens by crashing a double off the right field wall. This did not merely break the no-hit spell. It drove in the two runs which beat the Yankees, and deadlocked the Series.

With one out in the hectic ninth, Carl Furillo walked. George McQuinn grabbed Spider Jorgensen's pop foul for the second out. Pete Reiser came in to bat for Hugh Casey and Al Gionfriddo ran for Furillo. Before the Yankees could realize what had happened, Gionfriddo had stolen second.

Here Bucky Harris made a move which will be debated for years. He violated one of the primary canons of baseball by ordering Bevens to walk Reiser, the man who represented the winning run. Pistol Pete had been kept out of the starting lineup by a leg injury, but, as Harris explained later, the Yankee skipper had not been too impressed with the seriousness of the handicap. He added that he had given it no thought when Reiser walked to the plate.

Eddie Miksis ran for Pete, and Lavagetto came in to bat for Eddie Stanky. Soon Cookie belted the ball off the wall, and the game was over. It was the second pitch that was the fatal one for Bevens. The winning run had crossed the plate. The jubilant crowd was making for the exits. But Umpire Larry Goetz was busy dusting off the plate for a batter who never showed up. "I never before had experienced so exciting a moment in my career as an umpire," Goetz explained.

The Series produced one of the most remarkable defensive feats yet seen in a classic, and Gionfriddo was the heroic achiever. It came in the sixth game, the one in which a desperate Brooklyn club came up on even terms with the highly-favored Yankees.

With the Dodgers enjoying an 8 to 5 lead in the sixth inning and a couple of Yankees on base, Joe DiMaggio made a bid for a home run into the left field bullpen. However, Gionfriddo, who had come into the game as a defensive measure, raced to the fence and grabbed the ball just as it was about to fall in for three runs and a tie score.

Johnny Lindell appeared in the sixth game in spite of a broken rib. He had suffered this injury sliding in the previous contest, but had kept the story to himself. Johnny could not play through the No. 6 battle and had to forego the finale.

Hugh Casey, making six mound appearances in the seven games, was the big man on the Brooklyn side. On the New York club, the heroes were Lindell, with a .500 average; Tommy Henrich, with his .323; Snuffy Stirnweiss, even though his final rating was no better than .259; Bobby Brown, who set a World's Series pinch-hitting mark with two doubles, a single and a walk, and three runs driven in, in four efforts; the twice-victorious Shea, single-winners Reynolds and Page, and the luckless Bevins. Last, but certainly not least, was Joe DiMaggio, who was a titanic figure on the Yankee side even though he hit no better than .231.

The classic came very near producing the first play under the lights in the history of the inter-league championship. The sixth game lasted three hours and 19 minutes. When it appeared likely that it would not be finished in daylight, Commissioner Albert B. Chandler issued orders to turn on the mazdas just as soon as the umpires felt that they were needed. As it turned out, the game was finished without this help.

There was an important innovation concerning the umpires. Commissioner Chandler ruled that it was silly for the two alternate umpires to sit on the bench. He put them to work, on the foul lines. Thus the 1947 classic was the first in which six umpires officiated.

As the New York club had sold its tickets in blocks of four, for the first, second, sixth and seventh contests, it was not necessary to have a 24-hour recess before the final battle, for disposal of accommodations for that game.

The 1947 classic continued to make news even after the last out had been recorded and the Yankees had won the championship. As the baseball writers rushed into the Yankee clubhouse to get the celebration story, they were met by Col. Larry MacPhail with the announcement that he had sold out his one-third interest in the New York organization to Dan Topping and Del Webb, his partners. The following morning, Topping and Webb announced that Colonel MacPhail no longer was president and general manager. Topping took over the presidency and George Martin Weiss was promoted to director general.

October 1, at New York

Henrich's home run was the lethal blow that put the Dodgers and Lombardi on the road to ruin.

Allie Reynolds, spacing nine Dodger hits and fanning half a dozen, coasted to a 10 to 3 triumph. The deciding tallies again were scored in the fifth frame as Lombardi followed Branca's example and blew up then.

FIRST INNING

Brooklyn—Stanky and Robinson fanned. Reiser lifted to Lindell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Stirnweiss singled to right and Henrich to short center, Stirnweiss taking third and then scoring when Lindell hit into a double play, Jorgensen to Stanky to Robinson. DiMaggio singled off Reese's glove to short. McQuinn struck out. One run, three hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING

Brooklyn—Walker lined to DiMaggio. Hermanski fouled to Johnson. Edwards fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Johnson flied to Walker. Rizzuto, bunting, was thrown out by Jorgensen. Berra grounded to Stanky. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING

Brooklyn—Reese strolled. Jorgensen flied to Henrich and Lombardi to DiMaggio. Reese stole second and reached third on Stanky's hit through the box. Robinson singled to left, scoring Reese. Reiser struck out. One run, two hits, no errors.

New York—Reynolds bounced to Jorgensen. Stirnweiss tripled to right-center. Henrich fouled to Jorgensen. Lindell hit to center for three bases, scoring Stirnweiss. DiMaggio drew an intentional walk. McQuinn fanned. One run, two hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING

Brooklyn—Walker hit the first pitch into the lower right field stands for a home run. Hermanski was out, McQuinn to Reynolds, and Edwards popped to the Yankee first baseman. Reese singled to right, but was nailed stealing, Berra to Rizzuto. One run, two hits, no errors.

New York—Johnson tripled to center and scored when Rizzuto's fly to short left dropped for a double. Berra flied to Reiser, advancing Rizzuto to third. When Reynolds hit to Jorgensen, Rizzuto was caught in a run-down, the Brooklyn third baseman making the out with Edwards' assistance. Reynolds moved to second during the chase. Stirnweiss fanned. One run, two hits, no errors.

FIFTH INNING

Brooklyn—Jorgensen fanned. Lombardi and Stanky were thrown out by Rizzuto. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Henrich hit a home run into the corner of the right-center field bleachers. Lindell bounced a ground rule double into the crowd in the lower left field stand. With DiMaggio at bat, Lombardi was replaced by Gregg as the Brooklyn pitcher after serving one ball, DiMaggio then was thrown out by Jorgensen, Lindell holding second. McQuinn singled to center, scoring Lindell. Johnson hit to Gregg, whose throw to second to force McQuinn was dropped by Stanky. Rizzuto flied deep to Reiser. Berra fanned. Two runs, three hits, one error.

SIXTH INNING

Brooklyn—Robinson flied to DiMaggio. Reiser singled to left and was doubled up with Walker when Dixie hit to Stirnweiss, Rizzuto being the middle man in the play. No runs, one hit, no errors.

New York—Reynolds singled to left. Stirnweiss walked. Henrich bunted them along, Gregg to Stanky covering first. Lindell flied to Hermanski, scoring Reynolds. DiMaggio was called out on strikes. One run, one hit, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING

fled to Henrich. Jorgensen received credit for a hit on his tap in front of the plate, which Berra threw wildly past McQuinn after recovering, and Edwards reached third. Vaughan, batting for Gregg, fled to DiMaggio. No runs, two hits, one error.

New York—Behrman replaced Gregg as the Brooklyn pitcher. McQuinn singled to right and went to second on a wild pitch. Johnson singled to center, scoring McQuinn, and reached third when the ball went through Reiser. Rizzuto popped to Stanky. Berra drew an intentional pass. Reynolds rolled a squeeze bunt through Robinson for a hit, scoring Johnson and promoting Berra to third. Barney replaced Behrman as the Brooklyn pitcher. Stirnweiss singled toward first, scoring Berra. Henrich fled to Reiser, Reynolds moving to third, from where he scored on Barney's wild pitch. Lindell walked. DiMaggio forced Stirnweiss at third, Jorgensen unassisted. Four runs, four hits, one error.

EIGHTH INNING

Brooklyn—Stanky grounded to Johnson. Robinson doubled to left. Reiser fled to Henrich. Walker rolled to Rizzuto. No runs, one hit, no errors.

New York—McQuinn fled to Hermanski, Johnson to Reiser and Rizzuto to Hermanski. No runs, no hits, no errors.

NINTH INNING

Brooklyn—Hermanski walked. Edwards fled to Lindell. Reese singled past Rizzuto, sending Hermanski to third. Jorgensen forced Reese at second, Stirnweiss to Rizzuto, scoring Hermanski. Gionfriddo, batting for Barney, forced Jorgensen at second, Johnson to Stirnweiss. One run, one hit, no errors.

OFFICIAL SCORE OF THIRD GAME

Third Game

October 2. at Brooklyn

The Yankee starter was lifted after yielding five runs and as many hits. Again the Dodgers' starting pitcher—Hatten—couldn't get by the fifth inning, but Casey eventually checked the Bombers to gain the decision. Berra's pinch-homer, the first in Series history, produced the final Yank tally in the seventh.

FIRST INNING

New York—Stirnweiss singled to left. Henrich singled through the box, Stirnweiss stopping at second. Berra hit to Robinson, who tried to start a double play via second, but Reese dropped the ball, filling the bases. DiMaggio walked, Stirnweiss being forced home. Gregg went in to pitch for Brooklyn. McQuinn popped to Reese. Johnson hit into a double play, Reese to Stanky to Robinson. One run, two hits, one error.

Brooklyn—Stanky walked. Reese was thrown out by Stirnweiss and Robinson by Johnson. Walker strolled. Hermanski fouled to Johnson. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING

New York—Lindell grounded to Reese. Rizzuto singled to left and stole second. Bevens flied to Furillo. Stirnweiss struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Brooklyn—Edwards fanned. Furillo rolled to Rizzuto. Jorgensen walked. Gregg struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING

New York—Henrich struck out. Berra grounded to Robinson. DiMaggio walked. McQuinn scratched a single in front of the plate and continued to second when Edwards, attempting a play at first, threw wildly past Robinson. When DiMaggio tried to score from first on the play, he was nipped, Walker to Edwards. No runs, one hit, one error.

Brooklyn—Stanky walked. Reese lifted to Lindell. Stanky advanced to second on a wild pitch. Robinson fouled deep to Lindell. Walker popped to Johnson. No runs, no hits, no errors.

McKECHNIE PILOTED WINNERS IN THREE CITIES

Bill McKechnie, now a coach with Cleveland, holds the distinction of being the only manager ever to pilot major league pennant-winners representing three different cities. McKechnie directed the Pittsburgh Pirates to a flag in 1925, led the St. Louis Cardinals to the title in 1928 and won championships with the Cincinnati Reds in 1939 and 1940. His 1925 Pirates and 1940 Reds won the World's Series.

National Baseball Museum at Cooperstown, N. Y.

Pennock, Traynor in Hall of Fame

HERBERT J. PENNOCK, American League southpaw star, and Harold (Pie) Traynor, Pittsburgh third baseman, were elected to the game's Hall of Fame in the National Baseball Museum at Cooperstown, N. Y., as a result of the balloting by members of the Baseball Writers' Association in February, 1948. The election of Pennock, who pitched for the Philadelphia Athletics, Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees, and Traynor, who was a manager, as well as third baseman, for the Pirates, increased to 55 the number of players and diamond notables in the game's pantheon.

Pennock, who died a few weeks before the election while serving as general manager of the Phillies, received 94 votes out of a total of 121 ballots and Traynor was given 93. Under the rules of the election, a candidate was required to receive 75 per cent of the votes, 91 in this case. Voting was limited to writers with at least ten years' membership in the Association. Traynor finished fourth in the previous year's balloting, missing nomination by two votes, and Pennock was eighth.

Ballots were cast for a total of 136 players. Al Simmons ranked third, with 60, followed by Charley Gehringer and Bill Terry, 52 each; Paul Waner, 51; Jimmie Foxx, 50; Dizzy Dean and Harry Heilmann, 40 each; Bill Dickey, 39; Rabbit Maranville, 38; Gabby Hartnett, 33, and Joe Cronin, 25. Dean though receiving 40 votes, was technically ineligible, because he had pitched four innings for the Browns on the final day of the 1947 season.

Original balloting for admission to the shrine was held in 1936. In 1939, it was decided to vote only once in every three years. However, after the scribes failed to elect anyone in 1945, annual balloting was resumed. Starting in 1947, voting was limited to BBWAA members of ten years' standing, with only retired players who were active during the last 25 years eligible.

Voting on earlier stars is in the hands of a special committee, composed of Paul S. Kerr, treasurer of the Museum; Ed Barrow and Bob Quinn, former long-time major league executives; Connie Mack, president-manager of the A's, and Mel Webb and Grantland Rice, veteran scribes.

The immortals in the Hall of Fame were selected by the following vote: 1936—Tyrus R. Cobb (222), John P. Wagner (215), George H. Ruth (215), Christy Mathewson (205), Walter P. Johnson (189), named by Baseball Writers' Association of America. Total ballots cast, 226.

1937—Napoleon Lajoie (168), Tristram Speaker (165), Denton T. Young (153), named by BBWAA. Total ballots cast, 201. George Wright, Morgan G. Bulkeley, Byron Bancroft Johnson, John J. McGraw, Cornelius McGillicuddy (Connie Mack), named by Centennial Commission.

1938—Grover C. Alexander (212), named by BBWAA. Total ballots, 262. 1939—George H. Sisler (235), Edward T. Collins (213), William H. Keeler (207), Henry Louis Gehrig, named by BBWAA. (Gehrig by special action after retirement from game was announced.) Total ballots cast, 274. Henry Chadwick, Alexander J. Cartwright, named by Centennial Commission. Albert G. Spalding, Adrian C. Anson, Charles A. Comiskey, William Ewing, Charles Radbourne, William A. Cummings, named by committee of old-time players and writers.

1942—Rogers Hornsby (182), named by BBWAA. Total ballots cast, 233.

1944—Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, named by new committee of old-timers.

1945—Hugh Duffy, Jimmy Collins, Hugh Jennings, Ed Delahanty, Fred Clarke, Mike Kelly, Wilbert Robinson, Jim O'Rourke, Dennis (Dan) Brouthers and Roger Bresnahan, named by committee on old-timers.

1946—Jesse Burkett, Frank Chance, Jack Chesbro, Johnny

Evers, Clark Griffith, Tom McCarthy, Joe McGinnity, Eddie Plank, Joe Tinker, Rube Waddell and Ed Walsh, named by committee on old-timers.

1947—Carl Hubbell (140), Frank Frisch (136), Gordon (Mickey) Cochrane (128) and Robert (Lefty) Grove (123), named by BBWAA. Ballots cast, 161.

1948—Herbert J. Pennock (94) and Harold (Pie) Traynor (93), named by BBWAA. Total ballots cast, 121.

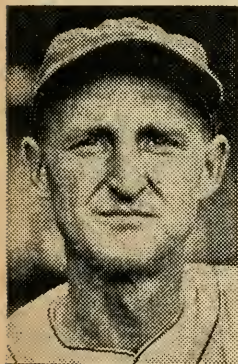

In 1946, the Hall of Fame Committee introduced an Honor Roll to include writers, managers, umpires and executives. Those named included:

Writers—Walter Barnes and Tim Murnane, Boston; Harry Cross, William B. Hanna, Sid Mercer, William J. Slocum, George Tidden and Joe Vila, New York; Frank Hough and Francis Richter, Philadelphia; Si Sanborn, Chicago, and John B. Sheridan, St. Louis.

Managers—William Carrigan, Edward Hanlon, Miller Huggins, Frank Selee, John M. Ward.

Umpires—Tom Connolly, William Dinneen, Robert Emslie, Billy Evans, John Gaffney, Tim Hurst, William Klem, John Kelly, Thomas Lynch, Frank (Silk) O'Loughlin, Jack Sheridan.

A. L. Increases All-Star Game Supremacy

THE 1947 All-Star Game, staged at Chicago's Wrigley Field on July 8, resulted in the closest, most dramatic clash in the history of the mid-summer classic as the American League nosed out the National, 2 to 1.

A capacity crowd of 41,123, producing net receipts of $105,314.90, was on hand to see the A. L. representatives gain their tenth victory in 14 games since the competition was inaugurated in 1933. All receipts went into the players' pension fund.

The National League, entering the battle with a decided edge in extra-base punch, was able to display its power only once—in the fourth inning when, with two out, Johnny Mize blasted one of Frank Shea's pitches half way up in the right field bleachers. Shea, however, was the eventual winning pitcher, the first rookie to gain this distinction in an All-Star Game.

Pinch-hitters played a vital role in the Americans' triumph, although a wild throw by Pitcher Johnny Sain of the Braves was the big break. Luke Appling's pinch-blow opening the sixth, coupled with a single by Ted Williams and a double-play ball, gave the A. L. its first run off Harry Brecheen. In the seventh, with Sain pitching, Bobby Doerr singled and stole second. Sain then hit the Red Sox infielder trying to pick him off second, and Doerr raced to third. He scored a short time later when Pinch-Hitter Stan Spence, with a count of two and nothing, hit a high, fast pitch to right-center for a single.

FIRST INNING

Americans—Kell missed a third strike. Lewis grounded to Mize unassisted. With the N. L. using modified shift to right field, Williams worked count to three-and-two and then took a called third strike. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Nationals—H. Walker and F. Walker both grounded to Gordon. Cooper struck out on three pitches. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING

Americans—DiMaggio singled to center and took second on a passed ball. Boudreau was called out on strikes. McQuinn flied to Slaughter. DiMaggio took third on a wild pitch. After fouling four balls into stands, Gordon struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Nationals—Mize flied to Williams in left-center. Williams came in for Slaughter's short fly. Gustine was thrown out by Boudreau. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING

Americans—Rosar flied to F. Walker. Newhouser grounded to Marion. Kell was thrown out by Gustine. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Nationals—Marion flied to DiMaggio. Verban rolled to Gordon. Haas batted for Blackwell and singled to left on first pitch. H. Walker was called out on strikes. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FOURTH INNING

Americans—Brecheen took mound for Nationals. Lewis flied to H. Walker. Williams doubled down right field line and one of American leaguers in the bullpen made grab at ball and didn't touch it. DiMaggio was thrown out by Gustine as Williams held second. Boudreau beat out a hit to Gustine, Williams taking third on the play. McQuinn whiffed. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Nationals—Shea went in to pitch for Americans. Walker flied to Williams. Cooper fouled to McQuinn. With count of one-and-one, Mize homered into the right field bleachers. Slaughter walked. Gustine forced Slaughter, Gordon to Boudreau. One run, one hit, no errors.

FIFTH INNING

Americans—Pafko went to center and Marshall to right field for Nationals. Gordon doubled to left field corner. Rosar flied to Marshall. Shea bounced out, Brecheen to Mize, Gordon holding second. Kell looked at a third strike. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Nationals—At this point the umpires changed positions. Marion singled to left. Verban flied to Lewis. Brecheen forced Marion, McQuinn to Boudreau. Pafko hit first pitch for a single to center, Brecheen stopping at second. Marshall whiffed. No runs, two hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING

Americans—Reese playing short, Stanky second and Kurowski third for Nationals. Appling batted for Lewis and singled to left. Williams singled to right, sending Appling to third. DiMaggio grounded into double play on first pitch, Reese to Stanky to Mize, Appling scoring with tying run. Boudreau flied to Marshall. One run, two hits, no errors.

Nationals—Henrich playing right field and Doerr second base for Americans. Cooper flied to Henrich. Mize walked. Slaughter popped to Boudreau. Kurowski fanned on three pitches. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING

Americans—Sain and Edwards formed new battery for Nationals. McQuinn grounded to Reese. Doerr singled to left and stole second. In an attempt to pick Doerr off second, Sain hit Doerr, the ball going into center and Doerr reaching third on the error. Rosar fanned. Spence batted for Shea. With count of two strikes, Spence singled to right-center, scoring Doerr. Kell forced Spence, Kurowski to Stanky. One run, two hits, one error.

Nationals—Masterson pitching and Johnson playing third base for Americans. Reese looked at a third strike. Stanky lined to Henrich. Musial batted for Sain and grounded to Boudreau. No runs, no hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING

Americans—Spahn went to mound for Nationals. Henrich struck out. Williams rolled to Stanky. DiMaggio walked. Boudreau flied to Pafko. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Nationals—Pafko was thrown out by Boudreau. Marshall walked. Cavarretta batted for Edwards and struck out. Masterson was replaced by Page. Mize singled to right, sending Marshall to third. Masi ran for Mize. Slaughter bounced out, Boudreau to McQuinn. No runs, one hit, no errors.

NINTH INNING

Americans—Cavarretta playing first and Masi catching for Nationals. Cavarretta made a fine stop and beat McQuinn to first on his grounder. Doerr flied to Marshall and Rosar to Pafko. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Nationals—Kurowski bounced to Doerr. Reese walked. Stanky forced Reese, Doerr to Boudreau. Rowe batted for Spahn and flied to Henrich. No runs, no hits, no errors.

WILLIAMS IN FIRST FIVE-HIT STINT

When Ted Williams connected for five hits in five times at bat in a night game against the St. Louis Browns, July 18, 1947, it marked the first time the Boston Red Sox slugger collected a quintette of safeties in a game in his major league career. In five previous seasons, Williams, who seldom gets five official batting chances in a game due to walks, made four hits in a game 11 times.

Junior World's Series

TWO CLUBS which finished third during the regular season and then won their playoffs clashed in the 1947 Junior World's Series. Syracuse, representing the International League for the third time in six years under Manager Jewel Ens, carried the classic to the full seventh game before bowing to Milwaukee's American Association representatives. The victors were piloted by Nick Cullop, who thus become the first manager to gain the Junior Series title with two different clubs. In 1943, he led Columbus to a triumph over Syracuse.

Milwaukee's participation in the classic marked only the second appearance for the Brewers, who also emerged victorious in 1939 under Al Sothoron. The loss for Syracuse was the Chiefs' third in as many attempts.

Batting star of the Series was a member of the losing Chiefs—Albert (Dutch) Mele, who hit .462 and included a double, triple and two homers among his blows for an amazing .808 slugging average. Milwaukee's leading clubber was Damon Phillips, with a .435 mark.

Total attendance for the seven games was 64,306, including 36,686 for four tilts in Milwaukee and 27,620 for three games at Syracuse.

Following are the scores of the 1947 Junior World's Series:

COOPER HIT SAFELY IN 31 STRAIGHT GAMES IN WEST

When the New York Giants visited the West during 1947, enemy pitchers found it virtually impossible to get Catcher Walker Cooper out. The hard-hitting backstop staged a 31-game hitting streak during which he compiled a .425 mark, collecting 54 hits in 127 trips to the plate. The Cooper spree included 26 extra-base blows, of which 14 were home runs. In addition, Cooper chased 43 runners across the plate.

Cooper was not stopped in the West until September 9, when Elwin (Preacher) Roe of Pittsburgh held the Giant receiver hitless in four tries. This was during the New Yorkers' second game on their final trip in the hinterlands.

HOUSTON CAPTURES DIXIE SERIES TITLE

Led by Manager Johnny Keane, Houston of the Texas League enjoyed the greatest year in its history in 1947. After finishing first during the regular season, the Buffs captured the pennant by taking the playoffs and then went on to defeat Mobile's Southern Association playoff titlist in the Dixie Series, four games to two.

Al Papai pitched two of the Dixie Series victories, with Jack Creel and Clarence Beers recording one each. Beers, winner of 25 games during the regular season and four in the playoffs, captured the Dixie finale before a crowd of 10,675 Houston fans with a four-hit, 1 to 0 shutout.

Total attendance for the six Series games was 44,794, including 20,952 for three games in Houston to boost the Buffs' home attendance for the season to 475,637 cash customers for 86 games.

HITS FOR 19 BASES IN TWIN-BILL

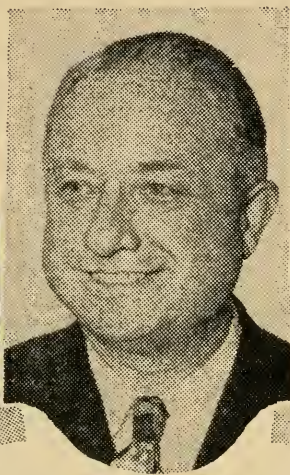

Ted Kluszewski, playing first base for Memphis, hit for the cycle once and needed only a homer to complete another cycle as he garnered a total of 19 bases in a Southern Association double-header against New Orleans, July 27, 1947. Ted poled a home run, two triples, a double and single in the opener and slammed a triple, double and single in the nightcap. His second three-bagger drove in the winning run in the eleventh inning of the first game.

YANKS HOST TO OLD-TIME STARS

As a prelude to the 1947 World's Series, the New York Yankees played host on the last day of the American League season to former stars of the Bombers and the American League. The Old-Timers' Day, scheduled to be an annual affair, featured a two-inning exhibition in which the ex-Yankee stars defeated the All-Americans, 3 to 0.

Included on the two teams were: All-Americans—Ty Cobb, center field; Charley Gehringer, second base; Harry Hooper, right field; Tris Speaker, center field; Duffy Lewis, left field; Jimmie Foxx, and Joe Judge, first base; Mickey Cochran and Ray Schalk, catchers; Al Simmons, shortstop; Frank Baker, third base; Chief Bender and Red Faber, pitchers. Old Yankees—Earle Combs, center field; Red Rolfe, third base; George Selkirk, right field; Bob Meusel, left field; Mark Koenig, shortstop; Wally Pipp, first base; Aaron Ward, third base; Wally Schang, catcher; Waite Hoyt and Lefty Gomez, pitchers.

Others present but not playing were Babe Ruth, Bob Shawkey, Wilcy Moore, Deacon Scott, Johnny Sturm, Red Ruffing, Roger Peckinpough, Buddy Hassett, Joe Dugan, Herb Pennock and Frankie Crosetti of the Yankees and other such famous ex-major leaguers as Ed Walsh, Donie Bush, Cy Young, George Earnshaw, Stanley Coveleskie, Bob Grove, Jack Coombs, Jack Barry, George Sisler and Bill Bradley.

ANNIVERSARY FOR BRANCH RICKEY

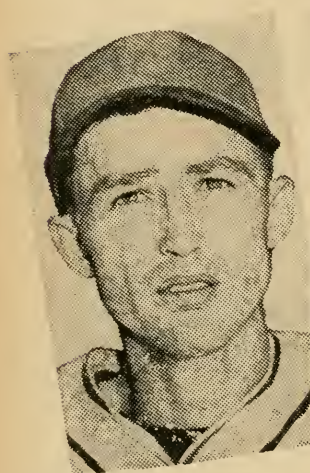

June 19, 1948, will mark the anniversary of Branch Wesley Rickey's entry into O. B. On that date, in 1903, he caught a game for Terre Haute of the Central League against Wheeling, having no hits off Peter Fox, but drawing a pass. His fielding averaged perfectly.

Rickey joined the Hottentots with four other novices and was the only one who drew a good press from the scribe who covered the game. The sports writer said:

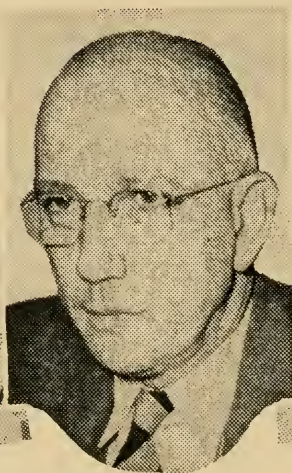

"Only one of the newcomers—Branch Rickey—seems fast enough for league company, and it is regretted that he will not continue with the club, as the management has learned that he had signed with another club before accepting Terre Haute's terms and he has been released."

BORDAGARAY'S UPS AND DOWNS

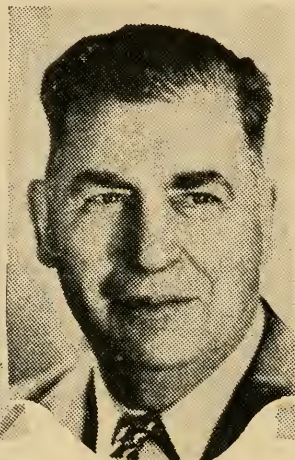

Charged with striking and spitting on Umpire Dallas Blackiston in a game at Augusta, July 14, 1947, Manager Frenchy Bordagaray of the Greenville Sally League club was fined $50 and suspended for 60 days. The suspension kept him out for the remainder of the season and he was succeeded by John (Pepper) Martin, former St. Louis Cardinal. On the day Frenchy was suspended, he received notice the house in which his family was living had been sold and he would have to vacate. Three days later he was presented with a trophy for having been named the most valuable player in the Canadian-American League in 1946, when he was player-manager of Three Rivers.

BRAVES WIN COOPERSTOWN GAME

The annual pilgrimage to Cooperstown, N. Y., site of the game's Hall of Fame, was staged July 21, 1947, with the New York Yankees and Boston Braves playing an exhibition game. An estimated 12,000 fans overflowed Doubleday Field to witness the tilt, won by the Braves in ten innings, 4 to 3. Ernest J. Lanigan, director of the National Baseball Museum, greeted more than 2,000 visitors at the shrine prior to the game—the largest one-day turnout in the Museum's history.

THE ORIGINAL COPY GOES HOME

The manuscript copy of "Judge Landis and 25 Years of Baseball," by J. G. Taylor Spink, a classic which led the national Best Seller lists for many months during 1947, was presented by the author to the National Baseball Museum and Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., on request of Ernest J. Lanigan, the Museum's director.

DI MAG YANKS' GOOD-LUCK CHARM

An old Yankee custom prevailing throughout Joe DiMaggio's career with the New York club held good in 1947. With the Yankee Clipper missing from the opening-day lineup, the Bombers bowed in their seasonal inaugural, as they had in the four previous openers which DiMaggio missed. Oddly, the Yankees won each of the other four opening-day tilts DiMag appeared in via shutouts.

Physical troubles and holdout sieges were responsible for DiMaggio's absence from five inaugurals in his first nine seasons with the club. Coming up from San Francisco in 1936, DiMag suffered an ankle injury in training that spring. Diathermy treatments resulted in a foot burn that kept him out of the first 17 games of the American League season. In 1937 a tonsillectomy forced him to miss the initial six games, and in 1938 Joe was a holdout and his absence from the lineup extended through 12 league tilts. Another mishap tripped Joltin' Joe in 1940, a knee injury sidelining him for the first 15 games. In 1947 the Yankee Clipper's late start was due to an operation and subsequent skin-grafting on his left heel. Aided by a special shoe, he made his debut in the fourth game of the campaign as a pinch-hitter.

DiMaggio's first opening-day appearance with the Yankees was in 1939, his fourth year with the club, and the Bombers blanked Boston, 2 to 0, behind Red Ruffing's chucking. In 1941, Joe chipped in with two hits as Marius Russo shut out Washington, 3 to 0, and the next season Ruffing blanked the Senators, 7 to 0, in the opener. DiMag was in the Army in 1943, 1944 and 1945, but returned in time for the 1946 opener as Spud Chandler shut out the Athletics, 5 to 0.

EXCLUSIVE 50-HOMER CLUB ADDITIONS

Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh and Johnny Mize of the Giants joined an exclusive major league circle when they rapped 51 homers each in 1947 to tie for leadership in the National League. The trick of producing 50 round-trippers in a season had been turned only eight times previously, and by only four players. Babe Ruth made 54 in 1920, 59 in 1921, 60 in 1927 and 54 in 1928. Jimmy Foxx had 53 in 1932 and 50 in 1938; Hank Greenberg, 58 in 1938, and Hack Wilson, 56 in 1930.

YANKEES EQUAL MARK WITH 19 WINS IN ROW

The New York Yankees equalled a 41-year-old American League record in 1947 when they reeled off 19 consecutive victories in midseason. The streak, which enabled the Bombers to build up a big lead and breeze to the pennant, tied the mark set in 1906 by the Hitless Wonder White Sox. The Chicagoans' run, however, included a tie game, called after nine innings to permit the clubs to catch a train, between their eleventh and twelfth wins. The Yankees' streak, and the game which ended it, follow:

FIVE NEGROES WITH STAMFORD

The Stamford club of the Colonial League carried more Negro players on its roster in 1947 than any other in O. B., having five at one time. They included Pitchers Roy Lee, Al Preston, Fred Sheppard and Andres Pullize and Shortstop Carlos Santiago. A sixth, Pitcher Johnny Haith, was released after losing his first start.

REPEAT 18-INNING TRIUMPH FOR NATS

When Washington blanked the Chicago White Sox, 1 to 0, in 18 innings, June 8, 1947, it was the second time that the Senators had accomplished this feat at the expense of the Pale Hose.

On May 15, 1918, Walter Johnson, the fireball king, outpitched Claude (Lefty) Williams of the White Sox. The winning run was scored when Eddie Ainsmith and Johnson singled and Williams uncorked a wild pitch.

In the game of last year, the payoff marker resulted from a triple by Al Evans and Sherry Robertson's long fly. However, in this tilt, each side used two pitchers.

The original major league record for extra-frame contests decided by a 1 to 0 score was set August 17, 1882, when Providence defeated Detroit in 18 innings. In addition to the two Washington-Chicago games, the record was tied by the New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals on July 2, 1933, with the New York club the victor.

187 SELECTED IN ANNUAL DRAFT

An unprecedented total of 187 players were selected at an outlay of $589,250 in the annual major-minor draft, held following the 1947 season. The previous high was in 1946, when 108 players gained promotion through the draft.

The majors picked 29 players at a cost of $272,500, while AAA clubs selected 21 for $99,250, AA teams took 21 for $65,100, A clubs chose 35 for $82,500, B teams claimed 54 for $51,000, and C clubs selected 27 for $18,900.

The 29 picked by the majors included 12 pitchers, three catchers, seven infielders and seven outfielders. Twenty-two were taken from Class AAA and seven from AA.

Choices of American League clubs were: By St. Louis, Pitcher Al Gerheuser from Montreal and Infielder Wesley Garvin Hamner from Toronto; by Washington, Third Baseman Clarence Difani from Newark, N. J., Pitcher Forrest Thompson from Atlanta, and Catcher Leonard Okrie from Nashville; by Chicago, Outfielder Raymond Fletcher from Milwaukee, Pitcher Roman Brunswick from Houston, Pitcher James Goodwin from Jersey City, and Pitcher Alex Danelishen from Oklahoma City; by Philadelphia, Outfielder Don White from San Francisco, and Shortstop Billy DeMars from Mobile; by Cleveland, Pitcher William A. Kennedy from Louisville, and Shortstop Leonard Ratto from Portland, Ore.; by Boston, Third Baseman John Ostrowski from Los Angeles, Catcher Boris Martin from Toledo, and Outfielder Al Simononis from New Orleans.

Draws by National League clubs included: By Philadelphia, Pitcher Walter Dubiel from Seattle, Outfielder John Blatnik from Baltimore, Shortstop Grady Wilson from Rochester; by Pittsburgh, Pitcher Forrest Main from Kansas City, Outfielder Max West from San Diego, and Pitcher James Kleckley from Birmingham; by Chicago, Shortstop Lloyd Lowe from Columbus, O.; by Cincinnati, Catcher Ferrell Anderson from St. Paul, and Pitcher Ken Holcombe from Sacramento; by New York, Pitcher Jack Hallett from Indianapolis; by Boston, Outfielder Clint Conatser from Buffalo, and Pitcher Edward Post from Syracuse; by St. Louis, Outfielder Lawrence Miggins from Minneapolis.

THREE TRIPLE PLAYS FOR SAME HURLER

Three triple plays were pulled off by the Lynn Red Sox during the 1947 New England League season and ironically, the same pitcher—Dave Honan—was in the box each time the Red Sox staged the killings. Honan started the third three-way erasure himself, July 18, at Lowell, Mass., in the first game there in many years, following transfer of the Lawrence franchise to that city. With Lowell runners on first and third and nobody out in the sixth, Honan grabbed a line drive off Edward (Dinny) McNamara's bat, threw to Ken Chapman at third to double up one runner and then Chapman pegged to Ralph Atkins at first base to retire the side.

MEDWICK WITH CARDS AFTER 7-YEAR ABSENCE

Outfielder Joe Medwick, back with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1947 after an absence of seven years, made his return an auspicious one, hammering out a double as a pinch-hitter off Southpaw Fritz Ostermueller of Pittsburgh in the second game of a twin-bill, May 25. The double produced the only run scored by the Cardinals, who lost, 2 to 1.

Used in the outfield against lefthanders and in pinch-hitting roles, Ducky Wucky had a .307 mark in 75 games.

Medwick originally came up to the Cardinals from Houston of the Texas League late in the summer of 1932 and immediately made good. He remained with the Redbirds until mid-season of 1940, when he was traded to Brooklyn.

FRED CLARKE'S UNIQUE FIELDING RECORD

Fred C. Clarke, former Pittsburgh manager who is retired to Little Pirate Ranch, Winfield, Kan., is probably the only major league outfielder who had four assists in a game and reached double figures in putouts in another one.

On August 23, 1910, Clarke had four assists in left field, throwing out two men at second, one at third and one at the plate. His victims were John Titus, Kitty Bransfield, Sherwood Magee and Mike Doolan. Clarke raked in 11 flies in the game with the Cardinals, April 25, 1911.

TRIO JOINS THREE-HOMER CIRCLE

Three National League sluggers accomplished the feat of hitting three successive home runs in a game during the 1947 campaign. Ralph Kiner, Pittsburgh outfielder, did it twice, August 16 and September 11 (second game), while Johnny Mize and Willard Marshall of the Giants performed the trick on April 24 and July 18, respectively. Kiner's first trio came at the expense of the Cardinals and the other three against the Braves, each time in Pittsburgh. Mize rapped his threesome in Boston and Marshall against Cincinnati at the Polo Grounds.

Mize's performance marked the fifth time the veteran first sacker rode three out of the park in a game—an all-time high. The four other occasions were while a member of the St. Louis Cardinals—on July 13 and 20 (second game), 1938, and May 13 and September 8 (first game), 1940. The third time was in a 14-inning game.

STEALS NINE BASES IN A DAY

Bill Martin, center fielder of Montgomery, broke the Southeastern League record for stolen bases in a day, July 4, 1947, when he swiped four sacks in a night game at Montgomery after having pilfered five in an afternoon game at Selma. Bill's nine thefts in consecutive games topped the major league mark of eight in two contests, set by Walter Wilmoth of the Chicago Cubs, August 6-7, 1894. Martin finished the season with 79 steals in 131 games for a Southeastern League record.

TRIPLE PLAYS ON SUCCESSIVE DAYS

The Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago White Sox pulled triple plays on successive days in 1947—a rare occurrence but not a record. A pair of tri-killings have been turned twice in a single day in the major leagues, May 29, 1897, by Brooklyn and the New York Giants, and again on August 30, 1921, by the Boston Braves and Chicago Cubs.

The record for triple plays by one club on successive days is held by the Detroit Tigers. The Bengals achieved this distinction against the Boston Red Sox on June 6 and 7, 1908.

When the Pirates turned a triple killing against the Reds on April 26, 1947, it was the first recorded in the National League since 1944, when five were pulled. The next day the White Sox turned one against the St. Louis Browns.

The record for triple plays in a season is seven. The National League having registered that number in 1905, 1910 and 1929 and the American League in 1922 and 1936.

YES, A PINCH RUNNER CAN BAT IN A RUN

Can a pinch runner bat in a run? Skeeter Webb, Detroit infielder, received credit for doing so against Cleveland, August 6, 1947. Webb, taking the paths for Freddy Hutchinson, was brought home by a Tiger rally and when the club batted around, Pinch Runner Webb took his turn at the plate and lifted a fly ball that scored another run. The final score was Detroit 13, Cleveland 6.

DOUBLE DEADLOCK IN PUERTO RICAN RACE

Puerto Rico, which will be affiliated with Organized Ball for the 1948-49 season in an arrangement similar to that enjoyed by Cuba, had the most exciting campaign in its history during the 1947-48 campaign. Two teams tied at the end of each half of the split season and the final playoff went the limit of seven games before it was won by Caguas. Santurce and Mayaguez tied during the first half and Mayaguez won that playoff, but then tied with Caguas for the second-half title. Under the rules, if the winner of the first half wound up tied with another club in the second half, the other automatically became winner of the second half and played off with the first-half champion.

A sprinkling of players from the minor leagues of the United States played in the Puerto Rican League, but a Negro, Willard Brown, who had a trial with the St. Louis Browns in 1947, walked off with the batting championship, hitting .432. Brown also led in home runs, with 27, to surpass the round-tripper record of Luis Marquez, who made 14 in the previous season. Brown also was first in RBIs, 86, and in runs scored, 79. Juane Guilbe, pitcher of the Ponce Lions, was undefeated in five decisions.

GAME FINISHED AFTER FANS LEAVE

Spartanburg and Knoxville completed a Tri-State League night game at Spartanburg, S. C., July 11, 1947, after all of the fans had left the park. A prankster switched off the lights in the ninth inning when Pete Milne apparently singled a runner home with the winning run for Spartanburg. Manager Dale Alexander of Knoxville protested that the light failure nullified the hit, but Plate Umpire Eddie Hearn held the tally counted and 2,355 cash customers filed out of the park.

Later, the official scorer was hastily summoned from his residence to the park, where Umpire Hearn explained that League President C. M. Llewellyn, in a telephone conversation, had ordered play resumed at the point before Milne made his hit, with the bases loaded. Milne then grounded out and Lew Urcho flied out to force the game into an extra inning. Knoxville then tallied six times in the tenth to win, 13 to 7.

BORDER LOOP PLAYER IN MERKLE PLAY

Don Phelps, outfielder with Geneva, figured as the goat in a Fred Merkle play in 1947 that cost his Border League club a game. Like the 1908 Giant victim, Phelps failed to go to second when a teammate singled home what seemed to be the winning run.

The incident took place in the tenth inning of the first game with Auburn, August 27, with the sacks loaded and two out. Phelps, instead of advancing to second on the hit, lingered at first to congratulate his teammate. Manager Charley Small of Geneva, sensing the situation, picked up the ball as it lay on the infield, with fans pouring onto the field, and heaved the ball over the fence. Umpire Steve Malcovich ruled interference and called Phelps out, nullifying the winning run. After a 15-minute delay, the game was resumed, and in the eleventh inning, Auburn poured four runs across the plate to win, 9 to 5. Phelps redeemed himself the next night, however, by homering with the bases loaded in the fifth inning and hit for the circuit again in the sixth with two on to lead Geneva to an 11 to 8 victory.

WHEN THE RUBE WENT TO COLLEGE

He never had a Phi Beta Kappa key, or even a degree, but George Edward Waddell was a college pitcher! His "alma mater" was Volante College, Lawrence county, Pennsylvania. Rube was a college pitcher under an unusual contract, drawn up by the manager, Thomas H. George, now residing in Cleveland, Ohio. It all happened in 1897.

George Edward was to pitch at the manager's direction, to receive free tuition, board and room, his chewing tobacco—and $1 per game.

Waddell did so well at Volante that two neighboring colleges—Grove City and Westminster—declined to play the team Waddell was with on the grounds of full schedules.

Waddell's catcher at Volante was Jesse Grim, who graduated in medicine, went to California and died there.

When the college year ended Waddell left Volante, leaving behind a reputation as a fisherman, as a drum major and as tutor of boys in the art of pitching.

STOCKTON WINS 26 IN A ROW

Stockton of the California League ran up a string of 26 victories in a row during the 1947 season before bowing to Bakersfield, July 3, to fall one short of the Organized Ball record. The original mark of 27 was set by Corsicana of the Texas League in 1904 and equalled by Baltimore of the International League in 1921.

WILKS NOTCHES 12 WINS IN ROW

Ted Wilks, relief pitcher of the St. Louis Cardinals, achieved his second successive undefeated season in 1947 and at the same time extended his personal winning streak to 12 consecutive games. The chunky righthander gained four victories without a defeat in 37 mound appearances in 1947. The previous season his record showed eight wins and no losses in 40 games. His last loss came on September 3, 1945, against Pittsburgh.

EXCITING DAYS FOR RALEIGH FANS

Raleigh of the Carolina League figured in an iron-man pitching stunt, a no-hit, no-run game and the feat of three homers in succession by one batter within the period of four days in 1947. Ray Hardee pitched 18 to 0 and 7 to 1 victories over Greensboro, August 18; Dave Baxter poled three successive home runs over Martinsville, August 20, and Al Henencheck hurled the no-hitter against Greensboro, August 21. Henencheck fanned ten and allowed only three to reach first base, two on walks and one on an error.

CHAMBERS NOTCHES 16 WINS IN ROW

Inman Lamar Chambers, righthander of Burlington who won 21 and lost six games during the season, set a Carolina League record in 1947 with 16 consecutive victories. Chambers, in racking up his long string of triumphs, turned back every other club in the circuit. The previous league record for successive wins was set at 15 in 1946 by Harold Brown of Durham.

PRENDERGAST IN IRON-MAN ROLE

Yielding only six hits in each game, Jim Prendergast, southpaw of Syracuse, successfully essayed the iron-man role against Rochester in an International League double-header, July 25, 1947. Prendergast won the opener, 3 to 2, and came back in the nightcap for a 4 to 3 victory. Jim aided his own cause in the first game with a triple with the bases loaded.

DRAWS 193 WALKS IN SEASON

Gabriel (Pete) Hughes, slugging outfielder of the Phoenix Arizona-Texas League club, received 193 walks in 133 games during the 1947 season to surpass by 23 the major league record for free transportation established by Babe Ruth with 170 in 1923. Minor league records in this department are incomplete, as many circuits ignored this data until recent years. In addition to his mark for free tickets, Hughes established an Arizona-Texas record with 38 home runs.

GREAT MODERN BATTERY COMBINATIONS

The major leagues have had some celebrated batteries—Walter Johnson and Gabby Street, Cy Young and Lou Criger, Ed Walsh and Billy Sullivan, in the American League; Grover Alexander and Bill Killefer, Dazzy Vance and Hank DeBerry in the National—but only one pair, Vance and DeBerry, worked together in the minors and came up to the big show together.

Hank and the Dazzler were batterymates in New Orleans in 1920 and 1921, then they went up to Brooklyn, where they formed a successful combination for nine seasons.

Cy Young and Lou Criger paired together for 11 seasons. They began their service together in 1897, with Cleveland in the old National League, shifted to St. Louis two years later, then moved to Boston for an eight-year stay. They played in some 500 games as a battery, before Cy was transferred to Cleveland and Criger returned to St. Louis.

Gabby Street took Walter Johnson in tow when the latter was a big, green youngster and worked with him until he developed a good curve. The pair worked together five years, in some 200 games.

The Walsh-Sullivan duo starred in Chicago, with the White Sox, for nine years, in nearly 400 games, and their sons since played as teammates at Notre Dame.

Grover Alexander and Bill Killefer were battery mates for 11 years with the Phillies and later with the Chicago Cubs, until Bill retired from active play in 1922. They were more than battery mates. They were pals and roommates during the greater part of that time.

ORGANIZED BALL IN CUBA

Operating with the official indorsement of Organized Ball and fortified by two-score players from the minors of the United States, the Cuban Professional League had a gross gate of $650,000 and far outstripped the rival outlaw Liga Nacional in the 1947-48 season. The take was the second largest in Cuban baseball history, exceeded only in 1946-47 when but one circuit was in the field.

Mike Gonzalez' Havana Reds won the Cuban Professional League championship by the margin of one game over the Almendares Blues in a race that was close all the way, with the two contenders frequently exchanging first place. The championship was not decided until the final day of the season, February 24, when, after Havana lost the first game of a twin-bill to Cienfuegos, a victory for Almendares over Mariano in the second contest would have tied the pennant race. Almendares, however, also lost.

Besides Gonzalez, former major league catcher and St. Louis Cardinal coach, managers in the league were Fermin Guerra, catcher owned by the Philadelphia Athletics, with Almendares; Vernon Gomez, ex-New York Yankee pitcher, with Cienfuegos, and Tomas (Pipo) de la Noval, Mariano.

Henry Kimbro from the Baltimore Elite Giants, playing with Havana, was the leading batter, with a mark of .348, and Conrado Marrero, who hurls for Havana in the Florida International League, was the top pitcher, winning 12 and losing only two for Almendares.

Final standings of the Cuban Professional League:

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.	Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Havana	39	33	.542	Cienfuegos	35	37	.486
Almendares	38	34	.528	Marianao	32	40	.444

Overshadowed by the O. B.-sponsored Cuban Pro League, the Liga Nacional, made up of native, Mexican and ex-major leaguers banned from Organized Ball because of playing in the Mexican League, staged a tight race between the Leones and Cuba teams, with Leones emerging as champion. One club, Santiago, dropped out early in the campaign because of lack of support. Roland Gladu, ex-Brooklyn Dodger, won the batting championship with an average of .329.

Standings of the Liga Nacional at the end of the season, March 21:

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Leones	50	41	.549
Cuba	46	45	.506
Alacranes	44	47	.484

TWO GRAND-SLAMMS FOR MYERS IN INNING

First Baseman Ken (Howitzer) Myers of Las Vegas set one of the most unusual home run records of the 1947 Sunset League season when he hit two four-baggers with the bases full in the third inning of a game with Ontario, May 2. In addition, Pitcher Ned Klingensmith of Las Vegas clouted a grand-slam homer during the same stanza, in which the Nevada club amassed 16 runs. Meyers also connected for two other homers during the game, one with a mate aboard and the other with the sacks empty, and a single as Las Vegas won, 30 to 5. The five blows netted him 11 RBIs.

LAS VEGAS SET O. B. HOMER MARK

The Las Vegas club of the Sunset League set an O. B. record with 271 homers in 140 games during the 1947 season. The best previous mark was made by the 1923 Salt Lake City club of the Pacific Coast League, with 204. Five Las Vegas players topped the 25 figure in round-trippers, including Calvin Felix, with 52; Olin Kelly and Kenneth Myers, 33 each; Roy Godfrey, 32, and Dominic Castro, 28. A total of 859 circuit clouts was made by the six clubs of the league in 418 games.

DEROSE AUTHORS FIRST A. A. PERFECT GAME

Plagued by a sore arm, Carl DeRose, young Kansas City righthander, pleaded with Manager Bill Meyer for one more chance and, on being granted the opportunity, turned in the first perfect game in American Association history, June 26, 1947.

DeRose had not appeared on the hill since May 31, when he suffered such arm misery that a complete three-week rest was prescribed. However, facing Minneapolis at the Kansas City park in a night game, the sore-armed hurler set the Millers down in order for nine innings to notch a perfect 5 to 0 conquest. From the third inning on, DeRose was in excruciating pain, and after the final out he was unable to lift his pitching arm to accept teammates' congratulations.

In recognition of the feat, Blues' fans honored the pitcher, July 4, when he was presented with more than $2,000 in gifts and cash. DeRose was able to make only two other mound appearances the remainder of the season because of the flipper ailment.

SPALDING TROPHY GIVEN EDDIE WAYNE

Edward Wayne (Wodarczyk), outfielder with Miami Beach of the Florida International League in 1947, was presented with the Spalding Trophy proclaiming him as the minors' leading rookie batsman of 1946. In his O. B. bow with Lenoir of the Blue Ridge League that season, Wayne batted .403 in 90 games. The Spalding award, presented annually to the top first-year batter, is a large silver cup given by A. G. Spalding & Bros.

DEATHS INCLUDE PLAYER STRUCK IN HEAD

Death took a heavy toll among former diamond performers and officials in 1947, and even reached into the active ranks. One manager died during the season, one player was fatally injured by a blow received in a game, and two others were killed in automobile accidents while enroute to games.

Ray Brubaker, 51, pilot of the Terre Haute Three-I League club and a veteran in the game as a player, umpire and manager since 1914, was fatally stricken with a heart attack in his team's dugout during a game at Waterloo, Ia., May 3.

James (Stormy) Davis, 20-year-old outfielder of the Ballinger Longhorn League club, was struck on the head by a pitched ball in a game with Sweetwater, July 3, and died of a brain hemorrhage seven days later. The two players killed in auto accidents were Woodrow T. Crowson, 28, pitcher with Greensboro of the Carolina League, and James A. Slowey, Jr., 22, shortstop with Wisconsin Rapids of the Wisconsin State League. Two other minor league pitchers, Leon J. Balser, 28, and Thomas J. Gatto, 23, died in accidents before the season opened.

Among the leading figures in the game who passed away during the year were William G. Bramham, 72, president of the National Association for 15 years; three members of the famous Chicago Cub champions of 1906-07-08-10—Outfielder Jimmy Sheckard, 68, Catcher Johnny Kling, 71, and Pitcher Orvie Overall, 66; John W. TWO PINCH GRAND-SLAMMS FOR SAME MATE

Pinch-hitters for Ora (Mickey) Burnett, infielder of the Oakland Pacific Coast League club, performed the unusual feat of making grand-slam homers twice within six days in 1947. Glenn Crawford turned the trick against San Francisco, August 15, and Will Hafey against Los Angeles, August 20. Both blows sparked rallies that brought victories to the Oaks.

KASH WINS FIVE IRON-MAN STINTS

Michael Kash, veteran southpaw of more than a dozen seasons in the minor leagues, equalled an all-time record in 1947, when he successfully essayed the iron-man role five times during the Colonial League season. The feat previously was performed in 1908 by Louis (Bull) Durham of the Indianapolis American Association club.

Pitching for the pennant-winning Waterbury Timers, Kash achieved each of his iron-man performances at the home park. Four different clubs were his victims, Poughkeepsie twice.

Kash's record in his five record-tying efforts follows:

ROWE ON ALL-STARS FOR BOTH MAJORS

To Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, Phil pitcher, went the distinction in 1947 of becoming the first player to have been named on All-Star Game teams for both major leagues. Rowe was nominated by the American League for the classics in 1935 and 1936, when he was with the Tigers, and in the latter year pitched three innings in the game at Boston, allowing two runs in three innings. In 1947, the veteran was a National League pitching choice for the inter-league scrap, but his role was confined to a pinch-hit appearance for the Braves' Johnny Sain.

THROWN OUT THRICE BY SAME FLYHAWK

Maurice (Moe) Santomauro, center fielder for Fort Worth, performed an unusual feat in a game with Beaumont, June 19, 1947, when he nailed Charles (Babe) Glunt at the plate three times as the Exporter attempted to score from second base on singles. Glunt was cut down in the first inning when Santomauro's throw to Catcher Ferrell Anderson beat the runner by approximately ten feet. In the eighth and twelfth stanzas, the plays were closer. With the aid of Santomauro's accurate pegs, Fort Worth won in 12 innings, 6 to 5.

GIANTS SMASH HOMER RECORDS WITH 221

The New York Giants shattered virtually all team home run records during the 1947 season while blasting a total of 221. Paced by Johnny Mize, who hit 51, the Giants eclipsed by 39 the previous major league record set by the 1936 Yankees.

Besides a new seasonal high, the Giants established numerous marks for circuit clouts in successive games. In addition to Mize, two others went over the 30 figure in four-baggers—Willard Marshall, 36, and Walker Cooper, 35. A fourth, Bobby Thomson, had 29.

Ninety of the club's 221 round-trippers were made on the road, 131 at the Polo Grounds. Pittsburgh pitchers yielded the most homers, 41, while Ralph Branca of the Dodgers was the Giants' particular pet, being nicked for ten circuit smashes.

The Giants' 1947 individual homer record by parks follows:

DICKEY THUMBED THRICE IN FIVE DAYS

Bill Dickey, who seldom had any trouble with umpires during his long career as a catcher with the New York Yankees, had his share of rhubarbs with arbiters as manager of the Little Rock Southern Association club in 1947. Dickey, whose club finished in the cellar, was thumbed out three times in a five-day period, August 4-8.

ROOKIE HURLS NO-HITTER IN DEBUT

Joe Alamo, a sandlotter signed by Greenville of the Coastal Plain League in 1947, made his O. B. debut with a seven-inning no-hitter against Tarboro, July 15, winning the opener of a double-header, 3 to 1. Tarboro scored its run on three errors in the second frame. Alamo fanned two and walked none.

ONCE A BOY SCOUT, ALWAYS A BOY SCOUT

Pee Wee Reese's Boy Scout training came back to haunt him during a game against the Chicago Cubs in 1947. The Dodger shortstop was on first base with one out when Dixie Walker missed a third strike, the bat flying out of his hands and landing near Pee Wee's feet. Reese obligingly bent over to pick up the bat, but when he straightened up, he saw First Baseman Ed Waitkus alongside him with the ball. While Reese was doing his good deed, Catcher Clyde McCullough had whipped the ball down to first to pick Pee Wee off the bag.

TWO OPENING-DAY NO-HITTERS

Two pitchers hurled no-hitters on the opening day of their 1947 minor league seasons. They were 19-year-old Robert Brakes of Milford of the Eastern Shore League and Jim Morris of Miami of the Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri League.

Brake walked six and hit two batsmen but fanned 14 in ringing up an 8 to 0 win over Dover. Morris whiffed ten and walked only five in notching a 12 to 0 victory at the expense of Carthage.

JULY 4 LEADERS COP FLAGS

The old saw that the teams which lead the major leagues on July 4 will win the pennants held true in both circuits in 1947. In the American League, the Yankees held a seven and one-half game edge over second-place Detroit after the Independence Day twin-bills, while Brooklyn was in the van by one game over the Braves.

Over the past 15 years, however, the leader as of the Fourth of July has finished on top only 60 per cent of the time. Just six of the National's July 4 pace-setters have copped the flag, while in the American the leader at the halfway milestone has nailed down the title in 12 of the last 15 races.

Following is the list of July 4 leaders, with the number of games in front, and the eventual champion, with position at the time shown in parenthesis:

GERKIN WORKHORSE AMONG PITCHERS

All known records for pitching appearances were shattered in 1947 by Steve Gerkin, veteran righthander with Minneapolis. Gerkin worked in 83 official American Association games during the regular season, topping the previously recognized high of 75, set by Will White of the Cincinnati Reds in 1879. In addition, Gerkin was in three games that were rained out of the records and four post-season playoff games. Following the American Association season, Gerkin, voted the circuit's most valuable player, went to Cuba to participate in the Cuban Professional League's winter season. This, added to ten appearances in 1947 spring training games, boosted his pitching record to more than 100 games for the year.

SHOWER FOR BOSOX' BOBBY DOERR

Gifts valued at $25,000 were showered on Bobby Doerr, second baseman of the Red Sox, at a night held in his honor in Boston, August 2, 1947. Doerr received a Cadillac sedan from the club, a power unit for his ranch from Owner Tom Yawkey, an outboard motor from his teammates, a Chevrolet truck and numerous other gifts from the fans and a deed to 12 lots on the shoreline of Los Angeles from his parents. Mrs. Doerr was presented with a $2,500 mink stole and their 4-year-old son, Donnie, with numerous toys.

HOMER IN 19TH ENDS SCORELESS DUEL

Bernard (Buddy) Lake, pitcher-infielder of the Sanford Florida State League club, played the role of both batting and pitching hero in the longest game in Florida State League history, July 19, 1947. Blanking DeLand on eight hits for 19 innings, Lake broke up a scoreless mound duel with Guillermo (Yigi) Alonzo by clouting a home run in the tenth overtime frame to give Sanford a 1 to 0 triumph.

CERVECERIA COPS CARACAS WINTER FLAG

Cerveceria Caracas, a team made up entirely of Venezuelans, won the 1948 championship of the Caracas Winter League in Venezuela, finishing two games ahead of the Vargus club, managed by Roy Campanella, Negro catcher owned by the Brooklyn Dodgers. Magallenes finished in third place and Venezuela was fourth. It was the first time an all-Venezuelan team ever captured the pennant.

The race between Cerveceria and Vargus was close throughout most of the season and the two were tied for first place as late as a week before the end of the campaign. The league planned to become affiliated with Organized Ball for the 1948-49 winter season, when at least 15 players from the minors of the United States will be given places on the teams.

RHUBARB OF THE YEAR—DODGERS VS. CARDS

One of the 1947 season's choicest rhubarbs developed in the Cardinal-Dodger game of July 20, when Beans Reardon, veteran National League umpire, signalled that Ron Northey's long hit had gone into the stands for a home run, and the Card outfielder slowed down to a jog on his trip around the bases. Northey's consternation on arriving at the plate to find Catcher Bruce Edwards, ball in hand, waiting to put a tag on him, must have been a prize double take, but it was nothing to the double talk which ensued when Card Manager Eddie Dyer sought an explanation. The eventual protest by St. Louis was upheld by League President Ford Frick, who ordered a replay of the contest, in which the Dodgers were returned 3 to 2 winners thanks to a ninth-inning rally.

LOMBARDI LAST ORIGINAL NIGHT PLAYER

When the New York Giants handed Ernie Lombardi, veteran catcher, his release after the 1947 season, they removed from the big show the last member of the 1935 Reds who had played every season in the league since night ball was first inaugurated on May 24 of that year.

Big Schnozzle earned a .288 average for his 13 seasons under the lights, whacking out 105 bingles in 364 trips to the plate, among his blows being 16 home runs. Five seasons he hit better than .300 in nocturnal play.

Lombardi made his first appearance in a night game on May 31, 1935, when he served as a pinch-hitter. It was the Reds' second of seven after-dark contests that season and resulted in a 4 to 1 loss to the Pirates.

With the departure of Lombardi, "Ducky" Medwick remained as the only major league player with 13 seasons of night ball play.

BORDER CLUBS IN SUCCESSIVE NO-HITTERS

Kingston and Auburn exchanged no-hit games on consecutive days during the 1947 Border League season. Playing in the Ontario city, June 21, Kingston won the first game of a twin-bill, 8 to 0, when Stan Stenoff turned in a seven-inning hitless effort. The next day, at Auburn, Roger Blinn of Kingston notched a nine-inning no-hitter in another twin-bill lidlifter for a 5 to 0 victory.

STOVEY BASE-STEALING KING

Harry Stovey stole 744 bases in the three major leagues, between 1886 and 1893, going over the 100 mark in thefts four years in succession and out-Cobbing Ty Cobb during three seasons in the American Association. His biggest year was in 1888, when he stole 156 bases in 130 contests. This is still a record.

Here is Stovey's eight-year stolen base record:

Year	Club	Games	SB	Ave. Per Game
1886	Athletics, A. A.	123	96	0.78
1887	Athletics, A. A.	124	145	1.15
1888	Athletics, A. A.	130	156	1.20
1889	Athletics, A. A.	136	115	0.85
1890	Boston, P. L.	122	136	1.11
1891	Boston, N. L.	133	52	0.39
1892	Boston-Baltimore, N. L.	112	20	0.18
1893	Baltimore-Brooklyn, N. L.	53	26	0.49
Totals		933	744	0.80

Stovey was a slugger as well as a base stealer. When he was with Worcester in 1880, he led the National League in triples and tied with Jim O'Rourke for the leadership in home runs.

On August 18, 1884, he clouted Bob Emslie of Baltimore for a pair of triples in the eighth inning—an unusual feat. And on July 21, 1892, Stovey got three triples off Phil (Red) Ehret of Pittsburgh and batted in eight Baltimore runs.

A big fellow and fast, Stovey divided his time between the outfield and first base.

PRINCE WINS LOUISVILLE SLUGGER AWARD

James Prince, first baseman with Midland of the Longhorn League, captured the 1947 Louisville Slugger Trophy by compiling a .429 average in 108 games for the highest batting mark in the minor leagues. The award, presented annually to the minors' top hitter, is a full-sized sterling silver bat donated by the Hillerich & Bradsby Co., manufacturers of Louisville Slugger bats.

The 1946 award, won by Earl Browne, manager of the Owensboro Kitty League team, also with a .429 average, was presented to Browne during a night in his honor in the Kentucky town, June 17, 1947. The veteran first baseman-manager also received numerous gifts, including a new automobile.

DIZZY DEAN RETURNS TO MOUND

Jerome H. (Dizzy) Dean, who retired from the game in 1941 to become a baseball broadcaster, returned to the pitching knoll on the final day of the 1947 American League season for the St. Louis Browns.

Stepping out of his broadcasting booth, the former St. Louis Cardinal mound star pitched the first four innings against the Chicago White Sox, September 28. Although yielding three hits and one walk, Dean blanked the Sox. He also singled in his one appearance at bat before retiring with a pulled leg muscle suffered in sliding into second base. Dean's appearance helped attract a crowd of 15,916.

TWO LOOPS TOP HOME RUN MARK

Two minor leagues eclipsed the all-time home run record in 1947. The eight-team Class B Big State League produced 1,140 four-baggers in 617 regular-season games, while the Class C West Texas-New Mexico League, also an eight-team circuit, recorded 1,200 four-base clouts. The previous minor league high was 1,147, by the Western Association in 1924.

NABORS LOST 20 IN ROW, NOT 19

A recurring error in some record books lists Pitcher John Nabors of the 1916 Athletics as losing 19 games in a row, when as a matter of fact he lost 20 straight. He failed to taste the fruits of victory after April 22, when he defeated George Foster of the Red Sox, 6 to 2, for his one triumph of the year. He began the season by dropping a 4 to 2 decision to Bob Shawkey of the Yanks.

Following his win over Boston, Nabors staggered into 20 straight losses. A number of them could be charged to a lack of runs behind him. In five games, the Mackmen failed to score, and in seven Nabors lost by a one-run margin. All told, the A's made 37 markers for Nabors during his 20 successive reverses.

BABE RUTH DAY OBSERVED

In recognition of the place Babe Ruth holds in the hearts of America's baseball fans, Commissioner Albert B. Chandler set aside April 27, 1947, for the general observance of a "Babe Ruth Day." More than 58,000 attended ceremonies at Yankee Stadium while millions in ball parks throughout the nation heard the country-wide radio broadcast on loud speakers. The Babe, appearing in public after a prolonged illness, received a tumultuous reception. Speakers paying homage to the man who hit 714 homers during his baseball career included Cardinal Spellman, Commissioner Chandler, Ford Frick and Will Harridge. The only other instance of a national day given to an individual in the pastime was one held for Harry Wright, father of professional baseball, on April 13, 1896.

CRISTOBAL AND CERVECERIA PANAMA CHAMPIONS

The Cristobal team won the 1947-48 Panama Canal Zone League championship by defeating the Diablo Heights Royals, who had tied for first place during the regular season, three games out of four in the playoff. The Cerveceria Brewers captured the Panama Professional League pennant.

Colon finished third and Balboa fourth in the Canal Zone loop and the C. P. R. Radiomen were third and Carta Vieja fourth in the other circuit.

Belfield Harris won the Panama Professional League batting championship with a mark of .355, and Steve Bilko, first baseman owned by the St. Louis Cardinal chain, was first in the Canal Zone with .381 while playing for Colon.

LOSES AFTER TEN HITLESS FRAMES

Despite pitching hitless ball for ten and two-thirds innings, Sam Eatock, Wausau portsider, dropped a 1 to 0 decision to Green Bay of the Wisconsin State League, July 6, 1947, when he yielded a lone hit in the eleventh inning. Eatock retired the first batter in the eleventh, walked the next and permitted him to reach second on a wild pitch. After the third batter flied out, Eddie Rullman followed with a clean single, the only Green Bay safety, to drive in the lone run of the game. Eatock fanned six, walked two. Two Packers reached base on errors.

OFFICIAL PLAYING RULES OF Professional Base Ball Clubs

As adopted at the meeting of the Joint Playing Rules Committee of the National League and the American League, held at National League Headquarters, New York City, March 2, 1904. Amended February 14, 1906; February 25, 1907; February 27, 1908; February 17, 1909; January 24, 1910; February 13, 1914; February 13, 1916; February 10, 1920; February 23, 1921; January 29-30, 1926; December 12, 1930, by the National Joint Rules Committee of Professional Base Ball; December 15, 1938; February 12-13, 1940; February 1, 1947.

Official text of the rules printed in large type. Explanatory notes in smaller type.

The Ball Ground.

RULE 1 The ball ground must be enclosed. To obviate the necessity for ground rules, the shortest distance from a fence or stand on fair territory to the home base should be 250 feet and from home base to the grand stand sixty (60) feet.

Enclosure applies to professional leagues, but many leagues have eliminated the ground rule where the stands are less than 60 feet distant and rule ball in play.

To Lay Off the Field.

RULE 2 To lay off the lines defining the location of the several bases, the catcher's and the pitcher's position and to establish the boundaries required in playing the game of base ball, proceed as follows:

In laying out the diamond care should be taken to have it set in such position that the least possible amount of the sun's rays will shine directly in the eyes of the players and spectators. Having the back point of the plate set to point due West-South-West, and the diamond laid out at that angle will obtain the best results. Seats and stands should be arranged to make the most of such arrangement. The seats should be placed so that the extended foul lines will form equal spaces on each side of the diamond from the foul lines to the fence or stands, if possible.

Diamond or Infield.

From a point, A, within the grounds, project a point, B, 124 feet from point A, lay off lines B C and B D at right angles to the line A B; then, with B as a center and 63.63945 feet as a radius, describe arcs cutting the lines B A at F and B C at G, B D at H and B E at I. Draw lines F G, G I, I H, and H F, each 90 feet in length, which said lines shall be the containing lines of the Diamond or Infield.

In laying out a baseball field, proceed as follows:

With a steel tape-measure lay out the base lines and place the home plate and the pitcher's box as shown in the diagram on Page 566. If it is possible to do so, have home plate point due West-South-West.

Remove the sod from the base lines between the home plate and first and third bases; also from first base to second base and from second base to third base. The sod may be removed from around the pitcher's plate. Fill in the base lines and the ground around the pitcher's plate if the sod is removed.

Mark lines of batsman's box, on each side of home plate, with white-wash, chalk or similar substance. Also foul line, 3 inches wide, from home plate to first base and from home plate to third base, continuing out into the field beyond first and third bases.

Distance from home base to first base, 90 feet; from first base to second base, 90 feet; from second base to third base, 90 feet, and from third base to home plate, 90 feet. Total distance around the bases, 360 feet.

Distance from point of home plate to pitcher's slab, 60 feet, 6 inches. Distance is measured from point of home plate, where the base lines intersect, and not from the front part of the plate.

Distance across diamond, from home plate to second base, 127 feet $3\frac{3}{8}$ inches; from first base, across diamond, to third base, the same.

Where space is limited, the official rules specify that the shortest distance from home plate to a fence or stand in fair territory should be 250 feet and from home plate to grandstand, 60 feet.

OFFICIAL DIMENSIONS OF DIAMONDS FOR BOYS UNDER SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE.

Distances between bases, 82 feet; home plate to second base, 115 feet $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches; same distance across diamond from first base to third base; home plate to pitcher's plate, 50 feet.

The Catcher's Lines.

RULE 3 SECTION 1. With F as a center and 10 feet radius, describe an arc cutting line F A at Z and draw lines Z J and Z K at right angles to F A, and continue each out from F A not less than 10 feet.

SEC. 2. With F as a center and 60 feet radius, describe an arc cutting F A at L and draw lines L M and L O at right angles to F A, and continue each out from F L not less than 60 feet, to form the back stop line.

The Foul Lines.

RULE 4 From the intersection point, F, continue the straight lines G F and H F until they intersect the lines L O and L M, and then from the points G and H in the opposite direction until they reach the boundary lines of the ground and not less than 10 feet above the top of fence or stand; and said lines, not less than 3 inches wide, shall be made, on the playing field, of lime, whiting, chalk or other powder or paint.

The Player's Lines.

RULE 5 With F as center and 50 feet radius, describe arcs cutting lines F O and F M at P and Q; then, with F as center again and 75 feet radius, describe arcs cutting F G and F H at R and S; then, from the points P Q, R and S draw lines at right angles to the lines F O, F M, F G and F H, and continue the same until they intersect at the points W and T.

The Coachers' Lines.

RULE 6 With R and S as centers and 15 feet radius, describe arcs cutting the lines R W and S T at X and Y, and from the points X and Y draw lines parallel with the lines F G and F H and continue same out 15 feet to an extension of lines I G and I H, respectively.

Coachers are obliged to stay within the confines of the coacher's box, which as will be noted on the diagram (Page 566) does not permit them to go nearer than 15 feet to the base lines.

Coachers may not go beyond an extension of the base lines running between first and second bases and between second and third bases. This keeps them completely out of outfield territory. Not more than two coachers may be on the field at the same time—one in each coacher's box.

The Three-Foot Lines.

RULE 7 With F as a center and 45 feet radius, describe an arc cutting the line F G at the figure one (1) and from the figure one (1) to the distance of three feet draw a line at right angles to F G, and mark point 2; then from point 2 draw a line parallel with the line F G to a point three feet beyond the point G, marked 3; then from the point 3 draw a line at right angles to line 2, 3, back to and intersecting with F G.

The Batsman's Lines.

RULE 8 On either side of the line A F B describe a rectangle 6 feet long and 4 feet wide (marked 9 and 10, respectively). The longest side of each rectangle shall be parallel with the line A F B and the rectangles shall be 29 inches apart or $14\frac{1}{2}$ inches on either side of line A F B. The middle of the long side of each rectangle shall be on a line with the middle corners of home plate.

See enlarged section on diagram of field (Page 566), showing position of home plate and batsman's box.

If it is not possible to outline a "box" it should be remembered that the batter is never allowed to step over home plate to strike at the ball, and that he must not run forward toward the pitcher, to exceed three feet from the center of the plate, to strike at the ball.

The Pitcher's Plate.

RULE 9 SECTION 1. From point F measure along line F E a distance of 60 feet 6 inches to point 4, which marks the front of the pitcher's plate. Draw a line 5, 6, passing through point 4 at right angles to F4, and extending 12 inches on either side of line F B; then with line 5, 6, as a side, describe a rectangle 24 inches by 6 inches in which shall be placed the pitcher's plate.

SEC. 2. The pitcher's plate shall not be more than 15 inches higher than the base lines or the home plate, which shall be level with the surface of the field, and the slope from the pitcher's plate to every base line and the home plate shall be gradual.

The Bases.

RULE 10 SECTION 1. Within the angle F, describe a five-sided figure, two of the sides of which shall coincide with the lines F G and F H to the extent of 12 inches each, thence parallel with the line F B $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches to the points U and V a straight line between which, 17 inches long, will form the front of the home base or plate.

SEC. 2. Within the angles at G and H describe squares, whose side are 15 inches in length, two of the sides of which squares shall lie along the lines F G and G I, I H and H F, which squares shall be the location of the first and third bases, respectively. At point I, the intersection of G I and H I, describe a square 15 inches on each side, the center of which is directly over point I and whose sides are parallel to G I and H I. This shall locate second base.

Home Base and Pitcher's Plate Must Be of Rubber.

RULE 11 The home base at F and the pitcher's plate at 4 must be each of whitened rubber, and so fixed in the ground as to be even with its surface. The size of the pitcher's plate shall be 24 inches by 6 inches.

See enlarged section on diagram of field (Page 566), showing position of home plate.

Particular care should be taken to have the edges of the home plate EVEN with the surface to prevent a runner sliding into the plate from injuring his legs, particularly his ankles. The edges of the plate are beveled and the proper joining of the ground and the plate will positively help prevent accidents of this kind.

Bases of White Canvas.

RULE 12 The first base at G, the second base at I and the third base at H must each be a white canvas bag, 15 inches square and not less than 3 nor more than 5 inches in thickness, filled with soft material and securely fastened in place at the points specified in Rule 10.

The bases, except home plate, are best constructed of canvas bags filled with sawdust. Home plate should be of whitened rubber, whenever it is possible to obtain it. Some cruder substance may be used for bases if nothing else is obtainable, but it is best to follow the suggestions given. First, second and third bases should be attached to pegs driven in the ground, and home plate should be sunk so that its upper surface is on a level with the surface of the ground. Bases must not be less than 3 nor more than 5 inches thick.

White Lines to Designate Playing Field.

RULE 13 The lines described in Rules 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 must be marked with lime, chalk or other white material, easily distinguishable from the ground or grass.

Rules 2 to 13, inclusive, describe mathematically how to lay out a diamond for professional contests. For schoolboys, the National Joint Rules Committee recommends a smaller size diamond. Semi-professional and independent games are played on diamonds of the regulation size.

A circle of about five feet in diameter should be marked off about half way between the plate and the stand and to the outer side of the extended foul lines to be occupied by the next batter. He, however, should be ready on the bench to promptly take his place at bat and not delay the game.

The Ball.

RULE 14 SECTION 1. The ball must weigh not less than 5 nor more than $5\frac{1}{4}$ ounces avoirdupois, and measure not less than 9 nor more than $9\frac{1}{4}$ inches in circumference.

The Spalding National League Ball is used in the National League and the Reach American League Ball is used in the American League.

SEC. 2. The president of the league of which the contesting clubs are members shall specify the number of base balls which the home club must deliver to the umpire prior to the hour set for the commencement of a championship game, and all of such base balls shall be of the regulation make adopted by the said league. If the ball placed in play be batted or thrown out of the grounds or into one of the stands for spectators, or in the judgment of the umpire becomes unfit for play from any cause, the umpire shall at once deliver an alternate ball to the pitcher and another legal ball shall be supplied to him, so that he shall at all times have in his control one or more alternate balls. Provided, however, that all balls batted or thrown out of the ground or into a stand shall when returned to the field be given into the custody of the umpire immediately and become alternate balls, and so long as he has in his possession two or more alternate balls he shall not call for a new ball to replace one that has gone out of play. The alternate balls shall become the ball in play in the order in which they were delivered to the umpire.

The best judgment should be used in throwing out balls during a game as being unfit. Balls are a very expensive item for the smaller leagues. The courtesy of exchanging a ball for a pitcher doesn't mean that the ball the pitcher wanted to be changed should be thrown out as it is oftentimes the mental condition the pitcher is in that makes him desire to have the ball changed.

SEC. 3. Immediately upon the delivery to him of an alternate ball by the umpire, the pitcher shall take his position and on the call of "Play," by the umpire, it shall become the ball in play. Provided, however, that play shall not be resumed with an alternate ball when a fair batted ball or ball thrown by a fielder goes out of the ground or into a stand for spectators until the base-runners have completed the circuit of the bases unless compelled to stop at second or third base in compliance with a ground rule.

Discolored or Damaged Balls.

SEC. 4. In event of the ball being intentionally discolored by any player, either by rubbing it with the soil, or by applying rosin, paraffin, licorice, or any other foreign substance to it, or otherwise intentionally damaging or roughening the same with sand-paper or emery-paper or other substance, the umpire shall forthwith demand the return of that ball, and substitute for it another legal ball, and the offending player shall be debarred from further participation in the game. If, however, the umpire cannot detect the violator of this rule, and the ball is delivered to the bat by the pitcher, then the latter shall be removed at once from the game, and as an additional penalty shall be automatically suspended for a period of ten days. See Rule 27, Section 2.

Rosin or soil is allowed to aid the pitcher in controlling the ball, but not for the purpose of discoloring same.

Home Club to Provide Balls.

SEC. 5. In every game the balls played with shall be furnished by the home club (as provided in Sec. 2, Rule 14), and the last in play shall become the property of the winning club. Each ball shall be enclosed in a paper box, which must be sealed with the seal of the president of the league and bear his certificate that the ball contained therein is of the required standard in all respects. The seal shall not be broken by the umpire except prior to game time, and for the purpose of inspecting the ball and removing the gloss therefrom.

If, in the judgment of any league president, it shall be advisable to use balls that have been used but which are in good condition, such balls must be delivered by the home club to the umpire prior to the game. If, in the judgment of the umpire, any such balls are unfit they shall be rejected. No ball shall be legal that has not been accepted by the umpire as in good condition.

Reserve Balls on Field.

SEC. 6. The home club shall have at least a dozen regulation balls on the field during each championship game, ready for use on the call of the umpire.

The president of the league shall determine the number of baseballs which the home club must deliver to the umpire. This is far more to the purpose than the old method by which the home club was presumed to give two baseballs of regulation make to the umpire. The umpire in major league games has at his command all of the baseballs necessary to continue the game, no matter what total. In amateur baseball it is still customary to give the umpire two new baseballs.

As will be noted, Section 4 of this rule is ironclad in its punishment for discoloring or damaging the ball.

Section 5 of Rule 14 is self-explanatory. The umpire breaks the seal of the box containing the baseballs prior to the game for the purpose of inspecting the ball and removing the gloss from its surface.

The home club should send to the umpires' dressing room before game time the regulation number of new balls as required by that particular league's rules to have the gloss removed and time enough allowed so that the umpires will not be hurried about dressing, etc. The balls should be discolored as little as possible in removing the gloss.

It is customary for the home team to provide baseballs in amateur games as well as in professional games. The umpire has the custody of the ball when it is not in play, but at the completion of the game the last ball in play goes to the winning team.

The Bat.

RULE 15 The bat must be round, not over two and three-fourths inches in diameter at the thickest part, nor more than 42 inches in length, and entirely of hardwood in one piece. Twine may be wound around it or a granulated substance applied to it for a distance of 18 inches from the end of the handle, but not elsewhere.

Note that the bat must be one piece and entirely of hardwood. A bat loaded with a metal filling is not legal.

Young players should be instructed how to properly hold the bat while batting. "Trade Mark Up" is the "proper manner" and if followed you would not so often break or crack your favorite bat. This is one of the principal reasons that the bat is so marked.

Number of Players in a Game.

RULE 16 The players of each team actively engaged in a game at one time shall be nine in number, one of whom may act as captain. In no case shall more or less than nine men on each team be allowed to play at one time as regular players, substitutes to become regulars, and regulars to be eliminated when so specified to the umpire by captains or managers.

This rule always is to be observed.

Substitutes.

RULE 17 SECTION 1. Each club shall be required to have present on the field during a championship game a sufficient number of substitute players in uniform conforming to the suits worn by their team-mates, to carry out the provisions of this code, which requires that not less than nine (9) players shall occupy the field in any inning of the game.

SEC. 2. Any such substitute at any stage of the game, except when the ball is in play, may take the place of a player whose name is in his team's batting order, but the player whom he succeeds shall not thereafter participate in that game.

SEC. 3. A base-runner shall not have another player whose name appears in the batting order of his team run for him except by the consent of the manager or captain of the other team.

SEC. 4. In event of the pitcher being taken from his pitching position by either manager or captain, the player substituted for him shall continue to pitch until the batsman then at bat has either been put out or has reached first base, or the side has been retired. The only exception to this rule shall be when the pitcher substituted sustains some disability which, in the judgment of the umpire-in-chief, incapacitates him from pitching.

SEC. 5. When the umpire announces the pitcher prior to commencement of game, the player announced must pitch until the first batsman has either been put out or has reached first base. The only exception to this rule shall be when the pitcher sustains some disability which, in the judgment of the umpire-in-chief, incapacitates him from pitching.

SEC. 6. Whenever one player is substituted for another, whether as batsman, base-runner, or fielder, the manager or captain of the team making the change must immediately notify the umpire. The manager or captain shall state where the substitute shall take his place in the batting order. A fine of $25 shall be assessed by the umpire against the manager or captain for each violation of the rule, and the president of the league shall impose a similar fine against the umpire, who, after having been notified of a change, fails to have proper announcement made to the spectators. Provided, however, that if through oversight, such announcement is not made, the substitute player will be considered as in the game, as follows:

- (1) If a pitcher, when he takes his place on the pitcher's plate;
- (2) If a batter, when he takes his place in the batsman's box;
- (3) If a fielder, when he takes the place of the fielder substituted for;

- (4) If a runner, when he takes the place of the runner substituted for; and any play made by or on such unannounced substitute shall be legal under these rules.

It is possible to substitute a fielder for the pitcher and place the pitcher in the fielder's position, or in some other position, and later return the pitcher to his position if the captain of the team so desires, provided the pitcher remains in the game. If the captain of the team in the field agrees to permit another player to run for the batter, after the latter has reached first base, and agrees to permit the batter to play as a fielder when the team at bat returns to the field, there is no objection.

If the substitute takes the proper position assigned to him, any play which he makes is legal, in spite of the fact that the umpire may not have been notified and may not have made announcement of the substitution. Neglect by a captain is not allowed to affect actual field work.

Penalties which are provided in fines apply solely to professional baseball.

Positions of the Players.

RULE 18 SECTION 1. The players of the team not at bat may be stationed at any points of the field on fair ground their captain may elect, regardless of their respective positions, except that the pitcher, while in the act of delivering the ball to the bat, must take his position as defined in Rules 9 and 27.

SEC. 2. No player of the team "at bat," except the batsman, shall occupy any portion of the space within the catcher's lines as defined in Rule 3. The triangular space back of the home base is reserved for exclusive use of the umpire, catcher and batsman, and the umpire must prohibit any player of the team "at bat" from crossing the same at any time while the ball is in the hands of the pitcher or catcher, or passing between them while standing in their positions.

SEC. 3. The players or coaches of the team at bat must immediately vacate any space occupied by them if it is needed by a fielder attempting to handle a batted or thrown ball.

Two teams make up each contest, with nine players on each. The fielders are known as the pitcher, catcher, the first baseman, the second baseman, the third baseman, the shortstop, the left fielder, the center fielder and the right fielder. None of these is required to occupy an exact position on the field, except the pitcher, who must stand with one foot touching the pitcher's rubber when in the act of delivering the ball to the batter.

Players are cautioned against the habit of infringing upon the space within the catcher's lines and batsmen against leaving the bench before it is their turn to do so. Games expedited by being played with alertness and energy are desirable, but the rules should not be violated for speed. Moreover, too much speed makes it appear at times as if the player cared little for the game. This refers more to the professional than to the amateur player.

Players and coaches must make room for fielders trying for all fielding plays.

Must Not Mingle With Spectators.

RULE 19 Players in uniform shall not be permitted to occupy seats in the stands, nor to mingle with the spectators. No Manager, Captain, Coach or Player shall address the spectators during a game except in reply to a request for information about the progress or state of the game, or to give the name of a player.

In American League when players approach stands to converse with spectators, umpires report to league headquarters the name of any player violating this rule and a fine of $5.00 is imposed. If the offense is repeated the fine is doubled. National League permits talking to spectators, but not fraternizing with opposing players.

Uniforms of Players.

RULE 20 Every club shall adopt two uniforms for its players, one to be worn in games at home and the other in games abroad, and the suits of each of the uniforms of a team shall conform in color and style. No player who shall attach anything to the sole or heel of his shoe other than the ordinary base ball shoe plate, or who shall appear in a uniform not conforming to the suits of the other members of his team, shall be permitted to take part in a game. Glass buttons or polished metal must not be used on a uniform.

In professional leagues the home uniform is usually white and the traveling uniform of gray or some darker color.

No exception is to be made regarding attaching a foreign substance to the shoe.

Note restrictions about glass buttons and polished metal on uniforms.

Size and Weight of Gloves.

RULE 21 The catcher may wear a leather glove or mitt of any size, shape or weight.

The first baseman may wear a leather glove or mitt not more than 12 inches long from top to bottom and not more than 8 inches wide across the palm, with thumb and palm connected by leather lacing of not more than 4 inches from thumb to palm, which lacing shall not be enlarged, extended or reinforced by any process or material whatever.

Every other player is restricted to the use of a leather glove weighing not over 10 ounces and measuring not over 14 inches around the palm. The pitcher's glove must be uniform in color.

It is imperative that the pitcher's glove be uniform in color, in order to prevent a distracting confusion of colors as the pitcher delivers the ball.

Players' Benches.

RULE 22 SECTION 1. Players' benches must be furnished by the home club and placed upon a portion of the ground not less than twenty-five (25) feet outside of the players' lines. One such bench shall be for the exclusive use of the visiting team and the other for the exclusive use of the home team. Each bench must be covered with a roof and closed at the back and each end; a space, however, not more than six (6) inches wide may be left under the roof for ventilation. All players and substitutes of the team at bat must be seated on their bench, and remain there until their team has been retired, except the batsman, base-runners and such others as are legally assigned to coach base-runners. Under no circumstances shall the umpire permit any person except the players and substitutes in uniform, coaches in uniform, trainer, and the manager of the team entitled to its exclusive use to be seated on a bench.

Player next at bat should be in batting circle with bat.

Players next at bat should be the only ones allowed to occupy the circle for the next batter to stand while awaiting his turn to bat. Bat boys and other ground attachees should remain in the background as far as possible and are not to touch the ball at any time while it is in play and should be so instructed and ordered by both the managers and umpires. This has caused serious trouble by not being followed.

In the smaller leagues there is at times a lack of space to take care of all the players on the bench, in which case they should sit as close to the bench as possible and in line with the bench and the last man so seated to be the boundary line of the bench.

Penalty for Violation.

SEC. 2. Whenever the umpire observes a violation of the preceding section, he shall immediately order such player or players as have disregarded it to be seated. If the order be not obeyed within one minute the offending player or players shall be fined $5.00 each by the umpire. If the order be not then obeyed within one minute, the offending player or players shall be debarred from further participation in the game, and shall be obliged to leave the playing field forthwith.

All ball grounds should be provided with two players' benches back of the base lines, one on each side of the home plate. They must be not less than twenty-five feet outside of the coaches' lines. Each team should occupy one of the benches exclusively, and their bats and accoutrements should be kept near the bench, and the players should remain on the benches.

Money penalties provided for in Sec. 2 apply to professionals.

A Regulation Game.

RULE 23

SECTION 1. It is a regulation game if the team second at bat scores more runs in eight (8) innings than the team first at bat has scored in nine (9) innings.

SEC. 2. It is a regulation game if the team last at bat in the ninth inning scores the winning run before the third man is out. If a batsman in the last half of the final inning of any game hits a home run over the fence or into a stand, all runners on bases at the time, as well as the batsman, shall be entitled to score, but to score legally all bases must be touched in order by all runners. The final score of such game shall be the total number of runs made by each team.

SEC. 3. It is a regulation game if it be called by the umpire on account of darkness, rain, or other cause which in the umpire's judgment interferes with further play, provided five or more equal innings have been played; or if the team second at bat shall have made more runs at the end of its fourth inning, or before the completion of its fifth inning, than the team first at bat has made in five completed innings.

SEC. 4. If the score be a tie at the end of nine (9) innings for each team, play shall be continued until one team has scored more runs than the other in an equal number of innings; provided, that if the team last at bat scores the winning run before the third man is out in any inning after the ninth, the game shall terminate and be a regulation game.

SEC. 5. A regulation drawn game shall be declared by the umpire if the score is equal on the last even innings played, when he terminates play in accordance with Section 3 of this rule after each team has played five (5) or more equal innings. If the team that went second to bat is at bat when the game is terminated, and has scored in the incompleted inning the same number of runs as the other team, the umpire shall declare the game drawn without regard to the score of the last equal inning. If the team last at bat shall, before the completion of its fifth inning, equal the score made by the opposing team in five (5) complete innings, the game shall be declared legally drawn, and all individual and team averages shall be incorporated in the official playing records.

SEC. 6. It shall be a regulation game if at any time after five (5) innings have been completed, the umpire shall call it in accordance with Section 3 of this rule, and the score shall be that of the last equal innings played; except that if the team second at bat shall have scored in an unequal number of innings more runs than the team first at bat, or if the team second at bat is at bat when the game is called, and ~~has~~ scored in the incompleted inning the same number of runs, or at least one run more, than the team first at bat, the score of the game shall be the total number of runs that each team has made.

SEC. 7. Whenever two games are scheduled to be played in one afternoon, the first game shall be the regularly appointed game for that day. If games are scheduled for morning and afternoon, and it is agreed to play both games in the afternoon, the first game shall be that which was originally scheduled to be played in the afternoon. No club or clubs shall engage in more than two championship games within a period of one day.

If the first game of a double-header is started and called off, the second game must also be called off.

No matter how long the first game of a double-header lasts the second game must be started and play continued as long as conditions so warrant.

If the first game is started it must be completed before the second game can be started.

SEC. 8. No inning of any night game shall be started after 12:50 a. m. War Time. The foregoing sections of this rule shall be subject to this provision.

No night game can be started after 12:50 a. m. War Time, but if an inning has been started before that time it must be finished.

Forfeited Games.

RULE 24 A forfeited game shall be declared by the umpire in favor of the club not in fault, and the score shall be recorded as 9 to 0, in the following cases:

SECTION 1. If the team of a club fail to appear upon the field, or being upon the field, refuse to begin a game for which it is scheduled or assigned, within five minutes after the umpire has called "Play" at the hour for the beginning of the game, unless such delay in appearing, or in commencing the game be unavoidable.

SEC. 2. If, after the game has begun, one team refuse to continue to play, unless the game has been suspended or terminated by the umpire.

SEC. 3. If, after play has been suspended by the umpire, one team fails to resume playing in one minute after the umpire has called "Play."

SEC. 4. If a team employ tactics palpably designed to delay or shorten the game.

SEC. 5. If, after warning by the umpire, any one of the rules of the game be wilfully and persistently violated.

SEC. 6. If the order for the removal of a player, as authorized by Rules 14, 19, 30, 51 and 60, be not obeyed within one minute.

SEC. 7. If, because of the removal of players from the game by the umpire, or for any cause, there be less than nine players on either team.

SEC. 8. If, after the game has been suspended, the orders of the umpire are not complied with as required by Rule 26.

SEC. 9. If, when two games are scheduled to be played in one afternoon, the second game shall not be commenced within twenty minutes after the completion of the first game. The umpire of the first game shall be the timekeeper.

SEC. 10. In case the umpire declare the game forfeited he shall transmit a written report thereof to the president of the league within twenty-four hours thereafter. However, a failure on the part of the umpire to notify the president shall not affect the validity of his award of the game by forfeiture.

SEC. 11. In a regulation game which the umpire shall declare forfeited after four and one-half innings have been played, all individual and team averages shall be incorporated in the official playing records, except that no pitcher shall be credited with a victory or charged with a loss in said game.

It is true that all the sections of this rule are not observed to the exactness of a second, nor even a minute, but the intention of the rulemakers is to provide a penalty which can be enforced for any violation of unsportsmanlike delay if the umpire feels it within his judgment to act. Section 1 is to provide for wilful absence from the field; Section 2 means exactly what it says, and any umpire should never hesitate to enforce it. An umpire can forfeit a game under Section 3, under Section 4, and under Section 5, but umpires do not always use a stopwatch. There have been times perhaps when it would have been better had they done so. Section 6 is violated frequently in the spirit if not the letter, yet after one minute has elapsed the umpire has it within his power to act at once. No game can be played with fewer than nine players on a team (Section 7). Section 8 is enforceable in amateur games, while Sections 9 and 10 apply more to professional games governed by organized leagues.

No Game.

RULE 25

"No game" shall be declared by the umpire if he terminates play in accordance with Rule 23, Section 3, before five (5) innings have been completed by each team; but if the team last at bat is at bat in the last half of the fifth inning and has equaled before the completion of that inning the score of the team first at bat, the umpire shall declare the game "legally drawn" in accordance with Rule 23, Section 5. If the team second at bat shall have made more runs at the end of its fourth inning, or before the completion of its fifth inning, than the team first at bat has made in five (5) completed innings of a game so terminated, the umpire shall award the game to the team having made the greater number of runs, and it shall count as a legal game in the championship record.

This rule provides explicitly that if the team second at bat has more runs at the end of the fourth inning than the team first at bat has made at the end of its completed half of the fifth inning, the team second at bat wins. An added phrase provides a legal definition of victory if team second at bat is in the lead and the game is terminated before the fifth inning is completed.

Choice of Innings—Fitness of Field for Play.

RULE 26 The choice of innings shall be given to the manager or captain of the home team, who shall be the sole judge of the fitness of the ground for beginning a game; but, after play has been called by the umpire, the latter alone shall be the judge as to the fitness of the ground for resuming play after the game has been suspended, and when time is so called the groundkeeper and sufficient assistants shall be under the control of the umpire for the purpose of putting the ground in proper condition for play, under penalty of forfeiture of the game by the home team.

Umpires are the sole judges as to the fitness of the playing field for starting the second game of a double-header. This rule applies to any advertised double-header with one admission. Twilight and night games come under the ruling, unless they are distinct contests, such as are morning and afternoon games.

THE PITCHING RULES.

Delivery of the Ball to the Bat.

RULE 27 SECTION 1. Preliminary to pitching, the pitcher shall take his position facing the batsman with his pivot foot always on or in front of and in contact with the pitcher's plate. In the act of delivering the ball to the batsman, the pitcher's other foot is free, except that he cannot step to either side of the pitcher's plate. He shall not raise either foot until in the act of delivering the ball to the batsman, or in throwing to a base. With a runner on first or second base, the pitcher must face the batsman with both hands holding the ball in front of him. If he raises his arms above his head or out in front, he must return to a natural pitcher's position and stop before starting his delivery of the ball to the batsman.

NOTE—After pitcher takes legal position for delivery of ball to batsman, he may take one step backward and one step forward, but not to either side.

SEC. 2. At no time during the progress of the game shall the pitcher be allowed to (1) apply a foreign substance of any kind to the ball; (2) expectorate either on the ball or his glove; (3) rub the ball on his glove, person or clothing; (4) deface the ball in any manner; or to deliver what is called the "shine" ball, "spit" ball, "mud" ball or "emery" ball. For violation of any part of this rule the umpire shall at once order the pitcher from the game, and in addition he shall be automatically suspended for a period of ten days, on notice from the president of the league. Provided that, under the supervision and control of the umpire, the pitcher may use to dry his hands a small, finely meshed sealed bag containing powdered rosin, furnished by the league.

Young pitchers should take strict notice of Section 1 of this rule in order that they may not acquire an illegal delivery, which results in balking. The pitcher must keep his pivot foot in contact with the rubber when he delivers the ball to the batter. His other foot is free and he may take one step backward and one step forward, but not to either side, when delivering the ball to the batsman without returning to a natural pitching and throw to a base, unless he takes one step directly toward that base. He must also, when runners are on base, avoid committing a balk as defined in the several sections of Rule 31.

Section 2 was adopted in 1920. It is the rule which pronounced the doom of the freak pitching deliveries that had crept into baseball from time to time. Young pitchers should specially take cognizance of this section. Freak deliveries are of no assistance to pitchers, because they are liable to suspension at any time if the umpire decides that the rule has been violated. A penalty of that severity makes it absurd for a beginner anxious to learn to pitch to waste his time on anything except straight baseball, which it is desirous to encourage. The rosin bag is solely to aid and adds to the deception of the pitcher's assortment of stuff. However, the rule states with a runner on first or second base, if the pitcher delivering the ball to the batsman, without returning to a natural pitching position. In other words, they do not pause or hesitate as required by the rule. This has a tendency to hold the runners more closely to the bases and adds to the deception of the pitcher's assortment of stuff.

The rule states with a runner on first or second base, if the pitcher raises his arms above his head or out in front, he must return to a normal pitching position and STOP before starting his delivery to the batsman. Pitchers are constantly seeking to beat this rule by delivering the ball to the batsman with one continuous motion, rather than coming to a definite pause in the delivery on reaching the normal pitching position. The penalty is a balk, if pitcher does not come to full stop.

Pitchers are not allowed to wear a split sleeve if in the umpires' judgment it can in any way interfere with the batter.

Quick return pitch is not allowed and "Time" is to be immediately called by the umpire if and when such pitch is made.

If in the opinion of the umpire the pitcher throws a "Bean Ball" the pitcher shall be warned by the umpire and if the pitcher repeats this pitch he shall be removed from the game and the league office notified with full particulars.

The umpire is to provide a rosin bag furnished by the league to be placed on the ground back of the pitcher. The pitcher is not allowed to carry the bag in his pocket unless told to do so by the umpire. Pitcher is not allowed to apply rosin to any part of his uniform or ball.

A Fairly Delivered Ball.

RULE 28 SECTION 1. A fairly delivered ball is a ball pitched or thrown to the bat by the pitcher while standing in his position and facing the batsman that passes over any portion of the home base, before touching the ground, not lower than the batsman's knees, nor higher than his shoulder. For every such fairly delivered ball the umpire shall call one strike.

SEC. 2. If, with no one on base, the pitcher deliver the ball while off the pitcher's plate, and the batsman strike at such illegally delivered ball, it counts either as a strike or whatever play may follow.

The first section refers, of course, to when the batsman does not attempt to strike at a fairly delivered ball. When the batsman swings at a pitched ball, fairly or unfairly delivered, it is automatically a strike under most conditions and must be called by the umpire.

An Unfairly Delivered Ball.

RULE 29 An unfairly delivered ball is a ball delivered to the bat by the pitcher while standing in his position and facing the batsman that does not pass over any portion of the home base between the batsman's shoulder and knees, or that touches the ground before passing home base, unless struck at by the batsman, except as provided for in Section 4 of Rule 46; or, with the bases unoccupied, any ball delivered by the pitcher while no foot is in contact with the pitcher's plate, unless struck at by the batsman. For every unfairly delivered ball the umpire shall call one ball.

Note that if a ball touches the ground before passing home plate it is a ball, provided it does not later hit the batsman. In other words, if it strikes the ground and goes on its way, it is a ball. However, if such a pitch after striking the ground, should then hit the batsman, he would be entitled to first base on being hit by a pitched ball. If he elects to strike at it whatever happens is legal.

There are three possibilities that can arise from an unfairly delivered ball that results from a pitcher not having his pivot foot in contact with the rubber when he delivers it. For such an unfairly delivered ball, if there are no runners on the bases, the umpire shall rule it a ball, even though it passed over the heart of the plate within the strike zone, unless the batsman should strike at it. If the batsman so elects, it counts as a strike or whatever play may follow. With a runner or runners on the bases, such a delivered ball becomes a balk.

Delaying the Game.

RULE 30 SECTION 1. When the batsman is standing in his proper position, the ball shall not be thrown by the pitcher to any player other than the catcher except in an attempt to retire a base-runner. If repeated after warning by the umpire, the pitcher shall be removed from the game.

SEC. 2. The umpire shall call a ball on the pitcher each time he delays the game by failing to deliver the ball to the batsman for a longer period than 20 seconds, excepting that at the commencement of each inning, or when a pitcher relieves another, the pitcher may occupy one minute in delivering not to exceed five balls to the catcher or an infielder, during which time play shall be suspended.

There is a very severe penalty against the pitcher if he throws to a base as one might say "for fun" or to delay a game. Wilful delay on the part of the pitcher in delivering the ball, especially when storm threatens, should be punished by the umpire as Section 2 provides.

At the beginning of each inning the pitcher is allowed to throw five balls to the catcher or to an infielder for "warming-up" practice, the batsman refraining from occupying his position in the "box" at home plate.

Balks.

RULE 31 A balk entitling the base-runner, or runners, to advance one base shall be called by the umpire as follows:

SECTION 1. Any motion made by the pitcher while in position to deliver the ball to the bat without delivering it, or to throw to first base when occupied by a base-runner without completing the throw.

SEC. 2. Throwing the ball by the pitcher to any base to catch the base-runner without first stepping directly toward such base in the act of making such throw; or throwing or feinting to throw to an unoccupied base.

SEC. 3. Any delivery of the ball to the bat by the pitcher while the pivot foot is back of or not in contact with the pitcher's plate.

SEC. 4. Any delivery of the ball to the bat by the pitcher while he is not facing the batsman.

SEC. 5. Any motion in delivering the ball to the bat by the pitcher while not in the position defined by Rule 27, Section 1.

SEC. 6. Holding of the ball by the pitcher so long as, in the opinion of the umpire, to delay the game unnecessarily.

SEC. 7. Making any motion to pitch while standing in his position without having the ball in his possession; or, regardless of whether he makes any motion to pitch or not, if the pitcher takes a legal position on the pitcher's plate without the ball in his possession, or if he takes a position off the pitcher's plate and feints to deliver the ball to the bat.

SEC. 8. Making any motion of the arm, shoulder, hip, knee, foot or body the pitcher habitually makes in his method of delivery, without immediately delivering the ball to the bat.

SEC. 9. After the pitcher has taken position, with both hands holding the ball in front of him, he cannot take either hand off the ball except in the act of delivering the ball to the batsman or in throwing to bases.

SEC. 10. If the pitcher steps off the pitcher's plate, after being in position for the purpose either of drying his hands or rubbing his eyes, or for other reasons, and it is a legitimate action not understood or interpreted by the umpire as intended to deceive a base-runner, then the umpire shall call "Time."

SEC. 11. If the pitcher, in the act of delivering the ball to the batsman or in throwing to first base, drop the ball, either intentionally or accidentally.

NOTE—With no one on bases, it is not a balk if the pitcher drops the ball while delivering it to the batsman.

SEC. 12. In case a "balk" is called, the ball shall be considered "dead" when announcement is made, and no play can be made until the runner or runners reach the base or bases to which they are entitled.

Professionals are more inclined to try to balk, or half balk, as it is called, than amateurs. Section 3 emphasizes the fact that the pitcher's pivot foot must be in contact with the rubber when he delivers the ball. The other foot may be behind or in front, but not on the side. Section 4 is violated with so much subtlety that it is often hard even for umpires to recognize when the pitcher is facing the batsman. Not only is there a penalty of a called ball against the pitcher if he fails to deliver the ball to the batter within twenty seconds, but if the umpire concludes that he is trying to delay the game he may call a balk, which would score a runner on third base and advance a runner on any other base.

Note Section 7 carefully. If the pitcher takes a legal position on the pitcher's rubber without the ball in his possession, or if he feints to deliver the ball to the batter and is not on the rubber and the ball is not in his possession, it is a balk.

Sections 9, 10, 11 and 12 of Rule 31 are plain and definite. Section 9 refers to the position of the pitcher's hands on the ball. Section 10 refers to the stepping of the pitcher from the rubber. Section 11 refers to the pitcher dropping the ball. If there are runners on the bases and the pitcher drops the ball in the act of delivering it to the batter it is a balk. Section 12 rules that a balk is also a dead ball. This is often overlooked and is important.

Ball Dead Not in Play.

RULE The ball is dead and not in play:

32

- (1) If a pitched ball touches any part of the batsman's person or clothing while the batsman is standing in his position, whether the ball is struck at or not;
- (2) If a balk is committed;
- (3) In case of an illegally batted ball;
- (4) In case of a foul hit not legally caught;
- (5) In case of interference with the fielder or batsman;
- (6) In case a fair hit ball strikes a base-runner or umpire before touching a fielder;
- (7) In case the ball is handled by a spectator as set forth in Rule 33.

In all of the foregoing cases the ball shall not be considered in play until it be held by the pitcher standing in his position and the umpire shall have called "Play."

These "automatic" cases of time should be called by the umpire to avoid confusion and to them can be added such cases as the batter calls for time when there is a substitution being made on the bases one base runner for another. Changing of the ball in play for the alternate ball, in fact, any time the umpire stops play for any legitimate reason he should call time and in a manner that players and spectators will know it.

Ball is dead in American League when fielder falls into dugout, bench or stand at any point after making catch of fly ball. However, if fielder steps into dugout but does not fall down, the ball remains in play.

Balls Handled by Spectators.

RULE

33

A batted or thrown ball touched, stopped or handled by a person not engaged in the game is dead and not in play.

If a fair hit, the batsman making the hit shall be entitled to two bases and each base-runner shall be entitled to advance two bases. If a thrown ball, each base-runner shall be entitled to advance in accordance with Section 2 of Rule 65.

If a batter hits a ball that is touched by a spectator, the batter and all the runners advance two bases, the batter goes to second, the runner, who was on first at the time the pitch was made, moves to third and the runner, who was on second, scores. It all takes place with the position of the runners at time the pitch was made.

Ball is dead and runners advance two bases when ball is thrown by infielder.

On thrown balls by outfielder the situation is different. For example, with men on first and second, batter singles to right field. Fielder juggles ball, man on second scores and man on first going to third, draws a wild throw that hits spectator behind third base and ball rebounds on the playing field. Ball is dead. Umpires direct runners where to go, according to positions of runners when throw was made. If runner, who was on first, had passed second base at time throw was made, he is allowed to score. The batter is allowed to go to third, if umpires decide he passed first base at time throw was made.

THE RULES FOR BATSMEN.

The Batsman's Position.

RULE 34 Each player of the team at bat shall become the batsman and must take his position within the batsman's lines (as defined in Rule 8) in the order that his name appears in his team's batting order.

The batting list of a team may be arranged as its captain desires. It is not necessary that the captain shall be first at bat. Nor is it necessary that there shall be any fixed order, as outfielders, infielders and then the catcher and pitcher. Schoolboys of a generation ago thought a batting order arranged as so outlined to be orthodox. In some sections it has come to be a practice, but it is only by heritage and not authority.

The Order of Batting.

RULE 35 The batting order of each team must be on the score card and must be delivered before the game by its manager or captain to the umpire at the home plate, who shall submit it to the inspection of the manager or captain of the other team. The batting order delivered to the umpire must be followed throughout the game unless a player be substituted for another, in which case the substitute must take the place in the batting order of the retired player.

Major leagues require the manager of home team to deliver his batting order first to the umpire. Then the visiting manager or captain delivers his lineup, after which, for the first time, they can inspect rival lineups.

If the umpire should make a mistake in announcing the pitcher, and his attention is called to the error, he should refer to his batting order and make proper announcement. No one should suffer because of umpire's error in announcing.

The acceptance of the batting orders of the two teams at the plate constitutes an "announcement." Pitchers named in such batting orders are "in the game," and must pitch to the first batter to face him until that first batter has either been retired or reaches first base, except if the pitcher sustains a disability (Section 5, Rule 17).

The First Batsman in an Inning.

RULE 36 After the first inning the first batsman in each inning shall be the batsman whose name follows that of the last man who completed his "time at bat" in the preceding inning.

After the first inning the first batter in each succeeding inning is the player following the man who completed his full time at bat in the inning before. "Time at bat" means a full term at bat. Two strikes, or one, two or three balls, or one strike and three balls, for example, is not a full "time at bat." If a batter has but one strike in the first inning and the third man be put out while he is at bat, he becomes the first batter in the following inning, not having completed his full time at bat in the inning previous. In such case, any balls and strikes called in the preceding inning do not count when he assumes his time at bat in the next inning.

A Fair Hit.

RULE 37 A fair hit is a legally batted ball that settles on fair ground between home and first base, or between home and third base, or that is on or over fair ground when bounding to the outfield past first base or third base, or that touches first base or third base, or that first falls on fair territory on or beyond first base or third base; or that, while on or over fair ground, touches the person of the umpire or a player. A fair fly must be judged according to the relative position of the ball and the foul line, and not as to whether the fielder is on fair or foul ground at the time he touches the ball.

A batted ball that touches first base or third base is a fair hit even if it later bounds foul.

A Foul Hit.

RULE 38 A foul hit is a legally batted ball that settles on foul territory between home and first base or home and third base, or that bounds past first or third base on or over foul territory, or that falls on foul territory beyond first or third base, or, while on or over foul ground, touches the person of the umpire or a player, or any object foreign to the natural ground. A foul fly must be judged according to the relative position of the ball and the foul line, and not as to whether the fielder is on foul or fair ground at the time he touches the ball.

Any legally batted ball that settles on foul ground is a foul hit, except that a ground hit, should it roll from foul to fair territory between first and home or third and home, and remain there, is a fair hit.

A ground hit that first strikes fair territory and rolls outside of the foul line between first and home, or third and home, is a foul hit if the ball remains outside. As also is a batted ball that hits the pitching rubber and bounds into foul territory before passing first or third base, without touching a fielder.

Any legally batted ball that falls on foul territory beyond first base, or third base, or that touches the person of a player or an umpire on foul ground, is a foul hit.

Note again the phrase, "while on or over foul ground, touches the person of the umpire or player." This does not mean that a ball is fair if it is over foul ground and the player is on fair ground. Many disputes arise over this point.

A Foul Tip

RULE 39 A foul tip is a ball batted by the batsman while standing within the lines of his position, that goes sharp and direct from the bat to the catcher's hands and is legally caught.

A foul tip is a ball shooting off the bat to the catcher. The first two of such foul tips count as strikes even if not caught by catcher, in which case base runners may not advance. Any foul tip caught by the catcher constitutes a strike and ball is in play. Runners cannot advance, nor can a third strike be called, if the ball strikes the body or equipment of the catcher before he makes the catch.

A Bunt Hit.

RULE 40 A bunt hit is a legally batted ball, not swung at, but met with the bat and tapped slowly within the infield by the batsman. If the attempt to bunt result in a foul not legally caught, a strike shall be called by the umpire.

A bunt hit is legally tapping the ball slowly within the infield by the batsman. If a foul result which is not legally caught, the batsman is charged with a strike, whether it be the first, second or third strike. So proficient have batters become that tapping the ball has been literally changed to pushing or "dragging" the ball. Speed, a quick start, and the ball lacking force as it rolls, are factors that combine for success.

Any bunt rolling foul is a strike. If the ball twists, rolls or bounds outside the foul line and the baseman traps it at once, the batsman is charged with the first, second or third strike, as the case may be. The moment that a fielder touches a bunted ball on foul ground it becomes a foul. If the ball merely grazes the tip of his finger it becomes foul.

The batsman is out on a bunt that rolls foul if the attempted bunt be made on the third strike. It is not just a plain foul, as some appear to think, but a bona fide strike, and must be ruled upon and treated as such.

Balls Batted Outside the Playing Field.

RULE 41 SECTION 1. When a batted ball passes outside the playing field the umpire shall decide it fair or foul according to where it leaves the playing field.

This section, modified in 1931, gives justice to the batter. A batted ball must be decided fair or foul at the exact point at which it leaves the playing field.

SEC. 2. A fair batted fly ball that goes over the fence or into a stand shall entitle the batsman to a home run unless it should pass out of the ground or into a stand at a less distance than two hundred and fifty (250) feet from the home base, in which case the batsman shall be entitled to two bases only. In either event the batsman must touch the bases in regular order. The point at which a fence or stand is less than 250 feet from the home base shall be plainly indicated by a white or black sign or mark for the umpire's guidance.

If there were a ground rule that a home run could be batted into a stand or over the fence at a distance less than 250 feet from the home plate it could be observed, but such a "home run" is about like a "squit" as compared with a cannon cracker. It is not a standard home run and leagues should not attempt it.

Note that the batsman must circle the bases in order, even if a home run is automatically such a run. If a ball game is being played upon an improvised field, or upon a field that is limited in area and the 250-foot rule for a home run is in effect, every effort should be made to designate the exact spot at which the 250-foot limit is located; a marking flag will do if nothing better is available. The staff of the flag, of course, must be fixed exactly on the line extending from home plate to the field limit.

SEC. 3. A fair hit ball that strikes the ground and bounds into a stand or over a fence shall be a two-base hit.

A fair hit ball that strikes the ground and bounds over the fence or into a stand on fair or foul territory shall be a two-base hit. If a fielder attempting to make a catch of a fair fly ball deflects it into a stand in foul territory, it shall be a two-base hit. However, should he deflect such a fair fly ball into a stand on fair territory or over the fence, it shall be considered a home run.

Strikes

RULE A strike is:

42 SECTION 1. A pitched ball struck at by the batsman without its touching his bat.

SEC. 2. A fair ball legally delivered by the pitcher at which the batsman does not strike.

SEC. 3. A foul ball not caught on the fly unless the batsman has two strikes.

SEC. 4. An attempt to bunt which results in a foul not legally caught.

SEC. 5. A pitched ball at which the batsman strikes but misses and which touches any part of his person.

SEC. 6. A foul tip, held by the catcher, while standing within the lines of his position.

When the batsman strikes at a pitched ball and misses it, a strike is called.

When the batsman fails to strike at a pitched ball which passes over the plate at the legal height, between knees and shoulder, a strike is called.

With less than two strikes on the batter, any foul tip, whether caught by the catcher, or not, is a strike. After two strikes, however, a foul tip must be held by the catcher to become the third strike. If it is not held by the catcher it is just a foul.

A foul hit, whether a fly or a ground hit, bounding to any part of foul ground, is a strike unless the batter has two strikes. After two strikes the batter may foul the ball without penalty unless he bunts or is caught out on a foul fly or on a foul tip.

All bunts rolling foul are strikes. If the batsman strikes at the ball and misses it but the ball hits him it is a strike.

The third strike on the batsman offers many variations.

If with two strikes, a foul tip hits the umpire direct and is caught on the fly by a fielder before touching the ground, the batsman is NOT out. The ball becomes dead and is regarded merely as a foul ball. The same is true if a direct foul tip lodges in the umpire's mask or any other part of his equipment.

If a third strike called or swung at and missed (not a foul tip) passes the catcher and hits the umpire direct, the ball is in play. If such a ball rebounds from the umpire and is caught on the fly before touching the ground, the batsman is not out, but the ball remains in play and the batsman may be retired by being touched with the ball or throwing it to first ahead of the runner.

If a third strike (not a foul tip) is called or swung at and missed and lodges in the umpire's mask or other part of his equipment, the ball becomes dead. However, the batsman shall be granted first base and other runners on the bases at the time will be allowed to advance one base.

An Illegally Batted Ball.

RULE 43 An illegally batted ball is a ball batted by the batsman when either or both of his feet are upon the ground outside of the lines of the batsman's position.

If the batsman, with either of his feet out of the batsman's box, hits the ball in any way it is an illegally batted ball, and the batsman is out.

Frequently illegally batted balls escape the attention of the umpire, although it is not his fault. The batter in recent years tends to keep in motion while at bat and often does not set himself with a foot brace, depending upon a free swing to meet the ball. The penalty for an illegally batted ball is "out."

This is strictly up to judgment of umpire and no definite lines can be drawn, as nine times out of ten, one of the batter's feet is out of the box, when he has completed his follow through. Provided both feet were in the box at the start of the swing, umpires do not feel that the follow through that carried one foot out of the box has resulted from an effort to cheat the rule and seldom give it consideration. However, if the swing is made with both feet out of the box, he must always be called out.

When Batsman is Out.

RULE The Batsman is Out:

44 SECTION 1. If he fail to take his position at the bat in the turn in which his name appears in the batting order.

But if the error be discovered the proper batsman may replace the man at bat before the latter becomes a base-runner, in which case the balls and strikes must be counted in the time-at-bat of the proper batsman.

Only the proper batsman shall be declared out, and no runs shall be scored or bases run because of any act of the improper batsman.

This rule shall not be enforced unless the error be discovered and the out be declared before the ball be delivered to the batsman next facing the pitcher.

Should the batsman declared out under this section be the third

out and his team be thereby put out, the proper batsman in the next inning shall be the player who would have come to bat had the players been put out by ordinary play in the preceding inning.

Batting out of order plays will be less confusing if one remembers these very fundamental facts. It is an appeal play, or no action is taken. The appeal must be made before a ball is pitched to the next batsman. If and when the umpire makes a ruling, the proper batsman is always the man called out. No runners can advance on any act of an improper batsman that is properly discovered, an appeal made and ruled on. Runners return to their original bases and the next batter is the man who followed the proper batter in the regular lineup. Should the team at bat discover that the batsman is hitting improperly, it is possible to remove him and substitute the proper hitter, who shall take the ball and strike count that was on the improper batsman when the mistake was discovered. The time to appeal for a ruling on an improper batter is either after he is retired or reaches base, and then before a ball is pitched to the next hitter.

SEC. 2. If he fail to take his position within one minute after the umpire has called for the batsman.

Section 2 is not enforced to the limit. As a matter of fact there is little reason to enforce it. Most players are too anxious to bat. Its purpose is to give the umpire authority to act if the game is purposely delayed.

The batsman is out if a foul fly, other than a foul tip, is caught by a fielder, provided latter does not use his hat, cap, protector, or any illegal contrivances to catch the ball, and provided the ball does not strike some object other than a fielder before being caught. The batter is never out if a foul tip lodges between the catcher's chest protector and the body. Note that the ball must be caught and not "momentarily held."

If a fielder stands on fair territory and reaches over into foul territory to attempt to catch a fly and deflects the ball into fair ground, his position does not make the hit a fair ball. The reverse also holds true in regard to a player standing on foul ground and reaching after a fair batted ball.

SEC. 3. If he make a foul hit other than a foul tip as defined in Rule 39, and the ball be caught by a fielder before touching the ground; provided, it be not caught in a fielder's hat, cap, protector, pocket or other part of his uniform, or strike some object other than a fielder before being caught, any of which would be an illegally caught ball.

SEC. 4. If he bat the ball illegally, as defined in Rule 43.

SEC. 5. If he attempt to hinder the catcher from fielding or throwing the ball by stepping outside the lines of the batsman's position, or in any way obstruct or interfere with that player, except that if a base-runner attempting to steal is put out the batsman shall not be out; except, also, that the batsman shall not be out under this section if the base-runner be declared out according to Section 15 of Rule 49.

Section 5 provides two ways for the punishment of interference, but it does not provide that two can be put out on one play, as some seem to think.

SEC. 6. If, while first base be occupied by a base-runner, the third strike be called on him by the umpire, unless two men are already out.

Note Section 6. If the umpire calls a third strike with first base occupied, and there are not two men out, the batter is out whether the catcher holds the third strike or not. An important game was once lost in the big leagues because the runner on first base did not know this rule. He thought that he was forced when the third strike was called against the batter and the catcher dropped the ball. He did not need to leave first and was an easy out when he tried to reach second. This rule was adopted to prevent the catcher from dropping the ball purposely to insure a double play.

SEC. 7. If, while attempting a third strike, the ball touch any part of the batsman's person, in which case base-runners occupying bases shall not advance as prescribed in Rule 48, Section 5.

When the third strike hits the batter, the ball is dead and base-runners are not permitted to advance.

SEC. 8. If, before two are out, while first and second or first, second and third bases are occupied, he hit a fair fly ball, other than a line drive, that can reasonably be caught by an infielder. In such case the umpire shall declare it an infield fly. However, the runners may be off their bases or advance at the risk of the ball being caught, the same as on any other fly ball; but if hit by the ball while standing on base, that base-runner shall not be called out, but the ball is dead and the batsman shall be called out; and if the base-runner be hit while off base, both that base-runner and the batsman shall be called out and the ball is dead. Provided, that, with first and second bases occupied, or first, second and third bases occupied, with less than two out, any attempt to bunt which results in a fair fly ball shall not be regarded as an infield fly.

Section 8 applies to the infield fly. Note, first of all, that it must be a "fair" fly. Then note that runners may be off their bases or advance at the risk of the fly being caught, same as on any fly ball. Also note that under the provisions of this section an attempt to bunt which results in a fair fly ball is not to be considered as an infield fly. If the umpire thinks an infield fly has been batted he declares it an "infield fly."

Many have a mistaken impression that the infield fly is operative with a runner on first only, or runners on first and third bases. It is not. The rule is made to prevent a player from trapping the ball and starting a double play with runners on first and second, or runners on first, second and third.

Do not hurry the calling of an infield fly. Be sure that it is going to land in fair territory. This applies particularly if there is a wind blowing. But if you have called infield fly and the ball does land in foul territory reverse your decision as a foul ball cannot be an infield fly under any conditions.

SEC. 9. If the third strike be called in accordance with Sections 4 or 5 of Rule 42.

Section 9 is self-explanatory. The batsman is out on a bunt that rolls foul or flies foul and settles on foul ground if the attempted bunt is made on the third strike. The batsman is out if, when it is the third strike, the batsman strikes at the ball and misses it, but is hit by the ball.

SEC. 10. If he steps from one batsman's box to the other while the pitcher is in his position ready to pitch.

Section 10 distinctly says, "while the pitcher is in his position ready to pitch." The batter may change from one box to the other when the pitcher is not in his position, the object of the rule being to prevent the batter from disconcerting the pitcher and perhaps causing him to balk.

This Rule is one of the most important of any and calls for plenty of study and thought to be understood as it should be. The explanations are very clear and cover each section in good shape. In this rule it is wise to take one section at a time, and the notes attached to each section, to get what you are supposed to get out of it.

BASE-RUNNING RULES.

Legal Order of Bases.

RULE 45 SECTION 1. The base-runner must touch each base in legal order, viz., First, Second, Third and Home Bases; and when obliged to return while the ball is in play, must retouch the base or bases in reverse order. He can only acquire the right to a base by touching it, before having been put out, and shall then be entitled to hold such base until he has legally touched the next base in order, or has been legally forced to vacate it for a succeeding base-runner.

After the batsman makes a fair hit in which he is not put out he must touch first, second and third bases and then the home plate in regular succession in order to score a run.

SEC. 2. A base-runner having acquired legal title to a base cannot run bases in reverse order for the purpose either of confusing the fielders or making a travesty of the game. A runner violating this rule is out if touched with the ball, or the ball held on the base said runner was entitled to hold.

Section 2 is to prevent a runner from reversing the bases, either for the purpose of confusing the fielders or to make the game look absurd. If a runner has left first base and has legally touched second base and has a legal claim to second base, he may not deliberately run the reverse way back to first base and expect to escape the penalty of being put out. If he violates the rule as it now reads he is out if he is touched with the ball or the ball is held on the base that the runner was entitled to hold.

SEC. 3. In case a runner is being run down between bases, and the following runner occupies the same base the first runner has left, the second man cannot be put out while holding said base. If the first runner, however, returns safely to the base he left, and both runners are then occupying the same base, the second runner is the man out, if touched with the ball.

The base always belongs to the original occupant unless forced to advance, when the completion of a play results in two runners on the same base. The runner who advances to the base in question is the man who is out when touched with the ball. If he can return to the base he vacated without being touched, he has the right to do so. A base runner who advances to a base, another runner has left is immune from being put out while on that base. It is when the original occupant returns that he loses his immunity.

SEC. 4. The failure of a preceding runner to touch a base (and who is declared out therefor) shall not affect the status of a succeeding runner who touches each base in proper style; except that, after two are out, a succeeding runner cannot score a run when a preceding runner is declared out for failing to touch a base as provided in Rule 49, Sections 10 and 13. This exception also applies to a batsman who hits the ball out of the playing field for an apparent home run.

With less than two out, the failure of a preceding runner to touch a base shall in no way affect the status of succeeding base runners who properly touch the bases. This rule kills off all argument that a runner who touches a base that a preceding runner misses, technically passes said runner and is out for so doing. No longer is there any argument for such a contention under the present wording.

When the Batsman Becomes a Base-Runner.

RULE The Batsman Becomes a Base-Runner:

46

SECTION 1. Instantly after he makes a fair hit.

SEC. 2. Instantly after "Four Balls" have been called by the umpire.

SEC. 3. Instantly after "Three Strikes" have been declared by the umpire.

SEC. 4. If, without making any attempt to strike at the ball, his person or clothing be hit by a pitched ball unless, in the opinion of the umpire, he plainly makes no effort to get out of the way of the pitched ball, in which case the umpire shall call a strike or a ball in accordance with Rules 28 and 29.

SEC. 5. If the catcher interferes with him, unless he makes a safe hit.

SEC. 6. If a fair hit ball strike the person or clothing of the umpire or a base-runner on fair ground, subject to the provisions of Section 8 of Rule 44.

The batsman should start to first base instantly after making a fair hit, or when four balls have been called, or when three strikes have been declared by the umpire, as a precaution for himself.

That part of Section 4 beginning "unless, in the opinion," etc., means that if the pitcher tosses a slow ball and the batter deliberately permits the ball to hit him, the umpire may use his judgment and not give the batter first base by calling the pitch a strike or a ball.

The batsman is entitled to go to first base without being put out if the catcher interferes with him, but if the batsman makes a safe hit he may run as many bases as the hit will permit.

The batsman is entitled to first base, without being put out, if before touching a fielder a fair hit ball touches either the person or clothing of an umpire or a base-runner who is on fair ground. However, if a runner who is standing on a base is struck by a fair batted ball when the umpire calls an infield fly, then the batsman and not the runner is declared out.

Entitled to Bases.

RULE 47 The base-runner shall be entitled, without liability to be put out, to advance one base, except where more are specified, in the following cases:

SECTION 1. If, while the batsman, he becomes a base-runner by reason of "four balls," or for being hit by a pitched ball, or for being interfered with by the catcher in striking at a pitched ball, or if a fair hit ball strike the person or clothing of the umpire or a base-runner on fair ground before touching a fielder. Provided, that if a fair hit ball strike the umpire after having passed a fielder other than the pitcher or having been touched by a fielder (including the pitcher), the ball shall be considered in play. Also, if a fair hit ball strike the umpire on foul ground, the ball shall be in play.

If the ball strike the umpire on fair ground after having passed a fielder, other than pitcher, or having been touched by a fielder, including pitcher, the base-runner may continue to advance and the ball is in play as if an error had been made, but the runner takes the usual risk of advancing on a misplay. If a fair hit ball strike the umpire while the latter is on foul ground the ball is in play, the position of the umpire having no effect on the ball.

"Passing a fielder" does not mean an ordinary batted ball that bounds past the pitcher.

SEC. 2. If the umpire awards to a succeeding batsman a base on four balls, or for being hit by a pitched ball, or being interfered with by the catcher in striking at a pitched ball and the base-runner be thereby forced to vacate the base held by him.

Whenever the umpire sends the batsman to first base after four balls have been called, or for being hit by a pitched ball, or because he has been interfered with by the catcher, all runners on bases immediately ahead of him may advance a base each without being put out. A runner on second or third base with first base unoccupied would not be considered a runner immediately ahead.

SEC. 3. If the umpire call a "Balk."

Every base-runner advances one base when the umpire calls a balk. The batter does not have the right to go to first base on a balk, because a balk does not qualify him as a base-runner.

SEC. 4. If he be prevented from making a base by the obstruction of a fielder (including catcher), except when a fielder is trying to field a batted ball unless the latter has the ball in his hand ready to touch the base-runner. The ball is still in play so far as other base-runners are concerned.

A fielder may not obstruct a runner, although the fielder has right of way if he is trying to field a batted ball. If the fielder has the ball in hand to touch a runner the latter is not entitled to base.

SEC. 5. If the fielder stop or catch a batted ball or a thrown ball with his hat, cap, glove or any part of his uniform, while detached from its proper place on his person, the runner or runners shall be entitled to three bases if a batted ball or to two bases if a thrown ball, and in either case the runner may advance further at his own risk.

The one important feature of this rule is that while the runner or runners shall be entitled to three bases if a fielder stop a fairly batted ball with cap or glove while detached from its proper place and two bases on a thrown ball, that in either case the runner may advance further at his own risk. In many quarters the impression prevails, and wrongly so, that advancement permitted is limited to three bases on a batted ball and two on a thrown ball.

Note also the mere act of throwing cap, glove or part of uniform at ball in itself is not a violation unless the article comes in contact with the ball.

SEC. 6. If a thrown or pitched ball strike the person or clothing of an umpire the ball shall be considered in play and the base-runner or runners shall be entitled to all the bases they can make.

Note carefully that on a thrown or pitched ball which strikes the umpire, runners make all the bases they can.

SEC. 7. If a thrown ball strike a coacher on fou. ground the ball shall be considered in play. Provided, that if in the opinion of the umpire the coacher intentionally interfere with such thrown ball, the runner or runners must return to the last bases touched, and the coacher be penalized by removal from the playing field.

At first sight it might seem to make it worth while to interfere on the part of the coacher because the ball is in play, but when the penalty is noted it will be a very foolish coacher who will not try his best to get out of the way of thrown balls.

SEC. 8. If the catcher interferes with the batsman while a base-runner is attempting to steal a base, the base-runner shall be permitted to advance to that base.

SEC. 9. In event a base-runner is trying to score from third base on a pitched ball or the "squeeze" play, a "balk" and also an "interference" shall be called if the catcher runs out in front of the plate to catch the ball; and the runner shall be allowed to score and the batsman be entitled to first base. In such event the same penalties must be imposed in case the catcher pushes the batsman out of the way or tips his bat.

One of the few double penalties in baseball is in operation when the catcher interferes with the batsman, in making a play at the plate on a runner, either trying to steal home or score on the squeeze play. When such a thing happens, an interference and balk is called. The balk entitles the runner to score, while the interference entitles the batsman to first.

NOTE—Runners are entitled to one base when fielder falls into dugout, bench or stand at any point after making catch of fly ball as ball is dead, according to special ruling, in American League, but if fielder steps into dugout and does not fall down, ball remains in play and base runners can advance at their own peril.

In the National, however, ball is not considered dead, but runners cannot go beyond one base.

Returning to Bases.

RULE 48 The base-runner shall return to his base without liability to be put out:

SECTION 1. If the umpire declare any foul not legally caught.

SEC. 2. If the umpire declare an illegally batted ball.

SEC. 3. If the umpire declare a dead ball, unless it be also the fourth unfair ball and he be thereby forced to take the next base, as provided in Rule 47, Section 2.

SEC. 4. If the person or clothing of the umpire while stationed back of the bat, interfere with the catcher in an attempt to throw.

SEC. 5. If a pitched ball at which the batsman strikes but misses, touch any part of the batsman's person.

SEC. 6. If the umpire be struck by a fair hit ball before touching a fielder; in which case no base shall be run unless necessitated by the batsman becoming a base-runner, and no run shall be scored unless all the bases are occupied.

SEC. 7. If the umpire declare the batsman or a base-runner out for interference; in which case all other base-runners shall return to the last base that was in the judgment of the umpire legally touched at the time of the interference.

SEC. 8. If the coacher intentionally interfere with a thrown ball, as described in Section 7, Rule 47.

In any and all of the foregoing cases the base-runner is not required to touch the intervening bases in returning to the base to which he is legally entitled.

The runner is obliged to go back to the base which he originally held when the ball was batted foul if the ball is not caught. The runner cannot be put out while returning. If a foul is caught on the fly, however, the runner is liable to be "doubled up" if he cannot get back before the caught ball is thrown to the base which he has just left. In the case of an illegally batted ball, the runner must return to the base from which he has advanced, exactly as in the case of a foul hit not caught.

If the umpire gets in the way of the catcher by accident, the runner cannot have the benefit of the mishap to the catcher, but must go back to his original base.

Note in Section 6 that the fair hit must strike the umpire before the ball touches the person of a fielder. There is an explicit provision in this section about running bases and about the scoring of a run.

Note again in Section 7, which emphasizes the fact that if the runner be declared out "for interference," the runners ahead shall return to base.

When Base-Runners are Out.

RULE The Base-Runner is Out:

49 SECTION 1. If, after three strikes have been declared against him while he is the batsman, the third strike ball be not legally caught and he plainly attempts to hinder the catcher from fielding the ball.

Tells the batter very plainly that if he interferes with the catcher when the latter has not caught the third strike, he suffers the penalty of being called out.

SEC. 2 (a) If, having made a fair hit while batsman, such fair hit ball be caught by a fielder before touching the ground or any object other than a fielder; provided, it be not caught in a fielder's hat, cap, protector, pocket or other part of his uniform.

If, before two are out, while first, or first and second, or first, second and third bases are occupied, any player, in the judgment of the umpire, intentionally drops a fly ball or a line drive, the umpire shall immediately rule the ball has been caught.

NOTE—In such cases base-runners are not obliged to "tag up" and may advance at their own risk.

Provides that the umpire shall declare the ball caught if in his judgment a fielder intentionally drops a fly ball or a line drive when runners are on first, first and second, or first, second, and third bases, before two men are out.

SEC. 2 (b) If, after having hit or bunted a ball to fair territory, his bat again hits the ball on or over fair territory and deflects its course. Other base-runners cannot advance.

This means that the batsman is out if his bat hits the ball a second time while it is in fair territory and deflects its course.

SEC. 3. If, when the umpire has declared "Three Strikes" on him while he is the batsman, the third strike ball be caught by a fielder before touching the ground; provided, it be not caught in a fielder's hat, cap, protector, pocket or other part of his uniform, or touch some object other than a fielder before being caught.

In this case "fielder" refers particularly to the catcher. If there is a runner on first base and no one out, or only one out, the catcher does not even have to hold the ball. The batter is out automatically (see Section 6 of Rule 44). It is a "bone" play for a runner who is on first to think he must run when the batter has a third strike called on him and the catcher drops the ball, unless two men are out.

SEC. 4. If, after three strikes or a fair hit, he be touched with the ball in the hand of a fielder before he shall have touched first base.

Says "fielder," because any fielder—pitcher, catcher or first or second baseman—can touch the runner out if possible before the latter gets to first base. In other words, the first baseman does not have a monopoly of putting runners out at first base.

SEC. 5. If, after three strikes or a fair hit, the ball be securely held by a fielder while touching first base with any part of his person before such base-runner touch first base.

Defines the second way of putting runners out at first. If a fielder—meaning any player of side not at bat—with the ball in his possession, touches first base before the runner arrives at the base, the runner is out.

SEC. 6. If, in running the last half of the distance from home base to first base, while the ball is being fielded at first base, he run outside the three-foot lines, as defined in Rule 7; and, in the opinion of the umpire, interferes with the fielder taking the throw at first base; except that he may run outside the three-foot lines to avoid a fielder attempting to field a batted ball.

Often when a batter makes a long hit on which it appears he may go to second base, or third, or home, he runs outside the base path while rounding first base, there are some who instantly shout that he is out "for running out of the line." Note what Section 6 says. The runner is out for running out of line only if the ball is being fielded at first base and he runs out to avoid being put out. It is apparent that the farther he deviates from the base path, the more he is handicapping himself. When a batter hits for a home run the ball is not fielded to first base on the first play, except the runner is presumed to have omitted to touch first base, which is quite another matter from running out of line. There has been added to this section definite information regarding leaving the base line.

SEC. 7. If, in running to any base, he run more than three feet from a direct line between a base and the next one in regular or reverse order to avoid being touched by a ball in the hand of a fielder. But in case a fielder be occupying a base-runner's proper path in attempting to field a batted ball, then the base-runner shall run out of direct line to the next base and behind said fielder and shall not be declared out for so doing.

Holds the runner to the base line to avoid being touched by the ball in the hand of a fielder. On the other hand, if the runner is trying for a long distance hit, the base line rule is not exacted. He may make his turn as best he can so that he shall not cut the bases. The runner never is out if he runs behind a fielder who is trying to field the ball. He may run in front of the fielder; indeed, sometimes it is almost impossible to do otherwise, but he must be careful that he does not interfere with the fielder.

SEC. 8. If he fail to avoid a fielder attempting to field a batted ball, in the manner described in Sections 6 and 7 of this rule, or in any way interferes with a fielder in attempting to field a batted ball, or intentionally interfere with a thrown ball; provided, that if two or more fielders attempt to field a batted ball, and the base-runner come in contact with one or more of them, the umpire shall determine which fielder is entitled to the benefit of this rule, and shall not decide the base-runner out for coming in contact with a fielder other than the one the umpire determines to be entitled to field such batted ball. If a fair hit ball goes through an infielder, and hits a runner immediately back of him, the umpire must not declare the runner out for being hit by a batted ball. In making such decision the umpire must be convinced that the ball passed through the infield and that no other infielder had the chance to make a play on the ball. If, in the judgment of the umpire, the runner deliberately and intentionally kick such a hit ball, on which the infielder has missed a play, then the runner must be called out for interference.

If the fielders have run into one another the runner is not at fault if he collides with that fielder who, in the opinion of the umpire, had the lesser opportunity to field the ball.

SEC. 9. If at any time while the ball is in play, he be touched by the ball in the hand of a fielder, unless some part of his person be touching the base he is entitled to occupy; provided, however, that the ball be held by the fielder after touching him, unless the base-runner deliberately knock it out of his hand. The ball must be firmly held by the fielder after touching the runner. The ball cannot be juggled, even though the fielder may regain possession of the ball and prevent same from dropping to the ground.

The runner is out at any time when he is touched by the ball in the hand of a fielder, unless the runner is on the base which he is entitled to occupy. The ball, however, must be held by the fielder after he has touched the runner. If the runner deliberately knocks the ball out of the fielder's hands to avoid being put out, he must be declared out. Note that the rule states explicitly that the ball cannot be juggled by the fielder.

SEC. 10. If, when a fair or foul hit ball (other than a foul tip as defined in Rule 39) be legally caught by a fielder, such ball be legally held by a fielder on the base occupied by the base-runner when such ball was batted, or the base-runner be touched with the ball in the hand of a fielder, before he retouch such base after such fair or foul hit ball was so caught; provided, that the base-runner shall not be out in such case, if, after the ball was legally caught, it be delivered to the bat by the pitcher before the fielder hold it on said base, or touch the base-runner out with it; but if the base-runner, in attempting to reach a base, detach it from its fastening before being put out, he shall be declared safe. A base-runner who holds his base on a fly ball shall have the right to advance the moment such fly ball touches the person or uniform of a fielder.

Means that the runner is out if he cannot get back to the base that he originally occupied after a foul or fly catch is made and the ball is thrown to the base ahead of him. For instance, a runner is on second base. The ball is batted so hard and so close to the foul line that the runner is sure it is a safe hit. He starts to run and when he arrives at third base finds that the ball was caught. Then the ball is thrown to second before he can return and is held on the base. That retires the runner. A similar condition prevails at first and third bases. If the runner slides into a base or jumps into it and unloosens it from its fastening, he is safe if he is not forced out or if he has not been touched. He is not compelled to follow the base. The base-runner shall have the right to advance the moment a fly ball touches the person or uniform of any fielder. Whether or not the ball is caught or muffed, he can try for the next base subject to the rules regarding advancing on bases.

SEC. 11. If, when the batsman becomes a base-runner, the first base, or the first and second bases or the first, second and third bases be occupied, any base-runner so occupying a base shall cease to be entitled to hold it, and may be put out at the next base in the same manner as in running to first base, or by being touched with the ball in the hand of a fielder at any time before any base-runner following him in the batting order be put out, unless the umpire should decide the hit of the batsman to be an infield fly according to Section 8 of Rule 44.

Embraces the much misunderstood "force play." No runner can be forced on the base paths except the batsman becomes a base-runner. For instance, with runners on, say, all of the bases, the runner on third suddenly decides to steal home and the runner on second moves up to third and touches it. The runner who had been on third, however, decides that he can not make home safely, and returns to third base. He is legally entitled to do so, while the runner who had come up from second will have to hurry back to that base the best way he can. Many amateurs think that the moment the runner on second touches third base, the runner who was on third becomes "forced" to go to the plate, but he is not. This applies in like manner to runners on first and second, respectively. The runner is always entitled to return to the base he held originally—always with the possibility of being put out by being touched with the ball until that time when the batsman forces all runners immediately preceding him by becoming a base-runner. If there were three runners on bases when that happened, all of them necessarily would have to start. The runner on third base would try to get home, the runner on second would try to get to third, and the runner on first would try to get to second, while the batter would try to beat the ball to first. His play at bat forced everybody, but not until the batter starts a force play is there a force play in baseball. In the event of an infield fly, the umpire is expected to announce "infield fly" or "outfield fly," for no other purpose than to kill the "force." When he says, "batter out," it is an infield fly and the runners may hold their bases in safety.

SEC. 12. If a fair hit ball strike him before touching a fielder, and, in such case, no base shall be run unless necessitated by the batsman becoming a base-runner, but no run shall be scored or any other base-runner be put out until the umpire puts the ball back into play.

The runner is out if he is hit while on fair territory by a batted ball. The ball is dead. That should not be forgotten. The batter takes his base, however.

SEC. 13. If, when advancing bases, or returning to a base, while the ball is in play, he fail to touch the intervening base or bases, if any, in the regular or reverse order, as the case may be, he may be put out by the ball being held by a fielder on any base (including home base) he failed to touch, or by being touched by the ball in the hand of a fielder in the same manner as in running to first base; provided, that the base-runner shall not be out in such case if the ball be delivered to the bat by the pitcher before the fielder hold it on said base or touch the base-runner with it; however, after a fly ball other than a foul tip as defined in Rule 39 be legally caught by a fielder, the base-runner who complies with the provisions of this section can only be retired by the ball being held by a fielder on the base occupied by the runner when such ball was batted, or by being touched by the ball in the hand of the fielder as provided in Section 10 of this rule.

If the runner, in trying for a three-base hit, should fail to touch either first or second base, he is out if the attention of the umpire is called to the play, the ball held on the base, or the runner touched with the ball in the hand of a fielder, and if the umpire saw the omission. In like manner, if the runner in returning to bases—the ball being in play—fail to touch the bases in regular order, if he is called upon to do so because of the play that is being made, he is out, if the attention of the umpire is called to his transgression, if the umpire saw his failure to do so and the proper play is made. If the pitcher has delivered the ball to the batter before the claim is made, the runner may not be called out. It should be noted that the attention of the umpire must be called to the act of a runner having omitted to touch a base and the ball must be held on the missed base or the runner touched by the ball in the hand of a fielder. The umpire is a referee, not a policeman; and questions of fact are submitted to him for decision in his judicial capacity.

SEC. 14. If, when the umpire calls "Play," after the suspension of a game, he fail to return to and touch the base he occupied when "Time" was called before touching the next base; provided, the base-runner shall not be out, in such case, if the ball be delivered to the bat by the pitcher, before the fielder hold it on said base or touch the base-runner with it.

Calling "Play" or "Time" is exactly as calling fair or foul, so far as returning to and touching a base is concerned.

SEC. 15. If, with one out, or none out, and a base-runner on third base, the batsman interfere with a play being made at home plate.

Gives the umpire a right to call the runner out at third base if there is no one out or one out and the batsman interferes with a play that is being made at home plate. It must be thoroughly understood that if the runner is called out, the batter may not be called out also.

SEC. 16. If he pass a preceding base-runner before such runner has been legally put out he shall be declared out immediately.

A base-runner never should be foolish enough to pass a preceding base-runner. This seems like an unnecessary warning, but there have been many instances where base-runners have done so, being ignorant of the rule against it.

SEC. 17. If, in the judgment of the umpire, the coacher at third base by touching or holding the runner physically assists him in returning to or leaving third base. The runner, however, should not be declared out if no play is being made on him.

The wording of the rule makes it very plain when the runner is and is not out.

SEC. 18. The base-runner in running to first base may overrun or overslide said base after touching it in passing without incurring liability to be put out for being off said base, provided he return at once and retouch the base, after which he may be put out as at any other base. If, after overrunning first base, he attempt to run to second base, before returning to first base, he shall forfeit such exemption from liability to be put out.

When the runner goes to first base, after he has finished being a batter, he may overrun or overslide the base as far as he wishes and turn either to the right or to the left, but if he should make an apparent effort to go to second base, when he thus overruns first base, he loses his right to return to first base without exemption from being put out.

SEC. 19. If, while third base is occupied, the coacher stationed near that base shall run in the direction of home base on or near the base line while a fielder is making or trying to make a play on a batted ball not caught on the fly, or on a thrown ball, or a fly ball, and thereby draws a throw to home base, the base-runner entitled to third base shall be declared out by the umpire for the coacher's interference with and prevention of the legitimate play.

Warns the coacher at third not to try to fool the players of the team in the field into making a false throw to head off an apparent runner trying to score. Before the rule was adopted there were some players who made a specialty of this unsportsmanlike practice.

SEC. 20. If one or more members of the team at bat stand or collect at or around a base for which a base-runner is trying, thereby confusing the team in the field and adding to the difficulty of making such play, or if a batsman or base-runner who has just been retired obstructs or interferes with any following play being made on a base-runner, the base-runner shall be declared out for the interference of his team-mate or team-mates.

This rule very plainly tells the players of the side at bat to keep away from the bases unless they belong there. If a player who has been put out obstructs or interferes with any following play on a base-runner his team-mate may be called out.

This Rule 49 ranks with 44 in importance and is not to be passed over carelessly and is entitled to a full-time study period itself.

A fielder in making a catch must hold the ball after making the catch as there is no more momentarily held rule in effect. If the fielder drops the ball in a collision with another fielder or crashes into a wall or fence he must still hold the ball to make catch legal.

If he falls down after catch he must come up with the ball. It is a catch if, after making a catch, the fielder in the act of throwing the ball should drop it and this is a judgment play for the umpire.

An intentionally dropped fly ball should not be confounded with an infield fly.

An intentionally dropped fly applies to any fair fly ball not called an infield fly by the umpire. A runner is not required to tag up on an intentionally dropped fly ball. On a fly ball coming under the infield fly rule, the runners are obliged to tag up only if the ball is caught.

Base runner is out if in running to first base after hit or fairly bunted ball, his bat, either in his possession or free from him, again hits the ball on fair territory and deflects its course; this is an interference, no bases can be run and the batter is out.

The ball is in play if the base runner, after fair hit or bunt, drop or throw his bat (not considered an interference by the umpire) and the ball rolls up to and hits bat lying on fair ground.

If the batsman while in his box hits a sharp rebounding ball that strikes him or his bat it is a foul ball.

When Umpire Shall Declare an Out.

RULE 50 The umpire shall declare the batsman or base-runner out, without waiting for an appeal for such decision, in all cases where such player be put out in accordance with any of these rules, except Section 1 of Rule 44 and Sections 10, 13 and 18 of Rule 49.

An appeal must be made to the umpire when a runner "cuts a base," either in trying for a long hit or in returning to the base that he held originally. The umpire may see the failure to touch a base, but he must not rule on it unless players of the team in the field have been as observant as he and ask for a ruling. Likewise, if a runner turns toward second base, after he has passed first base, the attention of the umpire must be called to it by an opposing player before the runner is declared out. There are times when the umpire does not observe the runner omitting to touch a base. If a player of the opposing side asks for the ruling, it is not in the province of the umpire to declare the runner out if the umpire failed to see the runner miss the base. If a player fails to return to base after a fly catch the umpire must not volunteer a decision. The team in the field must make an appeal to him.

Coaching Rules.

RULE 51 A coacher may address words of assistance and direction to the base-runners or to the batsman. He shall not, nor shall any player or manager, by words or signs, incite or try to incite the spectators to demonstrations, nor use language which will in any manner refer to or reflect upon a player of the opposite club, the umpire or the spectators. Not more than two coaches, who must be in the uniform of the team at bat, shall be allowed to occupy the space between the players' and the coaches' lines, one near first and the other near third base, to coach base-runners. If there be more than the legal number of coaches or this rule be violated in any respect the umpire must order the illegal coacher or coaches to the bench, and if his order be not obeyed within one minute, the offender or offenders shall be debarred from further participation in the game, and shall leave the playing field forthwith.

THE SCORING OF RUNS.

RULE 52 One run shall be scored every time a base-runner, after having legally touched the first three bases, shall legally touch the home base before three men are put out; provided, however, that if he reach home on or during a play in which the third man be forced out or be put out before reaching first base, a run shall not count; also, if third out is made by preceding runner failing to touch a base a run shall not count.

The part of Rule 52, which states that no run can score on a play in which the third man be out before reaching first base, can produce a very unusual situation, which hardly seems fair, yet is entirely in keeping with the strict interpretation of the rule. For example: A is on second and B is on first and one man out. The batsman hits safely, the runner A from second easily crossing the plate on the drive. The runner B originally on first tries to score but is thrown out at the plate in a close play for the second out. The batsman reaches third base on his hit. However, he fails to touch first base en route. The ball is thrown to the first basemen, who touches the base and appeals to the umpire for a ruling. The umpire calls the batsman who reaches third on the hit, out for having missed first base. Since the batter who hit the ball fails to touch first base he never became the occupant of that bag. When the ball is thrown to that base, an appeal made and an out declared, it makes the third out, in which the batsman fails to reach first base. No runs can score on such a happening, hence it is necessary to void the run that was apparently scored by the runner A, originally on second, who crossed the plate at a time when only one man was out.

When a preceding runner scores on a play in which he fails to touch

one of the bases, with none or one out, it shall not affect the status of succeeding runners who may have scored on the same play. However, if two are out at the time, and a preceding runner fails to touch a base for the third out, the runs of any succeeding players who cross the plate on the same play are voided.

Example Number 1—There are runners on first and second and one out. Batsman hits a home run inside the park. Runner on second fails to touch third base on his way to the plate. Ball is thrown to that base and he is declared out. Runner originally on first and batter who hit the home run, legally, score on the play.

Example No. 2—There are runners on first and second and two out. Batsman hits home run inside the park. All three runners cross the plate. Runner on second fails to touch third en route. He is called out on appeal, for the third out of the inning. In this case, the other two runs are voided.

The proper thing to do when a base runner misses home plate in the scoring of a run, always is confusing all around. If the player either is running or sliding misses the plate and isn't touched by the catcher, he has a perfect right to try to regain the plate before being touched. However, if he misses the plate and continues on his way to the bench, the fielder with the ball can touch the plate and appeal for a ruling and the runner must be called out. If the runner after missing the plate remains four or five feet away from it, and the catcher makes an effort to touch him, only to have the player continue to run in foul territory, the umpire should immediately call him out. This takes care of the three situations that can arise from missing home plate.

Definition of a Force Play.

A force-out can be made only when a base-runner legally loses the right to the base he occupies by reason of the batsman becoming a base-runner, and he is thereby forced to advance.

Again the "force-out" is brought plainly to attention. A run cannot be scored if the third man out is forced out or is put out before he reaches first base. For instance, three runners are on bases and the batter hits a slow grounder to the shortstop. Before he gets the ball the runner on third, who had a good start toward home, is quite up to the plate, but the runner who was on first is slow and the shortstop throws him out before he is able to make second base. The run does not count. The force play does not necessarily have to be made at third base.

If there is a runner on third and the batter hits the ball to the pitcher, who fumbles it, and the third baseman recovers it and throws the batter out at first base, and it is the third out, a run does not score even if the runner on third was over home plate before the ball got to first base. On the other hand, if the third out should be made at second base, and not on a force play, and the runner on third should have scored before the put-out was made, the run does count. Note carefully in this rule that a third-man-out force play prevents a run from scoring, and that if the batter is the third out before reaching first base a run cannot score.

Rule 52 is very important as it covers the forced play situation which causes so much confusion as to whether or not runs do or do not score but is fully covered in the notes.

UMPIRES AND THEIR DUTIES.

Power to Enforce Decisions.

RULE 53 The umpires are the representatives of the league and as such are authorized and required to enforce each section of this code. They shall have the power to order a player, coach, trainer, captain or manager to do or omit to do any act which in their judgment is necessary to give force and effect to one or all of these rules, and to inflict penalties for violations of the rules as hereinafter prescribed. In order to define their respective duties, the umpire judging balls and strikes shall be designated as the "Umpire-in-Chief"; the umpire judging base decisions as the "Field Umpire."

Umpires in amateur games have equally as much authority as those in professional games except that fines are not imposed in amateur games.

The umpire is supposed to have full control of game at all times. To do his work in a business-like manner and not to indulge other than his duties call for in conversation with players or spectators. If asked a question in the proper manner reply the same way and go about your business. Hustle and keep your game going as it should and you will be kept busy, and HUSTLE at all times.

Make your decisions in a clear-cut, decisive manner leaving no doubt in the minds of the players and spectators as to your being positive you are right. Do not hurry them nor on the other hand hesitate and give the impression that there might be some doubt in your mind as to whether or not you had the play right. Always be in the proper position to see the play as it really occurs as position is 50 per cent of umpiring. You cannot call a play properly without a proper view of same. Take nothing for granted in baseball. Be sure that play is completed and then call it and then move away.

Refrain from sarcasm to players, spectators or club officials at all times. Always be courteous and as the league representative uphold the dignity of that office. Again we say, HUSTLE.

Carry a rule book and do not hesitate to use it if at any time you are in doubt about the proper interpretation of a rule. GET IT RIGHT, that's the idea.

The Umpire-in-Chief.

RULE 54 SECTION 1. The Umpire-in-Chief shall take position back of the catcher; he shall have full charge of and be responsible for the proper conduct of the game. With exception of the decisions to be made by the Field Umpire, as described in Rule 55, the Umpire-in-Chief shall render all the decisions that ordinarily would devolve upon a single umpire, and which are prescribed for "The Umpire" in these Playing Rules.

SEC. 2. He shall call and count balls and strikes, shall call fair and foul hits (including a foul tip), and shall make all decisions on the batsman.

SEC. 3. He shall render base decisions in the following instances: (1) If the ball is hit fair, with a runner on first, he must go to third base to take a possible decision; (2) with more than one base occupied, he shall, on appeal, decide whether or not a runner on third leaves that base before a fly ball is caught; (3) in case of a runner being caught between third and home, when more than one base is occupied, he shall make the decision on the runner nearest the home plate.

Note the words, "on appeal," in clause 2 of foregoing section.

Section 3 should be well studied by the umpire in order that he may learn where to place himself when there are runners on the bases.

SEC. 4. The Umpire-in-Chief alone shall have authority to declare a game forfeited.

The Field Umpire.

RULE 55 SECTION 1. The Field Umpires shall take such positions on the playing field as in their judgment are best suited for the rendering of base decisions. They shall render all decisions at first base and second base, and all decisions at third base except those to be made by the Umpire-in-Chief in accordance with Section 3, Rule 54. They shall also have equal authority with the Umpire-in-Chief in the calling of "balks" on the pitcher, and in enforcing Section 4, Rule 14, and Section 2, Rule 27, prohibiting the use of foreign substance on the ball and prohibiting "freak" deliveries.

SEC. 2. They shall aid the Umpire-in-Chief in every manner in enforcing the rules of the game and, with the exception of declaring a forfeiture, shall have equal authority with the Umpire-in-Chief in fining or removing from the game players who violate these rules.

The Field Umpire may not forfeit a game, but he may remove a player who does not observe the rules. He has authority to rule on balks and "freak" deliveries.

Umpires should not stop, catch or touch the ball at any time unless they are positive that there are three out or that the ball is not in play. Let the players do the playing of the game and to just handle the ball when you have is the proper way to avoid trouble from this source.

No Appeal From Decisions Based on Umpire's Judgment.

RULE 56 There shall be no appeal from any decision of any umpire on the ground that he was not correct in his conclusion as to whether a batted ball was fair or foul, a base-runner safe or out, a pitched ball a strike or a ball, or on any other play involving accuracy of judgment, and no decision rendered by him shall be reversed, except that he be convinced that it is in violation of one of these rules. The manager or captain only shall have the right to protest against a decision and seek its reversal on a claim that it is in conflict with a section of these rules. In case the manager or captain does seek a reversal of a decision based solely on a point of rules, the umpire making the decision shall, if he is in doubt, ask his associate for information before acting on the manager's or captain's appeal. Under no circumstances shall an umpire criticize or interfere with a decision unless asked to do so by his associate.

An umpire may not change decisions of other umpire, or umpires. Latter may ask for a conference and then may change a decision if satisfied he is in the wrong. Only the more obtuse decline to admit mistakes. No manager or captain may protest a decision of the umpire where it is simply a matter of judgment on the part of the latter. Many do protest, and that practice is what leads to obnoxious and annoying delay brought about in direct violation of the rule. Protests on balls and strikes are absurd, although the Umpire-in-Chief not infrequently calls a ball or a strike which seems not to have been one. However, his position for judgment is far better than that of any player except the catcher, and of any spectator, no matter where the latter may be seated. A Field Umpire may decide wrongly in the rapidity of play, and when he thinks he may have done so, has a perfect right to ask the Umpire-in-Chief as to the accuracy of the decision. The camera has shown that umpires, even the best of them, do make incorrect decisions, and has also shown that players, even the best of them, do make foolish objections.

Duties of Single Umpire.

RULE 57 If but one umpire be assigned, his duties and jurisdiction shall extend to all points, and he shall be permitted to take his stand in any part of the field that in his opinion will best enable him to discharge his duties.

He may umpire from behind home plate or from behind the pitcher's plate.

It is a good practice for any and all umpires that can do so to work a few games alone, so that you may get accustomed to seeing everything that takes place on the ball field and thus be able to give your partner aid if he is obliged at any time to ask for it.

Must Not Question Decisions.

RULE 58 Under no circumstances shall a manager, captain or player dispute the accuracy of the umpire's judgment and decision on a play.

If the captain thinks the umpire has erred in interpretation of the rules he may appeal to him, but no other player is privileged to do so. The umpire has the right to remove players for objecting to decisions or behaving in an ungentlemanly manner, and his authority is absolute.

Clubs Can Not Change Umpire.

RULE 59 The umpire can not be changed during a championship game by the consent of the contesting clubs unless the official in charge of the field be incapacitated from service by injury or illness.

Penalties for Violations of the Rules.

RULE 60 SECTION 1. In all cases of violation of these rules by player, coach or manager, the penalty shall be prompt removal of the offender from the game and grounds, followed by a period of such suspension from actual service in the club as the president of the league may fix; except, that in event a pitcher is removed from the game for violation of either Section 4 of Rule 14, or of Section 3 of Rule 27, he shall be automatically suspended for a period of ten days. In the event of removal of player, trainer, coach or manager by either umpire, he shall go direct to the club house and remain there during the progress of the game, or leave the grounds; and a failure to do so will warrant a forfeiture of the game by the Umpire-in-Chief.

American and National league rules provide that a player, coach, trainer or manager removed from the game must leave the field immediately; and after changing to street clothes, he must not take a seat in the stands adjacent to his club's bench; and if he does so, his suspension or fine will be doubled.

In the American League a player or manager put out during the first game of a double-header is also out of the second game. The National League rules, however, permit a player or manager banished from the first game to return for the second game.

SEC. 2. The umpire shall assess a fine of $25.00 against (1) the manager or captain who fails to notify him when one player is substituted for another; (2) against anyone who crosses the field in going to the club house after he has been ordered from the game or bench. (Persons so removed must go around the playing field.) A fine of $5.00 shall be assessed against any player or coach who fails to be seated on his bench within one minute after ordered, to do so by the umpire.

SEC. 3. In cases where players show their disapproval of decisions by yelling from the bench, the umpire shall first give warning. If the yelling continues he shall order the offender or offenders from the bench; but in event the disturbance is continued and the umpire is unable to detect the offenders, then he shall clear the bench of all substitute players; the manager or captain of the team, however, to have the privilege of sending to the club house for such substitutes as are actually needed to replace players in the game.

Umpire to Report Violations of the Rules.

RULE 61 The umpire shall within twelve hours after fining or removing a player from the game, forward to the league president a report of the penalty inflicted and the cause therefor.

League President to Notify Player Fined.

RULE 62 Immediately upon being informed by the umpire that a fine has been imposed upon any manager, captain, coach or player, the league president shall notify the person so fined and also the club of which he is a member; and, in the event of the failure of the person so fined to pay to the secretary of the league the amount of said fine within five days after notice, he shall be debarred from participating in any championship game or from sitting on a players' bench during the progress of a championship game until such fine be paid.

A Flagrant Offense.

RULE 63 When the offense of any person debarred from the game be of a flagrant nature, such as the use of obscene language or an assault upon a player, coach, manager or umpire, the umpire shall within four hours thereafter forward to the president of the league full particulars.

Materials of the Game.

RULE 64 Before the commencement of a game the umpire shall see that the rules governing the playing implements and markings of the field are strictly observed.

American and National league rules provide one umpire is to be at the park and take charge of the field one hour before game time. It is his duty to see that the visiting club is allotted the proper time for batting and fielding practice. During the progress of championship games, all players of the club at bat must be on the bench, except when they have some duty to perform, as coacher, base runner, batsman or succeeding batsman.

Ground Rules.

RULE 65 SECTION 1. In case of spectators overflowing on the playing field, the home manager or captain shall make special ground rules to cover balls batted or thrown into the crowd, provided such rules be acceptable to the manager or captain of the visiting club. If the latter object, the umpires shall have full authority to make and enforce such special rules, and he shall announce their provisions to the spectators.

Means what it says. If the ground rules are not satisfactory to the visiting club, the umpire has authority to make ground rules. Special ground rules to govern various conditions of fields vary in different parks and usually are agreed upon by the two managers with the umpires, before the game.

SEC. 2. In all cases where there are no spectators on the playing field, and where a thrown ball goes into a stand for spectators, or over or through any fence surrounding the playing field, or into the players' bench (whether the ball rebounds into the field or not), or remains in the meshes of a wire screen protecting the spectators, the runner or runners shall be entitled to two bases. When a first throw made by an infielder, the umpire in awarding such bases, shall be governed by the position of the runner or runners at the time the ball was pitched; when the throw is made by an outfielder, or is the result of any following plays or attempted plays, the award shall be governed by the position of the runner or runners at the time the last throw was made.

Means that if a runner has started to steal and an overthrow as stated is made by an infielder, the runner would be privileged to advance two bases from the base he occupied at the time the ball was pitched to the batsman. If a runner has started to steal with the pitch, and gains the next base before an outfielder makes such an overthrow, the runner would be awarded two bases in addition to the base he had advanced after the play began. If an outfielder has made a perfect throw to another player of his team and it is the latter's throw that goes into a stand or dugout, the two bases will be allowed from where the runners were at the time the last throw was started.

American League regulations provide that when a pitched ball sticks in the screen or goes into the stands or dugouts, or is touched or carried from the field by a spectator, the base runners shall be entitled to advance one base and the ball shall be dead.

SEC. 3. The umpire shall also ascertain from the home manager or captain whether any other special ground rules are necessary, and if such be necessary he shall advise the opposing manager or captain of their scope and see that each is duly enforced, provided they do not conflict with any of these rules and are acceptable to the manager or captain of the visiting team.

Official Announcements.

RULE 66 The umpire shall call "Play" at the hour appointed for the beginning of a game, announce "Time" at its legal interruption and declare "Game" at its legal termination. Prior to the commencement of the game he shall announce the batteries, and during the progress of the game shall announce each change of players. In case of an overflow crowd, he shall announce the special ground rules and he shall also make announcement of any agreement entered into by the two managers or captains to stop play at a specified hour.

Suspension of Play.

RULE 67 The umpire shall suspend play for the following causes:
SECTION 1. If, in the judgment of the umpire, play should be suspended on account of rain, darkness, or other cause, he shall note the time of suspension and at the end of thirty minutes he shall have authority to terminate the game if the resumption of play be not possible.

SEC. 2. In case of an accident which incapacitates him or a player from service in the field, or in order to remove from the grounds any player or spectator who has violated the rules. Provided, that in case of accident to a player or players in attempting to make a play on either a batted or a thrown ball, "Time" shall not be called until in the judgment of the umpire, no further play is possible.

SEC. 3. In suspending play from any legal cause the umpire shall call "Time"; when he calls "Time" play shall be suspended until he calls "Play" again, and during the interim no player shall be put out, base be run or run be scored. "Time" shall not be called by the umpire until the ball be held by the pitcher while standing in his position, except in case of accident to a player or umpire.

There is no such thing as automatic suspension of play. There are a number of things that can happen, which eventually call for suspension of play, but the proper time for such suspension is determined by the umpire in keeping with the rules. There is an erroneous impression that play is automatically suspended when two players suffer a serious collision, in which both are rendered unconscious as a result of the contact. It is the belief of many that the umpire should call time since the players have been rendered unfit for play. While it may seem inhuman, time cannot be called until the umpire is of the opinion that no further play is possible. It is obvious that if umpires called "time" because of injury on the field and stopped the advancement of runners, that players would be constantly feigning injury to bring about such a situation. The ball must remain in play until in the opinion of the umpire no further advancement of runners is possible. Then and then only he calls time.

By some private signal umpires should agree upon calling a game on account of rain or darkness when such conditions arise. Two heads are better than one.

Umpire can resume play in a drizzle after play has been suspended if field is, in his judgment, fit for play.

If it is clearing at the end of 30 minutes and it looks as though it might clear off in a short while, wait another 30 minutes, but if you are positive at the end of the first 30 minutes that further play is impossible you can then suspend play for the day.

In case of a double-header wait an hour at least and be sure that further play is impossible before calling game off.

First game must be completed before the second game can be started.

When a double-header is advertised do not call off the second game no matter how long the first game has gone if there is a possible chance to start the second. Start it and go as far as you can and everybody is satisfied.

The umpire is the sole judge whether or not the second game should be started.

FIELD RULES.RULE
68

SECTION 1. No person shall be allowed upon any part of the field during the progress of a game except players and coaches in uniform, the manager of each club, the umpires, such officers of the law as may be present in uniform, and such watchmen of the home club as may be necessary to preserve the peace.

This is not strictly observed in amateur games, but it is best to have field as clear as possible.

Must Furnish Police Protection.

SEC. 2. Every club shall furnish sufficient police force to preserve order upon its own grounds, and in the event of a crowd entering the field during the progress of a game, and interfering with the play in any manner, the visiting club may refuse to play until the field be cleared. If the field be not cleared within 15 minutes thereafter, the visiting club may claim and shall be entitled to the game by a score of 9 runs to 0 (no matter what number of innings has been played).

General Definitions.

RULE 69 SECTION 1. "Play" is the order of the umpire to begin the game or to resume it after its suspension.

SEC. 2. "Time" is the order of the umpire to suspend play. Such suspension must not extend beyond the day.

SEC. 3. "Game" is the announcement of the umpire that the game is terminated.

SEC. 4. An "Inning" is the term at bat of the nine players representing a club in a game and is completed when three of such players have been legally put out.

SEC. 5. A "Time at Bat" is the term at bat of a batsman. It begins when he takes his position, and continues until he is put out or becomes a base-runner. But a time at bat shall not be charged against a batsman who is awarded first base by the umpire for being hit by a pitched ball, or on called balls, or when he makes a sacrifice hit, or for interference by the catcher.

A time at bat "not being charged" refers to the score. For instance, if Smith goes to the plate five times and makes three hits, and is given one base on balls, and is hit once by a pitched ball, he is charged officially in the score with three times at bat and credited with three hits, while in the score summary it is stated that he received a base on balls and was hit once by the pitcher. As batting averages are determined by dividing the total number of base hits by the total times at bat, to give a "time at bat" to a batter when he goes to first base on called balls, or for any other reasons stated in the rule, would act as penalty on the batsman, by reducing his batting average, for something for which he was not responsible.

SEC. 6. "Legal" or "Legally" signifies as required by these rules.

THE RULES OF SCORING.

RULE 70 To promote uniformity in recording championship games the following instructions are outlined for the guidance of scorers, who are required to conform to their provisions.

The Batsman's Record.

SECTION 1. The first item in the tabulated score, after the player's name and position, shall be the number of times he has been at bat during the game, but the exceptions made in Rule 69, Section 5, must not be included.

SEC. 2. In the second column shall be set down the runs, if any, made by each player.

SEC. 3. In the third column shall be placed the base hits, if any, made by each player.

SEC. 4. If, in the last half of the final inning, with the winning run on base, the batsman drives home that run, credit shall be given him for as many bases as he touches; that number, however, not to exceed the number of bases advanced by the runner; except when the batsman drives a fair ball out of the playing field, he shall receive credit for a home run, provided he legally touches each base in proper order.

Be sure that the batter gets a home run when the ball goes out of the playing field in the last half of final inning.

The Scoring of Base Hits.

SEC. 5. A base hit shall be scored in the following cases:

When a fair hit is made, as defined in Rule 37, and the batsman reaches first base safely.

When a fair hit is partially or wholly stopped by a fielder in motion, but such player cannot recover himself in time to field the ball to first before the batsman reaches that base, or to some other base in time to force out another runner.

When the ball is hit with such force to an infielder or pitcher that he cannot handle it in time to put out the batsman or force out a base-runner; except when the ball is recovered by another fielder in time to retire the batsman or force out a base-runner. In case of doubt over this kind of hit, a base hit should be scored and the fielder be exempted from the charge of an error.

When the ball is hit so slowly toward a fielder that he cannot handle it in time to put out the batsman or force out a base-runner.

In all cases where a base-runner is retired by being hit by a batted ball, unless batted by himself, the batsman should be credited with a base hit, except if the runner is hit by an infield fly, the play shall be scored as provided in Section 8 of Rule 44.

When a batted ball hits the person or clothing of the umpire, as defined in Rule 46, Section 6.

In no case shall a base hit be scored when a base-runner is forced out by the play.

When a fielder, after handling a batted ball, elects to try to retire a base-runner instead of the batter, the play is known as a "fielder's choice." In case the runner is retired, or would be retired but for an error, the batter shall be charged with a time at bat, but no hit. If the runner is not retired, and no error is made, the batter shall be charged with a time at bat, but no hit, provided he swung at the ball, and shall be credited with a sacrifice hit, provided he bunted the ball; if, however, in the judgment of the scorer the batter could not have been retired at first base by perfect fielding, he shall be credited with a base hit.

In event of a batsman oversliding second or third bases and being tagged by the opposing fielder when said batsman is attempting to stretch a single into a two-base hit or a two-base hit into a three-base hit, the play should be scored the same as when a base-runner attempts to steal, overslides the base and is tagged out. In other words, the batsman oversliding second base and is tagged out shall be credited only with a single, while one who overslides third base and is tagged out shall be credited only with a two-base hit.

Sacrifice Hits.

SEC. 6. Sacrifice hits shall be placed in the Summary.

A sacrifice hit shall be credited to the batsman who, when no one is out or when but one man is out, advances a runner a base by a bunt hit, which results in the batsman being put out before reaching first, or would so result if it were handled without error.

EXPLANATION—Eliminates sacrifice hit on a fly ball.

Fielding Records

SEC. 7. The number of opponents, if any, put out by each player shall be set down in the fourth column. When the batsman is called out by the umpire for an illegally batted ball, or for a foul third strike bunt, or for being hit by own batted ball, or for interference with the catcher, or for failing to bat in proper turn, the put-out shall be credited to the catcher. When a base-runner is declared out on an infield fly, the put-out shall be credited to the player who would have made the play except for the action of the runner or the announcement of the umpire. When a base-runner is declared out because of being hit by a batted ball, the put-out shall be credited to the fielder nearest to the ball at the time of the occurrence.

SEC. 8. The number of times, if any, each player assists in putting out an opponent shall be set down in the fifth column. One assist and no more shall be given to each player who handles the ball in aiding in a run-down or any other play of the kind, even though he complete the play by making the put-out.

Credit an assist to each player who handles and throws the ball in such a way that a put-out would have resulted except for the error of a team-mate.

Credit an assist to a player who, by deflecting a batted ball with his glove or any part of his body, aids in retiring the batsman or another base-runner.

Do not credit an assist to a fielder who makes a bad throw, even when a runner trying to advance on it is subsequently retired. A play that follows an error is a new play and the player making an error is not entitled to an assist unless he takes part in the new play.

Do not credit an assist to the pitcher when, in legally delivering the ball to the batsman, he helps to retire a runner attempting to steal home.

Assists should be credited to every player who handles the ball in the play which results in a base-runner being called "out" for interference or for running out of line.

A double play shall mean any two continuous put-outs that take place between the time the ball leaves the pitcher's hands until it is returned to him again standing in the pitcher's box.

Errors.

SEC. 9. An error shall be given in the sixth column for each mis-play which prolongs the time at bat of the batsman or prolongs the life of the base-runner or allows a base-runner to make one or more bases when perfect play would have insured his being put out. But a base on balls, a base awarded to a batsman by being struck by a pitched ball, a balk, a passed ball or a wild pitch (unless the batsman reach first base on such pitch), shall not be included in the sixth column.

An error shall not be charged against the catcher for a wild throw in an attempt to prevent a stolen base, unless the base-runner advance an extra base because of the error.

An error shall not be scored against the catcher or an infielder who attempts to complete a double play, unless the throw be so wild that an additional base be gained. This, however, does not exempt from an error a player who drops a thrown ball when by holding it he would have completed a double play.

In case a base-runner advance a base through the failure of a baseman to stop or try to stop a ball accurately thrown to his base the latter shall be charged with an error and not the player who made such throw, provided there was occasion for it. If such throw be made to second base the scorer shall determine whether the second baseman or shortstop shall be charged with an error.

In event of a fielder dropping a fly but recovering the ball in time to force a runner at another base, he shall be exempted from an error, the play being scored as a "force-out."

An error, but not a passed ball, shall be charged to the catcher if he drops or misses a third strike, allowing the batsman to reach first base. Credit the pitcher with a strike-out.

An error shall be charged to the first baseman (or the pitcher or second baseman when covering first base) if, on receiving a throw in ample time to retire the batsman he does not touch first base as required by rule. The same rule shall be followed with respect to any fielder covering any other base on a force play.

Stolen Bases.

SEC. 10. A stolen base shall be credited to the base-runner whenever he advances a base unaided by a base hit, a put-out, a fielding or a battery error, subject to the following exceptions:

In event of a double or triple steal being attempted, where any runner is thrown out, no other runner shall be credited with a stolen base.

In event of a base-runner being touched out after sliding over a base, he shall not be regarded as having stolen the base in question.

In the event of a palpable muff of a ball thrown by the catcher, when, in the judgment of the scorer, the base-runner would have been out if the ball had been held, the infielder making the muff shall be charged with an error and the base-runner shall not be credited with a stolen base.

No stolen base shall be credited to a runner whose advancing results from the opposing team's indifference thereto.

In other words, when runners are deliberately permitted to circle around the bases because the team at bat cannot conceivably win, there are no stolen bases. If a runner steals a base and the catcher evidently refuses to throw fearing that the runner may score from third, a stolen base should be credited, in fairness to the runner who makes the catcher "show his hand."

Definition of Wild Pitch and Passed Ball.

SEC. 11. A wild pitch is a legally delivered ball, so high, low or wide of the plate that the catcher cannot or does not stop and control it with ordinary effort, and as a result the batsman reaches first base or a base-runner advances.

Any pitched ball that strikes the ground before reaching the home plate and passes the catcher, allowing runners to advance, shall be scored as a wild pitch.

When a batsman is hit by what would have been the fourth called ball, it shall be scored as a "hit by pitcher."

The catcher shall be charged with a passed ball when a base-runner is enabled to advance by the catcher's failure to hold or to control a legally delivered ball that should have been held or controlled with ordinary effort.

Definition of Run Earned Off Pitcher.

SEC. 12. A run earned off the pitcher shall be scored every time a player reaches home base by the aid of safe hits, sacrifice hits, stolen bases, put-outs, bases on balls, hit batsman, wild pitches or balks, even though the wild pitch be a third strike, before fielding chances have been offered to retire the team. The preceding pitcher, and not a relieving pitcher, shall be charged with runs scored by any runners on base when such relief pitcher entered the game. The relieving pitcher shall not be charged with his first batsman reaching first base if such batsman had any advantage because of poor pitching by the preceding pitcher. With the count two or three balls and one or no strikes, or three balls and two strikes, charge preceding pitcher if batsman reaches first base, but credit relieving pitcher if batsman is retired. With count one or two balls and two strikes, charge relieving pitcher if batsman reaches first base and credit him if batsman is retired.

The pitcher shall be given the benefit of doubt whenever fielding errors are made and in determining the base to which a runner should have been held with perfect support on part of fielders. A fielding error made by the pitcher shall be considered the same as any other fielding error. No run can be earned that scores as result of batsman having reached first base on a catcher's interference, a fielding error or passed ball; nor can any run be earned after the fielding team has failed to accept chances offered to retire the team at bat.

To determine the pitcher's percentage for the season, the total number of runs earned off his pitching shall be divided by the total number of innings he has pitched; then multiplied by nine, to find his average effectiveness for a complete game.

Definition of Runs Batted In.

SEC. 13. Runs Batted In are runs scored on safe hits (including home runs), sacrifice hits, outfield put-outs, infield put-outs, and when the run is forced over by reason of batsman becoming a base-runner. With less than two out, if an error is made on a play on which a runner from third would ordinarily score, credit the batsman with a Run Batted In.

The batsman shall not be credited with driving in a run when a runner scores as he hits into a force infield double play or a double play in which the first baseman picks up a fair hit ground ball, touches first base and then throws to second retiring the runner who had been on first, said runner not being forced, has to be tagged out.

The Summary.

RULE The Summary shall contain:

71 SECTION 1. The score made in each inning of the game and the total runs of each team in the game.

SEC. 2. The number of stolen bases, if any, made by each player.

RULE 71—Continued

- SEC. 3. The number of sacrifice hits, if any, made by each player.
- SEC. 4. The number of two-base hits, if any, made by each player.
- SEC. 5. The number of three base hits, if any, made by each player.
- SEC. 6. The number of home runs, if any, made by each player.
- SEC. 7. The number of double and triple plays, if any, made by each team and the players participating in same.
- SEC. 8. The number of runs batted in by each batsman.
- SEC. 9. The number of innings each pitcher pitched in.
- SEC. 10. The number of base hits, if any, made off each pitcher, and the number of legal "at bats" scored against each pitcher. (The Summary to be in form as follows: "Hits off.....6 in 4 innings; one man out in 5th.")
- SEC. 11. The number of times, if any, the pitcher strikes out the opposing batsmen.
- SEC. 12. The number of times, if any, the pitcher gives bases on balls.
- SEC. 13. The number of wild pitches, if any, charged against the pitcher.
- SEC. 14. The number of times, if any, the pitcher hits a batsman with a pitched ball, the name or names of the batsman or batsmen so hit to be given.
- SEC. 15. The number of passed balls, if any, by each catcher.
- SEC. 16. The time of the game.
- SEC. 17. The name of the umpire or umpires.

How to Determine Percentages.

1. To determine the percentage of Games Won and Lost, divide the total number of games won and lost into the number won.
 2. To determine Batting Averages, divide the total "Times at Bat" into the total number of base hits, but never into the total bases on hits.
 3. To determine Fielding Averages, divide the total of put-outs, assists and errors into the total of put-outs and assists.
- In all cases where the remaining fraction is one-half or over, a full point is added to the average.

POWER AT THE PLATE!

Arkansas TRAVELER BATS

It's the way they're made that puts the sensational performance in Arkansas Travelers. The resilient, driving power of genuine AIR-DRIED AND SEASONED Ash gives them the wallop that makes the crowd stand up and cheer. It's the BONE-RUBBED FEEL AND FINISH that makes them the choice of big leaguers everywhere.

Arkansas Travelers can't be beat. They're tops in performance — they're tops in service!

PLANNING NIGHT BASEBALL? BE SURE TO GET ENGINEERED LIGHTING

BASEBALL PLAYERS and fans today insist on shadow-free, high-intensity lighting for fast, errorless play. General Electric answers with engineered lighting.

Engineered lighting provides high-speed vision without glaring brightness or confusing shadows. This means your lighting system must be designed for the specific job. G-E engineers combine their long-range application experience in professional-league lighting to give you the latest technique of light for seeing—and economy.

The latest contribution to engineered lighting is the Type L-69 floodlight, now available with narrow-, medium-, and wide-beam reflectors. It offers long-needed glare suppression; exact control of the projected light; improved efficiency; quick, easy installation and maintenance.

Engineered lighting—whether for your present system or a new one—is available through our nearest G-E office. Or, write to General Electric, Schenectady, N. Y.

TWINS OF THE MAJORS

Both made by Spalding

● Only official ball of every Major League game.

● Only official ball of every World Series game.

● Only official ball of every Major League All-Star game.

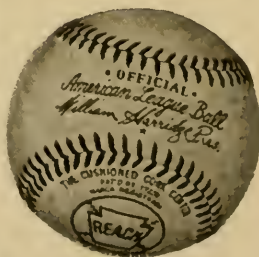

SPALDING BALL

— Official in National League
ever since it began
(72 years ago)

REACH BALL

— Official in American League
ever since it began
(48 years ago)

Since both leagues were organized, only the Spalding and Reach baseballs have been used. Both balls are made to league specifications. Choose either of these "Twins of the Majors" with confidence.

SPALDING sets the pace in sports

Identified with baseball history since 1897. During its lifetime many changes in the game have taken place—famous players have come and gone—yet today the No. 97 stands unchallenged—acknowledged as the best of all official league balls.
